

WASHINGTON REDSKINS 2016 MEDIA GUIDE

THIS 2016 MEDIA GUIDE FEATURES... AUGMENTED REALITY

INTERACT!

Last year, the Washington Redskins became one of the first teams in professional sports to feature augmented reality integration in an annual media guide.

Throughout our 2016 Media Guide, 20 pages including the cover feature embedded video content of great moments in Redskins history, current player highlights, draft moments and more.

1. Open the Apple App Store or Google Play Store and download the Layar app.
2. Open Layar.
3. Find pages that include this logo in the bottom corner (the cover also features video integration):

4. Tap the screen to scan.
5. Keep your phone pointed at the guide. A video will replace the photo on the page. Enjoy!

The following pages feature video content:

- Cover	- Pg. 227
- Pg. 60	- Pg. 228
- Pg. 95	- Pg. 233
- Pg. 105	- Pg. 238

CHARITABLE FOUNDATION

The mission of the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation is to make a positive and measurable impact in the lives of children in our community. Since its start in 2000, the Foundation has given back more than $16M to the community, focusing primarily in the areas of education, community outreach and health and wellness.

LEADERS IN THE COMMUNITY.

Since the inception of the Foundation in 2000, the Leadership Council has been at the forefront of the organization's efforts to help improve the lives of children in our community. These business leaders in the community not only provide financial resources, access to a professional network and widespread expertise, but their generosity and support are second to none and are essential to the success of the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation.

BACK TO SCHOOL FAIR

A child feeling underprepared for school is one of the top reasons for absences at the start of the school year. The Redskins Charitable Foundation's Back to School Fair was designed to give low-income families and their children a central place to get ready for the upcoming school year. By providing participants with a multitude of goods and services including dental exams, school physicals, eye exams, haircuts and brand new school supplies and backpacks, families were able to get a helping hand all in one place. In partnership with Catholic Charities, hundreds of elementary school students descended upon a transformed FedExField and received all the supplies and services needed to start smart and tackle the upcoming school year.

JOIN OUR TEAM!

Help support the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation through our many fundraising efforts and support of youth focused non-profit organizations.

DONATE YOUR TICKETS:

We receive thousands of requests for Redskins game tickets from our non-profit partners who focus on making a positive impact on youth in our community. You can make a tax-deductible donation of your tickets and parking passes to the Redskins Replay ticket donation program. All donors will receive a letter at the end of the season outlining their total donation amount.

PURCHASE A REDSKINS LICENSE PLATE:

All registered drivers in Maryland and Virginia are eligible to purchase an official Washington Redskins license plate for their vehicle along with making a donation to the Foundation. Since the debut of the Redskins license plate program in 2010, fans have donated more than $761,841 to the Charitable Foundation to help make a positive and measurable impact on the lives of children in our community.

EXECUTIVE BIOS

DANIEL M. SNYDER

OWNER

A self-made man and an entrepreneur at heart, Dan Snyder's life has been consumed by an enduring passion for the people, the team and the community he loves.

Growing up in the D.C. area and attending Redskins games with his father, Gerald, his youth and young adulthood were shaped and inspired by his devotion to the Washington Redskins. Since purchasing the team in 1999, Snyder has put his passion into action. He has consistently led the franchise to new prominence in the community, the business world and the National Football League. Under his leadership, the team has raised millions of dollars for charitable efforts and maintained its place in the top tier of the world's most valuable sports franchises.

Snyder, 51, continues to be one of the Washington area's most prominent community leaders and philanthropists. Shortly after purchasing the franchise in 1999, one of Snyder's first actions as owner was to create the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation (WRCF) in 2000 to utilize the assets of the Redskins and their corporate and community partners to make a positive and measurable impact on youth development in the greater Washington, D.C., region. The foundation focuses on the areas of education, community outreach, and health and wellness, and since its inception, Charitable Foundation programs have made an impact on millions of lives and given back nearly $20 million to individuals, groups and organizations in the community.

In 2015 alone, WRCF hosted nearly 90 events for children and their families, encompassing a broad spectrum of efforts that included supporting more than 9,500 children's literacy efforts through its Redskins Read Program and providing 2,500 families with all the supplies needed to prepare Thanksgiving for their families, among numerous others. Since 2003, Snyder, Redskins players, and other volunteers have also gifted more than 1,059,760 pounds of packaged and fresh food and 460,500 pounds of turkey to area families in need at the team's annual Harvest Feast. In 2015, the Redskins gifted 92,575 pounds of packaged and fresh food and 30,000 pounds of turkey at the annual event at FedExField.

In addition to his efforts with WRCF, Snyder has provided significant support to Washington's Children's Hospital and the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC). His support enabled construction of the Snyder Family Emergency Medicine and Trauma Center at Children's Hospital. He is a member of the Children's Hospital Foundation Board of Directors. He also funded construction of the Daniel M. Snyder and Family Communication Center at the Center for Missing and Exploited Children. Each day, the Center handles hundreds of calls from around the nation from law enforcement organizations, parents of missing children, runaways seeking help, and people responding to the Center's well-known awareness campaigns on behalf of missing children. In May 2014, Snyder and his wife, Tanya, were honored with the Charles B. Wang International Children's Award at the NCMEC annual Hope Awards Dinner.

In March of 2014, Snyder and the Washington Redskins launched the Washington Redskins Original Americans Foundation to help Tribal communities with the urgent challenges that plague their reservations. Since its inception, the Washington Redskins Original Americans Foundation has worked with more than 50 federally recognized tribes. The efforts have improved the quality of life for hundreds of thousands of American Indians living in federally recognized Tribal communities.

Beyond his charitable efforts, Snyder is prominent in the affairs of the NFL, where his expertise in the fields of marketing and media has been recognized with appointments to the Broadcast Committee, the Business Ventures Committee, the Digital Media Committee (for which he serves as Co-Chair), the International Committee, the Hall of Fame Committee (which oversees the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio), and, separately, as a member of the Board of Directors of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The Redskins, who continue to be ranked among the world's most valuable sports franchises on Forbes magazine's annual list, remain at the forefront of NFL marketing and business organizations. Since buying the team, Snyder has launched a highly successful retail arm, with several Official Redskins Stores in Virginia and Maryland, as well as mobile units for use at home games and other events.

In the summer of 2013, Snyder and the Redskins moved their annual Training Camp to Richmond, Va., hosting the team's training sessions at the brand new Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center. During the team's inaugural three-week stay in the capital, more than 165,000 attended walkthroughs and practices. In addition, the Redskins' outreach in the community included more than 5,000 kids impacted by the Charitable Foundation's Play 60 programs and cheerleading programs, as well as 200 high school coaches invited to a concussion clinic held by the Redskins.

In June 2012, Snyder and the Redskins reaffirmed the team's commitment to the Commonwealth of Virginia, announcing that team will retain its corporate headquarters by improving Redskins Park, its Loudoun County training facility. In the 2013 offseason, Snyder and the Redskins began improvements to Redskins Park, including upgrades to the weight room, athletic training facility, locker room, hydrotherapy stations, media availability areas, in-house cafeteria and more.

During Snyder's 17 seasons as owner of the team, 24 different Redskins have earned a total of 43 Pro Bowl appearances, nine different Redskins have been named All-Pro, and

DANIEL M. SNYDER

13 Redskins draft picks have been selected to the All-Rookie Team. In addition, three players from his tenure as owner, Darrell Green, Bruce Smith and Deion Sanders, have gone on to induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

FedExField, the team's wholly-owned stadium in Landover, Md., boasts seating capacity for 82,000 people, and Snyder continues to spearhead efforts to improve the fan experience at the stadium. Tickets to Redskins games have been sold out for more than 40 years. Since he purchased the team, Snyder has invested more than $100 million in improvements to the facility, including high-speed escalators to the upper deck, updated signage, more than 1,000 flat-screen TVs in concourses and other areas, as well as the League standard-setting Owner's Club East and Owner's Club West private luxury suites. In 2010, the Redskins installed two new video boards – 30 feet high and 100 feet wide – in each of the end zones at FedExField. The screens feature state-of-the-art high definition LED displays and tripled the size of the previous end zone video displays. The team also enhanced the fans' gameday experience with all-new game clocks, play clocks and other in-stadium video displays.

Over the last several years, Snyder and the entire Redskins organization have spearheaded efforts to enhance FedExField's guest experience. Among the improvements implemented with success in 2015 were an increase in the number of stadium gates and new parking plans to reduce congestion and welcome fans in and out more efficiently. The Redskins also upgraded Wi-Fi throughout the stadium, creating better access to enhanced game day features on the Redskins Mobile App and complimentary access to the Red Zone Channel via NFL Mobile for season ticket members.

The club's media ventures include Redskins Nation, produced by the Redskins Broadcast Network, which is the league's only year-round, daily 30-minute television show. The team also produces television and radio broadcasts via Redskins.com, a robust editorial and social media staff, and Extremeskins.com, the team's fan forum. The team also produces a variety of other television programs, broadcast independently as well as in partnership with local television outlets.

Snyder was Founder, Chairman and CEO of Snyder Communications, Inc. and was the youngest CEO of a New York Stock Exchange company at the time. From its launch in 1985, the company grew to a global organization of 12,000 employees with 77 offices in 17 countries and more than $1 billion in annual revenues. The company's client base included 200 of the Fortune 500, to which it provided targeted marketing solutions, including advertising and marketing services. In March 2000, the company was acquired by the French marketing firm Havas for more than $2.3 billion, at the time the largest such merger in the history of the advertising/marketing industry.

Snyder is Founder and Chairman Emeritus of inVentiv Health (NASDAQ: VTIV). Additionally, Snyder is Founder and Managing Member of the Board of Red Zebra Broadcasting, LLC, which operates radio stations in Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia airing Redskins broadcasts, popular national radio shows and locally generated programming. Snyder is active in a variety of other private business ventures, both as an investor and as an advisor to management. He is a frequent invitee to share his experiences and views with business organizations nationwide, and he is enshrined in the Jewish Sports Hall of Fame.

In 2010, Snyder was honored by Beacon House, a non-sectarian, neighborhood-based organization that supports at-risk youth and families of the Edgewood Terrace community in Washington, D.C., during a community celebration to dedicate the football field at Edgewood Department of Parks and Recreation Center.

In April 2012, Snyder was presented Youth For Tomorrow's Distinguished Leader Award in recognition of his years of support for the organization's private, residential school and counseling center in Bristow, Va., which has provided year-round care for more than 900 homeless and at-risk children ages 11-17 from Northern Virginia and the District of Columbia. The honor is periodically awarded to individuals who have demonstrated long and generous support to Youth For Tomorrow. In announcing the award at YFT's annual Burgundy and Gold Banquet, Hall of Fame Redskins Coach Joe Gibbs, who is also Founder and Chairman of Youth For Tomorrow, said, "Dan Snyder began his support of the kids at Youth For Tomorrow long before I ever considered returning to coach the team in 2004."

Snyder and his wife, Tanya, have three children and live in Potomac, Md.

REDSKINS OWNERSHIP HISTORY

Daniel M. Snyder is the third majority owner in the history of the Washington Redskins franchise.

OWNERSHIP GROUP

Daniel M. Snyder has surrounded himself with trusted advisors and supporters since the early days of his business career, from his home office as a teenager through the founding of Snyder Communications in Bethesda, Md., to ownership of the Washington Redskins. It is those family members and associates who round out the ownership group of the Washington Redskins.

Before launching a business initiative or making a critical business decision, they are the key individuals Snyder has turned to as partners, advisors and confidants.

Snyder's sister Michele Snyder, a founder of Snyder Communications, shares his ambitious spirit. Her creativity, operational skills, and business instincts have played an instrumental role in the success of Team Snyder over the years.

Calm and steadying influences have been the contributions of Gerry and Arlette Snyder, parents of the Redskins owner. A long-time journalist and author with more than two dozen books to his credit, Gerry Snyder was editor-in-chief of Snyder Communications during the early years of the company. Gerry Snyder died in 2003 at age 69.

Arlette Snyder, who maintains the family ownership position in the team, continues her role as a primary advisor to the owner and his other partners.

Robert Rothman is Chairman and CEO of Black Diamond Group, Inc., a private investment firm in Tampa, Florida. BRUCE ALLEN

PRESIDENT

Bruce Allen has come full circle. More than 30 years have passed since Allen resided in the Washington, D.C., region and was a ball boy for his father, George Allen, the late Hall of Fame head coach who led the "Over the Hill Gang" Washington Redskins to an NFC Championship in 1972 and an appearance in Super Bowl VII.

Allen joined the Redskins as the team's Executive Vice President/General Manager on December 17, 2009, after a decorated career spanning more than three decades, including serving as a general manager and executive with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Oakland Raiders as well as recording a successful run in the USFL with the Chicago Blitz and the Arizona Wranglers.

"It's exciting because of the history, the tradition, the comfort about coming home," Allen said in 2009. "Everybody who knows me, knows that the principles of football in my mind are simple – it's a team. It's 53 men, the entire staff, everybody in the building going in the same direction for one common goal, and that's to win."

During Allen's tenure, the Redskins' focus and impact has far exceeded the mere scope of the playing field. In August 2011, Allen assumed the role of President of the Board of the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation and has tirelessly worked hand-in-hand with the foundation to positively impact the lives of youth in the Washington, D.C. community. The foundation focuses on the areas of education, community outreach, and health and wellness, and since its inception, Charitable Foundation programs have made an impact on millions of lives and given back nearly $20 million to individuals, groups and organizations in the community.

Allen annually participates in many of the Foundation's signature events, including the Redskins Alumni Golf Classic, where he serves as Chairman, the Redskins Easter Egg Hunt, Fields for Tomorrow field dedications, the Mickey Steele Memorial Golf Outing and the Leukemia & Lymphoma Golf tournament, among others. In early 2016, Allen and the organization accepted the inaugural Legacy Award from the Loudoun School-Business Partnership Executive Council for the team's exemplary work in going "above and beyond" for Loudoun County Students. Allen's philanthropic support also extends to efforts with Doug Williams' Washington Football Legends for Charity and Joe Gibbs' Youth For Tomorrow.

On the field, Allen's squads have earned seven division championships, with Washington marking the third different franchise (Oakland, Tampa Bay and Washington) he had helped lead to a division crown in that timeframe. Since 2000, only Allen and Rich McKay have guided multiple franchises to division titles as General Manager.

Allen has previously played a key role in identifying Jay Gruden as the 29th head coach in franchise history, citing Gruden's passion for the game and passion for the Washington Redskins upon his hire in January 2014.

In May 2014, during an offseason in which Allen helped guide the franchise through a coaching transition and provided public leadership for the organization, the Redskins formally announced Allen as the team's President. In January 2015, Allen hired Scot McCloughan to serve as the Redskins' General Manager.

"So what we found is the guy that – I really come back to one of the greatest quotes I know in sports or life that former Washington Redskins coach Marv Levy, who is in the Hall of Fame, who said, 'Where would you rather be than right here, right now?'" Allen said.

Aside from his management of the Redskins' football operations and his dedication to the Redskins' charitable efforts, Allen has led initiatives to extend the Redskins' outreach to their former players and engage the team's vast alumni network.

"We owe them a great debt of gratitude for their accomplishments for building this game," Allen said. "Not just the three Super Bowl trophies, but the way they have represented themselves in the burgundy and gold."

Last fall, Allen and the Redskins welcomed back Redskins Alumni for the team's annual Alumni Homecoming Weekend during the team's Week 7 comeback win against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Players in attendance represented nearly 600 combined seasons of Redskins service, 98 combined Super Bowl appearances, 59 combined Super Bowl titles, 26 members of the 80 Greatest Redskins, 17 Redskins Ring of Famers and five Pro Football Hall of Famers. In addition, as announced by Allen at the 2015 Welcome Home Luncheon, the Redskins used their 2015 Alumni Homecoming celebration to induct Jeff Bostic as the 47th member of the team's Ring of Fame before inducting Monte Coleman as the 48th member in December.

In addition to his ongoing connection with Redskins alumni and charitable efforts, Allen is actively involved in fan outreach. He has taken the time to personally connect with Redskins fans all over the world via one-on-one meetings, Redskins Rally events, fan forums, phone calls and e-mails to foster and strengthen the organization's relationship with its fans.

Allen and his wife, Kiersten, have a son, George, and a daughter, Mikayla. Kiersten serves on the Moffitt Cancer Foundation Board of Directors, where she and Bruce have worked to aid in the Foundation's mission to contribute to the prevention and cure of cancer.

Allen was drafted by the Baltimore Colts as a 12th-round selection in 1978 out of the University of Richmond. He played for the Spiders from 1974-77, earning All-ECAC and All-South Independent honors in his junior season, when he ranked 16th in the nation and broke a school punting record with a 42.9-yard average. He earned his degree in business marketing, and in February 2016, he was honored with induction into the University of Richmond's Athletics Hall of Fame.

Allen's late father George, who was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2002, was Head Coach of the Redskins from 1971-77. He amassed a 67-30-1 record and an appearance in Super Bowl VII in seven seasons in Washington. George never had a losing campaign in 12 seasons as an NFL head coach including his seven years at the helm of the Redskins.

Like his father, who developed the original Redskins Park, Bruce helped spearhead the effort for facility improvements to provide the Redskins a state-of-the-art team headquarters equipped with every necessary amenity and competitive advantage to support the football operation. Allen also played a key role in the team moving its annual training camp to Richmond, Va., beginning in 2013 at the world-class Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center.

Bruce's brother George served as Virginia governor and as a U.S. Senator from Virginia. He also has two other siblings, Greg, a psychologist specializing in family counseling and Founder of Freedom4U in Southern California, and Jennifer Allen Richard, an author and contributor to the NFL Network.

SCOT McCLOUGHAN

GENERAL MANAGER

Scot McCloughan is entering his second season as the Washington Redskins' General Manager in 2016 after being named to the position on January 8, 2015. The highly regarded executive joined the Redskins in 2015 with more than 20 seasons of NFL experience as an executive or scout to his credit.

In his first season in Washington in 2015, McCloughan ["Mc-LEW-ehn"] immediately helped engineer a five-win improvement and an NFC East title. In addition to adding a number of key veteran leaders in free agency, the team's 2015 draft class played a pivotal role in the team's division title-winning campaign. No. 5 overall pick Brandon Scherff earned All-Rookie honors at guard, second-round linebacker Preston Smith led all rookies in sacks [8.0] and fourth-round receiver Jamison Crowder set the team record for receptions in a rookie season [59]. In addition, third-round running back Matt Jones, sixth-round safety Kyshoen Jarrett and undrafted receiver-turned-cornerback Quinton Dunbar all made critical contributions to the 9-7 season.

McCloughan assumed control of the Redskins in 2015 after a career spent developing a sterling reputation for roster building. Prior to McCloughan's arrival in the 2015 offseason, teams featuring McCloughan's acquisitions during his tenures with the San Francisco 49ers and Seattle Seahawks accounted for each of the previous five NFC West titles and represented the NFC in each of the three previous Super Bowls.

McCloughan was named as the Seahawks' Senior Personnel Executive in 2010, a role that assisted the general manager in all aspects of building the roster. McCloughan departed to start his own business - Instinctive Scouting, LLC - prior to the 2014 NFL Draft.

McCloughan spent five seasons with the 49ers, serving as Vice President of Football Operations from 2005-07 and being named General Manager in 2008 before resigning following the 2009 season. While with the 49ers, McCloughan orchestrated successful drafts that included Pro Bowlers Dashon Goldson, Frank Gore, Vernon Davis, Joe Staley and Patrick Willis, helping establish the core of the roster that helped the 49ers to an NFC-best 36 wins and three consecutive NFC Championship berths across the 2011-13 seasons.

Prior to his time with the 49ers, McCloughan spent five seasons as the Seahawks' Director of College Scouting from 2000-04. His efforts helped the Seahawks win the NFC Championship in 2005 and earn a berth in Super Bowl XL in Detroit.

As of the conclusion of the 2015 season, draft picks selected during McCloughan's tenures in various roles with the 49ers and Seahawks, including guard Steve Hutchinson and linebacker Patrick Willis, have accounted for 41 Pro Bowl selections and 14 first-team All-Pro honors. McCloughan also contributed to the 2011-13 drafts as the Seahawks' Senior Personnel Executive, drafts that included two-time All-Pro cornerback Richard Sherman and four-time Pro Bowl quarterback Russell Wilson.

McCloughan worked in the Green Bay Packers' scouting department as a regional scout from 1994-99, learning under Pro Football Hall of Fame General Manager Ron Wolf. During his tenure in Green Bay, he was part of two Packers' Super Bowl teams, including the 1996 Super Bowl XXXI championship squad.

McCloughan comes from a football pedigree. His father, Kent, was selected by the Redskins in the third round of the 1965 NFL Draft as part of a Washington draft class that included franchise legends Chris Hanburger and Jerry Smith. Kent went on to play six seasons with the Oakland Raiders (1965-70), earning Pro Bowl selections and first-team All Pro honors following both the 1966 and 1967 seasons. After his playing career, he was a member of the Raiders' scouting staff for more than 30 years.

Scot's brother, David, played 48 career NFL games with three starts as a safety for the Indianapolis Colts, Green Bay Packers and Seattle Seahawks from 1991-94. He is currently a scout with the Raiders.

Before entering the NFL, McCloughan played minor league baseball for three years in the Toronto Blue Jays organization, including spending part of two seasons with the Hagerstown Suns. He had a successful collegiate career at Wichita State, where he contributed in two collegiate World Series as a designated hitter and third baseman.

JAY GRUDEN

HEAD COACH

13TH NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH REDSKINS

Jay Gruden enters his third season with the Washington Redskins in 2016 after being named the 29th head coach in franchise history on January 9, 2014.

Previously a decorated quarterback in the college and Arena Football League ranks and a successful NFL assistant, Gruden showcased his offensive acumen honed from his diverse football background in his first two years with the Redskins.

In 2015, Gruden led the Redskins to an NFC East Championship, posting a 9-7 record to complete the second "worst-to-first" turnaround in team history. Gruden became the sixth coach in team history to lead the Redskins to a playoff berth within the first two years at the helm, joining Ray Flaherty, Dutch Bergman, Dudley DeGroot, George Allen and Joe Gibbs.

Under Gruden's guidance, the 2015 Redskins featured one of the most prolific passing attacks in franchise history. Quarterback Kirk Cousins, named the starter in the middle of the preseason, set single-season team records for attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven) while throwing 29 touchdown passes, including at least one in all 16 games. Cousins' success coincided with the emergence of third-year tight end Jordan Reed, who finished the season with 87 receptions for 952 yards (both team records for a tight end) with 11 receiving touchdowns.

Gruden assumed control of the Redskins in 2014 and guided the team through a campaign in which three different quarterbacks (Robert Griffin III, Kirk Cousins and Colt McCoy) recorded victories as starters. He installed an offensive system that produced two Pro Bowlers in his first season as tackle Trent Williams and running back Alfred Morris earned repeat berths.

Excluding interim coaches, Gruden, 46 at the time of his hiring, became the team's youngest head coaching hire since hiring eventual Pro Football Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs at 40 years of age in 1981. He became the first Redskins head coach hired directly from an offensive coordinator role on another team since Norv Turner in 1994.

Before joining the Redskins, Gruden spent his previous three seasons as offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals. In his tenure in Cincinnati, the Bengals averaged 10 wins a season, making three consecutive playoff appearances and earning an AFC North championship in 2013. Members of the Bengals' offense accounted for seven Pro Bowl selections in his three seasons in Cincinnati.

Gruden was tasked with the development of quarterback Andy Dalton, a 2011 second-round pick. In three seasons together, Gruden helped Dalton to a 30-18 regular season record as a starter (.625), as Dalton's 30 wins in that time frame ranked tied for fifth-most among NFL quarterbacks. Dalton's 80 passing touchdowns rank third-most in NFL history for a quarterback in his first three seasons, trailing only Dan Marino (98) and Peyton Manning (85).

Prior to joining the Bengals, Gruden served two years with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League from 2009-10. In 2009, Gruden served as offensive coordinator as the Tuskers compiled a 6-0 regular season record and earned a UFL championship game berth. In 2010, he assumed the roles of head coach and general manager and led the Tuskers to their second consecutive championship game appearance.

Gruden coached for seven seasons (2002-08) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, earning a Super Bowl championship ring as an offensive assistant in 2002. There he worked under his brother, Jon (then the Bucs' head coach), and current Redskins President Bruce Allen (the Bucs' general manager from 2004-08). Gruden helped guide the Buccaneers to the team's first league championship, a 48-21 victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Gruden also ranks among the most outstanding players and coaches in the history of the Arena Football League, having won six combined league championships – four as a quarterback and two as a head coach. Gruden played quarterback (2002-03) and served as head coach (2004-08) of the AFL's Orlando Predators while simultaneously working as an offensive assistant with the Buccaneers. In all, Gruden served as head coach of the Predators for nine seasons (1998-2001 and 2004-08), leading the Predators to four championship game appearances and two league titles as a coach. During a two-year hiatus from coaching the Predators in 2002-03, he returned to the playing field as Orlando's quarterback, leading the Predators to playoff appearances in both seasons.

In his eight seasons as a player in the AFL, Gruden completed 1,673-of-2,775 passes (60.3 percent) for 21,578 yards with 398 touchdowns and 99 interceptions. In addition to his time with Orlando, he spent six seasons (1991-96) at quarterback for the Tampa Bay Storm, winning four AFL titles and being named MVP of ArenaBowl VII in 1993. He was also named the 1992 AFL Most Valuable Player and was honored with induction into the AFL Hall of Fame in 1999.

Gruden played quarterback for four seasons for former Redskins draft pick Howard Schnellenberger at the University of Louisville (1985-88) and was a two-time team MVP.

Gruden was born March 4, 1967, in Tiffin, Ohio. He and his wife, Sherry, have three sons – J.J., Joey and Jack – and a grandson, Trey.

2015-Pres.	Defensive Coordinator	Washington Redskins

Joe Barry enters his second season as the Redskins' defensive coordinator in 2016 after being named to the position on January 20, 2015.

Now in his 15th NFL season, including four as a defensive coordinator, Barry has been a member of a defensive staff that has finished in the Top 10 in total defense five times, including No. 1 overall units in 2002 and 2005. Under Barry, Tampa Bay Buccaneers Hall of Fame linebacker Derrick Brooks was named the 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

Barry's relentless enthusiasm and energy was present in his first season in Washington in 2015, as he and his staff seamlessly integrated draft picks, veteran additions, undrafted rookies and "off-the-street" free agents en route to a 9-7 record and an NFC East championship. Barry's "starters and starters-in-waiting" philosophy was evident during the season as 32 different players logged a defensive snap, 24 of whom started at least one game.

Barry's 2015 Redskins forced 27 takeaways, including 26 in the final 14 weeks of the season to tie for third-most in the NFL in that time frame. He and his staff adapted and thrived despite a rash of injuries throughout the unit, including moving DeAngelo Hall from cornerback to safety, splitting sixth-round pick Kyshoen Jarrett's time between safety and nickelback, getting major contributions from midseason signing Will Blackmon and converting college free agent wide receiver Quinton Dunbar to cornerback during training camp.

Prior to joining the Redskins in 2015, Barry served as linebackers coach for the San Diego Chargers from 2012-14. Prior to his tenure in San Diego, he was the linebackers coach for Southern California from 2010-11. Barry helped mold linebacker Malcolm Smith into a 2011 draft selection who eventually went on to become the MVP of Super Bowl XLVIII.

Barry returned to Tampa Bay for his second stint with the team in 2009, again serving as the team's linebackers coach. During his first tenure with Tampa Bay from 2001-06, the defense allowed the fewest passing yards per game (177.2), the second-fewest yards per game (285.7) and the second-fewest points per game (17.4). In addition, Buccaneers linebackers were named to the Pro Bowl seven times in his first six seasons.

In 2002, Barry helped lead the Buccaneers to their first championship in franchise history with a 48-21 win against the Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. The title game featured the Buccaneers' top-ranked defense (252.8 yards per game) against the Raiders' top-ranked offense (389.8), but the Bucs' defense limited Oakland to 269 yards. Tampa Bay forced five interceptions, three of which were returned for touchdowns, including a game-sealing 44-yard interception return for touchdown by Brooks in the fourth quarter.

Barry served as the defensive coordinator for the Detroit Lions from 2007-08, where he led units that ranked tied for third in the NFL in takeaways (37) in 2007 and 10th in sacks per pass play in 2008. His NFL coaching career began in San Francisco in 2000, when he served as a defensive quality control coach.

Barry began his prep career at Ames (Iowa) H.S. before finishing at Fairview H.S. in Boulder, Colo. Barry played linebacker at Michigan from 1989-90 before transferring to USC in 1991, earning varsity letters in the 1992 and '93 seasons. He began his coaching career for the Trojans in 1995. In 1996, he joined the Northern Arizona staff, coaching linebackers and defensive ends for three seasons. Barry was then hired to coach linebackers at Nevada-Las Vegas in 1999.

Barry and his wife, Chris, have two daughters, Camryn and Lauren, and twin sons, Nick and Sam.

BEN KOTWICA

1993-96	Linebacker	U.S. Military Academy
2005-06	Defensive Coordinator	USMA Prep School
2007-08	Quality Control - Def/ST	New York Jets
2009-12	Asst. Special Teams Coach	New York Jets
2013	Special Teams Coordinator	New York Jets
2014-Pres.	Special Teams Coordinator	Washington Redskins

Ben Kotwica enters his third season as the Redskins' special teams coordinator in 2016 after originally being named to the position on January 15, 2014.

Kotwica, now entering his 10th NFL season, spent the first seven years of his NFL career in various coaching capacities with the New York Jets. Before assuming the role of coordinator for the Jets in 2013, Kotwica assisted with the Jets' special teams in multiple roles across the 2007-12 seasons.

In 2015, Kotwica deftly commanded a unit that used 60 different players in a special teams capacity during the Redskins' 9-7 division-winning campaign. The Redskins allowed only 20.1 yards per kickoff return, the fourth-best average in the NFL. It marked the Redskins' first Top 5 finish in the category since 2011 when the team was in the midst of a stretch of six straight Top 5 seasons from 2006-11. Kotwica's game planning also helped the Redskins recover their first inside kick since 2007, as the Redskins successfully executed a surprise inside kick in the team's record-setting 24-point comeback win against Tampa Bay.

Kotwica's 2015 unit was directly responsible for three touchdowns, including tying a team record with two kickoff return touchdowns and adding a blocked punt recovery for a touchdown. Kotwica and the Redskins also signed kicker Dustin Hopkins in Week 2, and the first-year kicker converted 25-of-28 field goal attempts and posted the third-best field goal percentage in team history (89.3), trailing only Mark Moseley (95.2 in 1982) and Kai Forbath (94.4 in 2012).

In his first season in Washington in 2014, Kotwica's tutelage and eye for talent helped first-year punter Tress Way (47.5 yards per punt) become the first member of the Redskins to lead the NFL in punting for a season since Sam Baker in 1958. Way's average ranked fourth in team history, a feat he accomplished in a season in which he was given 10 days to earn the punting job after being claimed off waivers late in the preseason. Kotwica also helped kicker Kai Forbath successfully convert 24-of-27 field goals (88.9 percent) in

Prior to Kotwica's arrival in Washington, the Jets accounted for 10 combined kick and punt return touchdowns during his time as an assistant in New York, tied for most in the AFC and tied for second-most in the NFL. The Jets averaged a league-best 24.6 yards per kick return in those six seasons and had a kick returner finish in the Top 5 in the NFL in kick return average four times (Joe McKnight, 2011 and 2012; Brad Smith, 2010; and Leon Washington, 2007). Kotwica helped Leon Washington earn his first career Pro Bowl berth as a kick returner following the 2008 season.

In addition to his football career, Kotwica's background includes his time as a decorated officer who spent eight years in the United States Army after graduating from the United States Military Academy at West Point. His military career included operations in Bosnia-Herzegovina, Korea and Iraq.

Kotwica was commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Aviation Branch of the Army and was selected to fly the AH-64 Apache Longbow, the world's best attack helicopter. He was an Attack Helicopter Platoon Leader in support of the 82nd Airborne Division from 1998-2001, where he was responsible for the health and welfare of 20 soldiers.

In 2000, Kotwica deployed to Bosnia-Herzegovina for eight months before returning to the states to attend the Aviation Captain Career course. He completed the course in the top 10 percent of his class. Two years later, he returned overseas to Camp Page, Korea where he served as a Military Intelligence Officer for six months. In early 2003, he was selected to serve as the Battalion Executive Officer for a unit comprised of more than 300 soldiers, 24 attack helicopters and more than $400 million worth of equipment.

In January 2004, he briefly returned to Fort Hood, Texas, to serve as the Training Officer for the 1st Cavalry Division. Two months later, he deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom II, serving as a Combat Attack Helicopter Commander and flying more than 1,000 combat hours in support of five maneuver brigades within the 1st Cavalry Division. His missions included convoy security operations; VIP escorts for former President George W. Bush, former Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld and former Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice; and search and destroy missions to suppress insurgent activities.

During his service, Kotwica was awarded with the Army Achievement Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal and the Bronze Star.

Kotwica played at Army from 1993-96 and was a three-year starter at linebacker. He was the captain of the only 10-win team in Army history, leading the Black Knights to a 10-2 record and the program's most recent Commander-in-Chief's Trophy in 1996.

Kotwica and his wife, Christina, have four children: daughters, Analyssa and Arianna, and sons, Christian and Brayden.

2004-07	Wide Receiver	Miami University
2008	Coaching Assistant	Tampa Bay Buccaneers
2009	Tight Ends Coach	Florida Tuskers (UFL)
2010	Offensive Assistant	Washington Redskins
2011-13	Tight Ends Coach	Washington Redskins
2014-Pres.	Offensive Coordinator	Washington Redskins

Sean McVay enters his third season as the Redskins' offensive coordinator in 2016 after initially being promoted to the position on January 15, 2014. Prior to his promotion during the 2014 offseason, McVay spent three seasons as the team's tight ends coach (2011-13) and one as an offensive assistant (2010).

McVay's group posted a breakout campaign in his second year as Offensive Coordinator in 2015, including record-setting performances by quarterback Kirk Cousins and tight end Jordan Reed. McVay's scheme and tutelage helped Cousins break Redskins records for attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven) in a single season. Reed has been a direct beneficiary of McVay's work, spending 2013 as a member of his unit during McVay's time as tight ends coach and being a focal point of the offense in 2015, as Reed recorded 87 receptions for 952 yards (both team records for a tight end) with 11 receiving touchdowns (one shy of the team record) in 2015.

Collectively, McVay's 2015 offense recorded Top 10 rankings in third down percentage (43.5, fifth in the NFL), red zone scoring percentage (61.2, eighth), yards per play (5.6, 10th) and points per game (24.3, 10th). The Redskins also led the NFL with a team-record 69.5 completion percentage in 2015, leading the league in the category for the 11th time in team history and the first time since 1970.

In his first season as Offensive Coordinator in 2014, McVay helped the offense to a Top 10 league ranking in yards per play (5.7) despite starting three different quarterbacks. His work with the three passers was instrumental in setting a team record for completion percentage (66.5 percent, later broken in 2015) and helping facilitate the explosive debut season of wide receiver DeSean Jackson. Jackson averaged a league-best 20.9 yards per reception and became only the fourth player in team history to lead the NFL in that category.

In 2013, McVay played a crucial role in Reed's development, as the then-rookie compiled 45 receptions for 499 yards – both Redskins' single-season rookie tight end records – despite Reed playing in only nine games. Under McVay's tutelage, Reed joined Chris Cooley (2004) as the only Redskins tight ends named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team. In addition, McVay helped tight end Logan Paulsen from an undrafted free agent into a 30-game starter from 2010-13, with Paulsen increasing his reception totals each season.

During Washington's NFC East championship season in 2012, McVay's unit produced despite losing starting tight end Fred Davis to a torn Achilles tendon in Week 7. Davis had led the team in both receptions (24) and receiving yards (325) through seven games before being placed on the Reserve/Injured list. McVay guided a unit that provided reliable receiving options on top of contributing significantly as blockers to the Redskins' league-leading 2,709 rushing yards.

In 2011, McVay played an integral role in Davis' emergence, as the then fourth-year tight end surpassed his previous career highs despite playing in only 12 games. Davis caught 59 passes for 796 yards, the second-highest total on the team in both categories. Before missing the final four games of the season, Davis was on pace to set a franchise record in receiving yards by a tight end and was on pace to post the first 1,000-yard receiving season by a tight end in Redskins history.

McVay served as an offensive assistant to the Redskins in 2010 in addition to working with the tight ends during the final four weeks of the season following coach Jon Embree's departure. The Redskins offense ranked eighth in the NFL in passing yards per game (244.6) and tight end Chris Cooley ranked second among NFL tight ends in receptions (77) and third in receiving yards (849). The offensive unit also set a franchise record for completions in a season (349), and registered a touchdown pass in 15 consecutive games for the first time in team history. The Redskins' offense led the NFL with nine completions of at least 50 yards, including one in four consecutive games for the first time since 1987.

McVay joined the Redskins prior to the 2010 season after an undefeated regular season with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League (UFL). The Tuskers finished a perfect 6-0 before losing in the UFL's inaugural championship game. McVay served as the Tuskers' tight ends coach in addition to working closely with the team's running backs. McVay originally entered the National Football League as an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2008.

During his time in Tampa Bay, McVay worked closely with wide receiver Antonio Bryant, who recorded career highs in receptions (83), receiving yards (1,248), and touchdowns (seven), en route to winning The Sporting News Comeback Player of the Year Award.

McVay graduated from Miami University (Ohio) where he played wide receiver from 2004-07, earning Miami's Scholar-Athlete Award in 2007. His grandfather, John, served in various roles – including vice president/director of football operations from 1983-94 – for the San Francisco 49ers from 1979-95, overseeing five Super Bowl championship squads and earning induction into the 49ers Hall of Fame in 2013.

2003-06	Defensive Coordinator	Washington State
2007-12	Head Coach	Idaho
2014	Asst. DL Coach	Minnesota Vikings
2015-Pres.	Defensive Line Coach	Washington Redskins

Robb Akey enters his second season as the Redskins' defensive line coach in 2016 after initially being named to the position on February 2, 2015.

Akey oversaw a veteran unit in 2015 that returned 10th-year veteran Jason Hatcher and added strong, vocal presences in previous Super Bowl participants Terrance Knighton and Ricky Jean Francois. Akey's tutelage helped Chris Baker record career highs in games played (16), sacks (6.0), forced fumbles (three) and fumble recoveries (two). The unit was particularly stout when needed most, as the defense finished second in the NFL in opponents' percentage of conversions on third- and/or fourth-and-1 (50.0) in 2015.

Akey joined the Redskins in the 2015 offseason with 26 years of coaching experience, including serving as the assistant defensive line coach for the Minnesota Vikings in 2014. Akey assisted with a Vikings defensive line in 2014 that featured three new starters (defensive end Everson Griffen and defensive tackles Sharrif Floyd and Linval Joseph), helping Griffen post 12.0 sacks and rank second in the NFC and fourth in the NFL among defensive ends in that category. Under Akey's tutelage, Griffen was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for October after posting an NFC-best six sacks in a four-game span.

Prior to entering the NFL with the Vikings, Akey was the Head Coach at the University of Idaho from 2007-12, leading the Vandals to their second bowl game in school history in 2009. That season, Akey led the second biggest turnaround in college football, improving the Vandals to 8-5 from 2-10 a year earlier. Akey's six-year stay at Idaho is tied for the third-longest tenure in Idaho history. In July 2009, Akey traveled overseas to show support for military installations in the Middle East with four other NCAA head football coaches.

Before his time at Idaho, Akey spent the previous eight seasons at Washington State, where he mentored the defensive line from 1999-2002 and served as Defensive Coordinator from 2003-06. While coaching the Cougars, Akey led defensive tackle Rien Long to 1st-Team All-America honors as well as the Outland Trophy, given annually to the nation's top interior lineman, in 2002. That season, Akey helped the Washington State defense set a school record for sacks with 55.

As the Cougars' defensive coordinator, Akey led one of the best defenses in school history. In 2003, Washington State led the nation in takeaways with 48 in addition to finishing fifth in pass efficiency defense and sixth in rush defense. While at Washington State, Akey helped the Cougars finish with three consecutive 10-win seasons and top-10 finishes from 2001-03, including winning the 2002 PAC-10 Championship and earning a trip to the 2003 Rose Bowl.

Akey spent four seasons (1995-98) at Northern Arizona, starting as Special Teams Coordinator and Linebacker Coach before being promoted to Defensive Coordinator in 1996.

Akey received his first coaching job in 1988 at his alma mater, Weber State. He started as an assistant defensive line coach for one season before being promoted to defensive line coach. Akey coached at Weber State from 1988-94, spending time as the defensive line coach, special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator. From 1984-87, Akey appeared at tight end, outside linebacker and defensive end during his four-year playing career at Weber State. Akey finished his career as the Wildcat leader in sacks and was named first-team All-Big Sky as a senior in 1987 in addition to receiving honorable mention All-American honors.

A native of Colorado Springs, Colo., Akey is a 1984 graduate of Wasson H.S. Akey and wife, Molly, have two sons, Jack and Daniel.

Bradford Banta was named the Redskins' assistant special teams coach on February 4, 2014. He is entering his third season with the team in 2016.

Along with Special Teams Coordinator Ben Kotwica and Special Projects/Assistant Special Teams Coach Bret Munsey, Banta contributed to the Redskins' special teams success in 2015 despite the unit having to use 60 different players (tied for seventh-most in the NFL) during its NFC East championship season. The unit posted a Top 5 ranking in kickoff coverage (20.1 yards allowed per return) and contributed three special teams touchdowns, including a team-record-tying two kickoff returns for touchdowns and a blocked punt recovery for a touchdown.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Banta spent six seasons with the Detroit Lions in various coaching capacities. From 2012-13, Banta served as the Lions' assistant linebackers coach. Under his guidance in 2012, the Lions linebacker corps of Stephen Tulloch, Justin Durant and DeAndre Levy led the Lions in total tackles, finishing with 112, 103 and 81, respectively. In 2013, he contributed to a breakout season for Levy, who led all NFL linebackers with six interceptions.

Banta served as the Lions' assistant special teams coach for four seasons from 2008-11. He helped John Wendling tie for first in the NFL in special teams tackles (51) across the 2010-12 seasons. Under Banta in 2011, kicker Jason Hanson finished with 126 points, the fourth-best single-season total in Lions history, and Hanson's five 50-yard field goals made him the first player in NFL history to kick 50 50-yard field goals in his career.

In 2010, the Lions' kick return unit was the third-most improved unit in the NFL in kickoff return average with 3.5 more yards per return than in 2009. Detroit also had the NFL's 10th-most significant improvement in punt return average in 2010 (8.8 avg. in 2009, 12.1 avg. in 2010). Detroit had the fourth-most improved kickoff coverage unit, allowing an average of 2.7 less yards per each kick return in 2010.

Before joining the Lions as a coach in 2008, Banta spent the 2007 season as a tight ends coach for the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga.

After being drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the fourth round of the 1994 NFL Draft, Banta spent six seasons with the Colts and established himself as one of the league's best long snappers. He joined the New York Jets for the 2000 season before playing three seasons with the Detroit Lions from 2001-03. He finished his 11-year playing career with Buffalo in 2004.

Banta was a two-year starter at tight end at the University of Southern California (1989-93) as well as a four-time letter winner. He earned Honorable Mention All-Pac 10 Conference honors as a junior and senior and received his bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in sociology in 1993.

A native of Baton Rouge, La., Banta was a Parade All-American as a senior at University High School and helped them to the state championship (1988) while playing tight end and linebacker. He and his wife, Amy, have three children.

19TH NFL SEASON
10TH WITH REDSKINS

Malcolm Blacken enters his fourth season as the Director of Player Development in 2016 after being named to the position by the Redskins on March 13, 2013.

Blacken's hiring served to start his third stint with Washington after having previously served as a strength and conditioning coach for the Redskins on two occasions (1996-2000 and 2010). In his last season in Washington in 2010, Blacken was responsible for assisting with all aspects of the Redskins' strength and conditioning program.

From 2011-12, Blacken served as Director of Speed, Strength & Conditioning for the University of Colorado. He worked directly with the football program on a day-to-day basis while overseeing the speed, strength and conditioning needs of all 16 of Colorado's varsity programs.

In between his first two stops in Washington, Blacken spent nine years as the Detroit Lions' strength and conditioning coach from 2001-09. Blacken was an assistant strength coach for the University of Virginia's football program in 1995 and worked with all other sports in the Cavaliers' athletic department as well. For three years (1992-94), Blacken served as the head strength and conditioning coach for George Mason University, where he oversaw the program for all of the university's varsity sports.

Blacken began his coaching career at the University of South Carolina in 1990-91 as the football program's assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Blacken graduated from Virginia Tech in 1989 with bachelor's degrees in art and physical education. He was a Hokies running back from 1984-88 and was a four-time letter winner. While at Virginia Tech, Blacken was a two-time winner of the Super Iron Hokie Award (1987-88), which is given yearly to the football program's strongest player at each position.

Off the field, Blacken is an accomplished artist whose paintings have been displayed across the country. Recently he participated in the 2015 NFLPA Smocks and Jocks art auction in San Francisco for Super Bowl 50, with proceeds donated to the retired players fund.. More about Blacken's art can be accessed by visiting ArtByMalcolm.com.

Blacken currently resides in Ashburn, Va., with his wife, Marcy, and two children, Maya and Bo.

Bill Callahan enters his second season as the Redskins' offensive line coach in 2016 after initially being named to the position on January 15, 2015.

Callahan is entering his 18th NFL season in 2015 as part of a career that includes head coaching stints at both the pro and collegiate levels as well as the 2002 AFC Championship with the Oakland Raiders. Entering 2016, Callahan has been a member of an offensive staff that has finished in the Top 5 in the NFL in rushing or passing 10 times, including a No. 1 overall finish in rushing twice (2000, 2009) and passing once (2002). Callahan has had 11 offensive linemen combine for 23 Pro Bowl selections during his career.

In his first year in Washington in 2015, Callahan was frequently credited for the largest year-over-year decline in sacks allowed in team history. A year after allowing 58 sacks in 2014, in Callahan's debut campaign the Redskins held opponents to 27 sacks in 2015. The 31-sack turnaround was the largest in team history since the NFL began recognizing sacks as an official statistic in 1982, surpassing the 30-sack decrease between the 1998-99 seasons. The performance of the line as a unit helped garner individual honors for Pro Bowl tackle Trent Williams and PFWA All-Rookie guard Brandon Scherff.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Callahan served as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach for the Dallas Cowboys from 2012-14 and helped guide the franchise to its first NFC East title since 2009 in his final season. In 2014, the Cowboys finished second in the NFL in rushing (1471) with running back DeMarco Murray leading the league in rushing and setting a Dallas franchise record with 1,845 yards. Callahan had two offensive linemen named to The Associated Press' 2014 All-Pro team (tackle Tyron Smith and guard Zack Martin) and had another (center Travis Frederick) selected with Smith and Martin to the Pro Bowl.

Callahan served as assistant head coach/offensive line coach of the New York Jets from 2008-11. During his four-year tenure with the Jets, the offense ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards per game (137.9) across those four seasons and appeared in two consecutive AFC Championship games (2009-10). In his four seasons, Callahan coached three offensive linemen to nine Pro Bowl appearances (Nick Mangold, 4; D'Brickashaw Ferguson, 3; and Alan Faneca, 2) and helped Mangold earn AP All-Pro honors in the 2009-10 seasons.

Prior to his time in New York, Callahan served as head coach at the University of Nebraska from 2004-07, leading the Cornhuskers to a Big 12 Conference Championship Game appearance in 2006 and two bowl invitations in his four seasons.

Callahan spent six seasons with the Oakland Raiders from 1998-2003, serving as offensive coordinator for four years before becoming the 13th head coach in Raiders history from 2001-02. In 2002, Oakland's offense set a team record for total offense with an NFL-best 6,237 yards and led the NFL in passing yards (4,689) en route to an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII. He became the fourth rookie head coach in NFL history to earn a Super Bowl berth.

Before joining the Raiders, Callahan coached the offensive line for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1995-97. His unit helped the Eagles rank second in the NFC in passing, fifth in rushing and third in total offense in 1997. Prior to joining the Eagles, Callahan accrued 15 seasons of coaching experience in various capacities at Illinois (1980-86), Northern Arizona (1987-88), Southern Illinois (1989) and Wisconsin (1990-94).

Callahan started at quarterback for three seasons (1975-77) at Illinois Benedictine (Lisle, Ill.) where he earned honorable-mention All-America honors in 1976 and 1977 and graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1978. In 2004, he was inducted into the Benedictine University Athletics Hall of Fame.

Callahan was born in Chicago, where he attended Mendel Catholic H.S. He and his wife, Valerie, have four children: daughters Cathryn and Jaclyn, and sons Brian and Daniel. His son, Brian, now serves as the quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions.

Kevin Carberry is entering his third NFL season and his first with the Redskins after being named the team's assistant offensive line coach on February 17, 2016.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Carberry spent the 2014-15 seasons as an offensive assistant for the Dallas Cowboys. During his time in Dallas, he coordinated the daily practice schedule and scripts, assisted with the weekly run game installation and assisted the offensive staff with video analysis of opponent breakdowns and self-scouting. During practices, he coached the offensive scout teams and assisted with the offensive line in 2014 and tight ends in 2015.

Carberry spent the first five seasons of his coaching career at the collegiate level, serving as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Kansas from 2009-11 and coaching defensive ends at Stephen F. Austin from 2012-13. He helped the defense lead the Southland Conference with 31.0 sacks in his first season in 2012. At Kansas, he worked with the defensive line and outside linebackers, helping the defense place 26th nationally in sacks per game in 2009.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Carberry attended training camps of the Cleveland Browns (2005) and Carolina Panthers (2006) and spent the 2005 season on the practice squad of the Detroit Lions. He also played for the Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe in the spring of 2006. From 2007-08, he played in the Arena Football League for the New York Dragons and Philadelphia Soul and was a member of the Soul's 2008 Arena Bowl Championship squad.

Carberry also coached during his playing career, serving as the defensive coordinator/defensive line and inside linebackers coach at St. Ignatius College Prep in Chicago, Ill., during his AFL years in 2007-08. In 2006, he was a varsity assistant for Illinois 7A State Champion St. Rita H.S., his alma mater.

Carberry, a four-year letterman at Ohio University, earned All-MAC honors as senior team captain. He graduated from Ohio in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in marketing and earned his Master's in sports administration in 2010 from Kansas.

Carberry is married to his wife, Emily.

2015-Pres.	Quarterbacks Coach	Washington Redskins

Matt Cavanaugh enters his second season as the Redskins' quarterbacks coach in 2016 after initially being named to the position on January 28, 2015.

Cavanaugh joined the Redskins in 2015 with 22 seasons of previous coaching experience across the professional and collegiate levels. His NFL background also includes 14 combined seasons as a quarterback for the New England Patriots, San Francisco 49ers, Philadelphia Eagles and New York Giants from 1978-91.

Cavanaugh made an immediate impact in his first season in Washington in 2015, helping guide quarterback Kirk Cousins to single-season team records in attempts [543], completions [379], passing yards [4,166] and 300-yard passing games [seven] despite not being named the starter until midway through the preseason. Cavanaugh's coaching helped Cousins post an interception percentage of 2.0, the second-lowest by a Redskins quarterback with at least 400 attempts in a season all-time. After the season, quarterback Colt McCoy called Cavanaugh the team's "MVP" for his work with Cousins in 2015.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Cavanaugh served as quarterbacks coach of the Chicago Bears from 2013-14. In 2013, under Cavanaugh's tutelage, the Bears' quarterbacks re-wrote the franchise single-season record books setting team records in passer rating [96.9], passing yards [4,450], passing touchdowns [32] and completion percentage [64.4]. It was his second stint in Chicago after having served as the team's offensive coordinator from 1997-98.

Cavanaugh spent four seasons working with quarterbacks for the New York Jets from 2009-12. During those four seasons, the Jets made two AFC Championship game appearances.

Cavanaugh joined the Jets after four seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at his alma mater, the University of Pittsburgh, from 2005-08. It was his second stint at Pitt after making his coaching debut in 1993 working with the Panthers' tight ends. As offensive coordinator, Cavanaugh helped tutor future NFL running backs LeSean McCoy and LaRod Stephens-Howling.

Cavanaugh served as the Baltimore Ravens' offensive coordinator from 1999-2004, a tenure that included the franchise's 34-7 Super Bowl XXXV victory in 2000. During that season, the Ravens ground game churned out a franchise-record 2,199 yards, fifth most in the NFL.

Prior to his first tenure in Chicago from 1997-98, Cavanaugh served as quarterbacks coach for the San Francisco 49ers in 1996, helping Steve Young lead the NFL in passer rating [97.2] and completion percentage [67.7]. He got his first taste of NFL coaching in 1994, working as the quarterbacks coach of the Arizona Cardinals, a position he held for two years.

Cavanaugh won two Super Bowl titles as a backup quarterback with the New York Giants (Super Bowl XXV) and the 49ers (Super Bowl XIX). He was a second-round selection (50th overall) of the Patriots in 1978 NFL Draft, spending five seasons with New England (1978-82) before stints with the 49ers (1983-85), Eagles (1986-89) and Giants (1990-91). He appeared in 112 career contests with 19 starts, completing 305-of-579 passes for 4,332 yards and 28 touchdowns.

As a collegiate quarterback, Cavanaugh guided Pitt to the 1976 National Championship and was named the Sugar Bowl MVP after a 27-3 victory over Georgia. He earned All-America honors as a senior in 1977. Cavanaugh earned his bachelor's degree from Pitt in administration of justice.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Cavanaugh attended Chaney H.S. He is married to his wife, Maria, and has three children: Amy, Andrew and Mollie.

Served as Interim Head Coach for final seven games of 2009*

Perry Fewell enters his second season as the Redskins' defensive backs coach after initially being named to the position on January 27, 2015.

In his first season in Washington in 2015, Fewell skillfully guided a constantly changing unit that was besieged by injuries for most of the season. Fewell lost presumptive starting cornerbacks Chris Culliver and DeAngelo Hall for long stretches of the season but coached second-year corner Bashaud Breeland and midseason signing Will Blackmon to career years. He fostered the development of rookie Quinton Dunbar, a college free agent wide receiver who moved to cornerback out of a team necessity in training camp. He also developed rookie sixth-round pick Kysheon Jarrett into a dual contributor at safety and nickelback and facilitated Hall's transition from corner to safety once he returned from injury late in the season.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Fewell spent the previous five seasons as defensive coordinator of the New York Giants, a stint that included a 21-17 victory over the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLVI. In Fewell's five seasons in New York from 2010-14, his unit amassed 160 takeaways, second-most in the NFC and third-most in the NFL.

During the team's Super Bowl campaign in 2011, the Giants were fourth in the NFL in both takeaways (35) and turnover differential (plus-14). In four postseason victories that year, the Giants allowed an average of 14.0 points per game, joining the 2000 Baltimore Ravens as the only team since the turn of the century to allow 14 or fewer points per game in a postseason run requiring all four rounds.

Prior to joining the Giants, Fewell spent four seasons as the Buffalo Bills' defensive coordinator from 2006-09. He was the team's interim head coach for the final seven games of the 2009 season, earning three wins. In 2009, his guidance helped rookie safety Jairus Byrd tie for the NFL lead with nine interceptions in only 14 games and helped Byrd become the first Bills rookie to be selected to the Pro Bowl since Greg Bell in 1984.

Fewell coached defensive backs for the Chicago Bears in 2005 when the Bears led the NFC with 24 interceptions and cornerback Nathan Vasher and safety Mike Brown were both selected to the Pro Bowl. Fewell had previously served as secondary coach of the St. Louis Rams from 2003-04.

Fewell entered the NFL as the defensive backs coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1998, a position he held through the 2002 season. Jacksonville's pass defense ranked third in the NFL during a 14-2 season in 1999.

Prior to entering the NFL, Fewell spent 13 years coaching at the collegiate level. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of North Carolina from 1985-86. He was the defensive backs coach at Army in 1987, and the following year, he began a four-year stint as the wide receivers coach at Kent State. In 1992, he returned to West Point, where he spent three seasons as the defensive line coach. Fewell's final college job was at Vanderbilt where he coached the secondary from 1995-97 and was also assistant head coach in his final season there.

Fewell lettered as a defensive back at Lenoir-Rhyne [N.C.] from 1980-83 and was part of the university's Hall of Fame class in 2011. A native of Gastonia, N.C., he was on the football and track teams at South Point H.S. in Belmont, N.C., and was inducted into the Belmont Sports Hall of Fame in 2001. He also earned induction into the Gaston County, N.C. Hall of Fame in June 2012.

Fewell and his wife, Kathleen, have two sons.

2015-Pres.	Defensive Quality Control	Washington Redskins

Chad Grimm enters his second season as a defensive quality control coach for the Redskins in 2016 after initially being named to the position on January 29, 2015.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Grimm spent two years in the same capacity with the San Diego Chargers. Grimm spent his first four NFL seasons with the Arizona Cardinals after entering the league in 2009 as an offensive quality control coach.

Grimm comes from a football pedigree. He is the son of Russ Grimm, a Pro Football Hall of Famer and three-time Super Bowl champion who stands as one of the most decorated players in Redskins history. Russ – a founding member of the franchise's famed "Hogs" – played 11 seasons in Washington from 1981-91 and served in various assistant roles for the team from 1992-2000. His brother, Cody, played at Virginia Tech, was a seventh-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in 2010 and played safety for the Buccaneers from 2010-12.

Grimm played collegiately as a linebacker and special teamer at Virginia Tech from 2003-06. The Fairfax resident played both football and lacrosse at Oakton H.S. in Vienna, Va., helping the school reach the state finals in both sports for the first time in school history.

2012	Wide Receivers Coach	Washington Redskins
2013	Wide Receivers Coach	Buffalo Bills
2014-Pres.	Wide Receivers Coach	Washington Redskins

Ike Hilliard returned for his second stint as the Redskins' wide receivers coach on January 20, 2014.

During the Redskins' NFC East championship season in 2015, Hilliard coached a group that prominently featured two prolific veterans (Pierre Garçon and DeSean Jackson) and two young players in their first or second NFL seasons (Jamison Crowder and Ryan Grant, respectively). Garçon posted 72 receptions, the second-highest total of his career, while Jackson recorded 528 receiving yards and four touchdowns despite being limited by injury to nine games. Hilliard's guidance also helped Crowder to a Redskins-rookie-record 59 receptions in 2015.

In his return to Washington in 2014, Hilliard oversaw the incorporation of Jackson into the team's offense after joining the team as a free agent. Jackson led the Redskins with 1,169 receiving yards on 56 receptions, becoming the fifth member of the Redskins to post 1,000 receiving yards in his first season in Washington (Bobby Mitchell in 1962, Henry Ellard in 1994, Laveranues Coles in 2003 and Santana Moss in 2005). Jackson averaged an NFL-best 20.9 yards per reception and was the first member of the Redskins to finish a season as the NFL leader in yards per reception since Henry Ellard (19.5 in 1996).

Hilliard served as wide receivers coach for the Buffalo Bills in 2013, helping mold a young group that included rookie second-round pick Robert Woods (40 receptions for 587 yards with three touchdowns) and rookie third-round pick Marquise Goodwin (17 receptions for 283 yards with three touchdowns).

In his first stint with the Redskins in 2012, Hilliard guided the team's receivers to the franchise's first division title since 1999. He incorporated free agents Pierre Garçon and Joshua Morgan into the offense, helping Garçon lead the team in receiving yards (633 in only 10 games) and helping Morgan lead the Redskins in receptions (48). Hilliard also oversaw the resurgence of veteran slot receiver Santana Moss, who caught 41 passes for 573 yards and eight touchdowns, his most since recording nine receiving touchdowns in his first season in Washington in 2005. The group's toughness on the perimeter also helped the offense rush for a league-best 2,709 yards, a franchise record.

In 2011, Hilliard served as the assistant wide receivers coach for the Miami Dolphins. He helped in the development of wide receiver Brandon Marshall, who was selected for his third Pro Bowl and first as a member of the Dolphins. Additionally, Marshall finished third in the AFC in receiving yards with 1,214 and recorded his fifth-consecutive 1,000-plus yard season.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Hilliard spent two seasons coaching for the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League. Hilliard worked as a volunteer coach with the Tusers in 2009 and was elevated to the position of Receivers Coach for 2010 under current Redskins Head Coach Jay Gruden.

STAFF BIOS

As a player, Hilliard was a first-round selection in the 1997 NFL Draft (No. 7 overall). He played 12 seasons, eight with the New York Giants (1997-2004) and four with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2005-08). In 161 career games (106 starts), Hilliard caught 546 passes for 6,397 yards and 35 touchdowns.

Hilliard played collegiately at the University of Florida from 1994-96, catching 126 passes for 2,214 yards and 26 touchdowns. He earned first-team All-SEC and All-American honors as a junior and, in the final game of the season, finished with seven catches for 150 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Gators to a 52-20 Sugar Bowl win to secure the school's first national championship.

Hilliard is a native of Patterson, La.

RANDY JORDAN

2008-11	Running Backs Coach	Texas A&M
2012-13	Running Backs Coach	North Carolina
2014-Pres.	Running Backs Coach	Washington Redskins

Randy Jordan enters his third season as the Redskins' running back coach in 2016 after initially being named to the position on January 26, 2014.

Jordan is a veteran of nine NFL seasons as a player from 1993-2002, appearing in 122 career games with the Raiders and Jaguars. He was the recipient of the NFL Unsung Hero Award and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2001 and served as special teams captain for the Raiders' AFC Championship team in 2002.

In 2015, Jordan oversaw a rotating stable of backs that included workhorse Alfred Morris (202 carries for 751 yards with one touchdown), third-round pick Matt Jones (144 carries for 490 yards with three touchdowns) and third-round back Chris Thompson (gained 6.2 yards per carry on 35 attempts). The group also contributed heavily in pass protection, helping the Redskins decrease their sack total from 58 in 2014 to 27 in 2015.

In his first season in Washington in 2014, Jordan helped Morris earn his second consecutive Pro Bowl berth, making Morris the first Redskins running back selected to consecutive Pro Bowls since Stephen Davis in 1999-2000. Morris joined Davis as the only backs in team history to record three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons. Jordan's work was also evident in the play of fullback Darrel Young, who matched his career highs in rushing touchdowns (three) and receiving touchdowns (two) en route to a career-high five total touchdowns in 2014.

Before joining the Redskins, Jordan spent two years as the running backs coach at the University of North Carolina. In his first season with UNC in 2012, Jordan's Tar Heels averaged 193.8 rushing yards per game, third-most in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the program's highest average since 1994. That season, he tutored tailback Giovani Bernard – who played for current Redskins Head Coach Jay Gruden in Cincinnati in 2013 – to one of the best seasons in UNC history, helping Bernard average 122.8 rushing yards per game, most in the ACC and 11th in the nation.

Jordan was part of an offensive staff that helped Carolina set more than 35 school records, including total points, points per game and total offense.

Jordan coached running backs at Texas A&M for four seasons from 2008-11. In 2011, the Aggies averaged 199.1 rushing yards per game, fourth-most in the Big 12 Conference, and had two different backs – Cyrus Gray and Christine Michael – finish among the top five in the conference in rushing yards per game. Under Jordan's tutelage, Gray was a three-time All-Big 12 performer and exited ranked third in conference history in all-purpose yards.

Jordan left for AggieLand from the University of Nebraska where he served as the running backs coach for the Cornhuskers from 2004-07. Jordan helped shape the I-back position, coaching two 1,000-yard rushers in Cody Ross in 2004 and Marlon Lucky in 2007. He oversaw a committee of backs in 2006 that produced nearly 2,400 rushing yards and 26 rushing touchdowns, as an improved effort on the ground helped NU move from 107th in 2005 to 23rd nationally in rushing offense in 2006.

Jordan began his coaching career with the Oakland Raiders as a special teams assistant midway through the 2003 season. He played nine years in the NFL as a running back, playing in 122 career games from 1993 through 2002. He began his career with the Los Angeles Raiders before joining the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995 and playing three seasons. Jordan holds the distinction of scoring the very first touchdown for the Jacksonville club, a 71-yard reception against Cincinnati in 1995.

After the 1997 season, Jordan rejoined the Raiders' organization where he played five more seasons. In 1998, Jordan rushed for 159 yards for the Raiders. He had a career-high 213 yards rushing and three touchdowns in helping the Raiders reach the AFC Championship Game in 2000. He also caught 27 passes for 299 yards and a touchdown that same season.

Jordan finished his career with 574 yards rushing and seven touchdowns, while making 58 catches for 596 yards and two touchdowns. Jordan was also a standout special teams player. He finished his career with 801 yards on 38 career kick returns, including a season best of 553 yards on 26 returns for Jacksonville in 1996. He also recorded 64 career tackles on special teams.

Jordan played for the University of North Carolina under coach Mack Brown from 1989-92. He earned three letters for the Tar Heels rushing for 1,134 yards and nine touchdowns in his career, including 618 yards and seven touchdowns in 1991.

Jordan earned his bachelor's degree in speech communication from North Carolina in 1993. He was born in Manson, N.C. Jordan and his wife, Romonda, have a daughter, Raven, and two sons, Jalen and Justin.

coordinating the team's daily operations, including all travel and accommodations for home and away games, managing all football department budgets, coordinating training camp logistics and managing the year-round football schedule.

Additionally, Kelly serves as the coaching staff's liaison on all matters relating to the athletic training, equipment, video and the public relations departments, serving as the point of communication in administering every Redskins practice and team function, including all mini-camps, OTA days and training camp.

Kelly previously spent five seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2004-08) and six seasons with the Oakland Raiders (1998-2003). He spent the 2009 season assisting the broadcast team of ESPN's Monday Night Football.

In his five seasons with the Buccaneers, Kelly worked directly with Head Coach Jon Gruden in organizing football operations for the club and directed many of the day-to-day operations of the team. During Kelly's five seasons as a member of the Buccaneers' staff, the Buccaneers captured NFC South titles in 2005 and 2007.

Kelly spent six seasons (1998-2003) as an assistant on the Oakland Raiders coaching staff, which included three consecutive Division Championships (2000, 2001 & 2002). In 2002, he helped Head Coach Bill Callahan guide Oakland to its first Super Bowl appearance in 19 years as the Raiders represented the AFC in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Kelly graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration with an emphasis in new ventures and small business management from California State University Hayward in 1990. Prior to joining the Raiders, he owned and managed his own San Francisco Bay Area-based businesses.

Kelly and his wife, Catherine, have three children. His oldest, Colin, is a student at William & Mary. His daughter, Lauren, is a student and women's soccer player at the University of Florida. His son, Hunter, is a high school student and is a batboy for the Washington Nationals.

Greg Manusky returns to the Redskins in 2016 for his fifth season with the organization including his second as a coach after being hired as the team's outside linebackers coach on January 22, 2016.

Manusky returned to the Redskins with 27 previous combined seasons of NFL experience, including 15 as a coach and 12 as a player. He entered the coaching ranks full-time with the Redskins in 2001 as the team's linebackers coach. During his 15 previous seasons as an NFL coach entering 2016, 11 different players earned a total of 17 Pro Bowl selections under his tutelage.

Prior to his second coaching stint in Washington, Manusky served nine seasons as a defensive coordinator with the Indianapolis Colts (2012-15), San Diego Chargers (2011) and San Francisco 49ers (2007-10). The Colts won at least eight games in all four of Manusky's seasons in Indianapolis, earning three postseason berths including an AFC Championship appearance in 2014. The Colts recorded 10 interception returns for touchdowns during Manusky's four-year tenure, tied for second-most in the AFC and tied for fifth-most in the NFL in that time frame.

In 2014, Manusky guided a defense that helped record the team's third straight 11-5 regular season record and second consecutive AFC South Division Championship. From Weeks 4 through 7, the Colts only allowed one third down conversion in four straight games, marking the longest such streak by an NFL team since 1970. Safety Mike Adams, cornerback Vontae Davis and inside linebacker D'Qwell Jackson comprised the three defensive players to earn their first career Pro Bowl selection during the year.

Manusky spent the 2011 campaign as the defensive coordinator of the San Diego Chargers. Under his direction, the defense allowed an average of 224.4 net passing yards per game, and safety Eric Weddle tied for the NFL lead with seven interceptions and earned a trip to the 2012 Pro Bowl. Prior to joining the Chargers, Manusky spent four seasons (2007-10) as defensive coordinator of the San Francisco 49ers. His 2009 unit did not allow a touchdown in five separate games while forcing an NFL-best 21 fumbles, allowing just 3.6 yards per rush and recording 44.0 sacks.

Manusky's first tenure with the Chargers lasted four seasons (2002-06), during which time he served as the linebackers coach. In the 2006 campaign, San Diego linebackers accounted for 42.5 of the team's 61.0 regular season sacks. That season, linebacker Shawne Merriman tied the Chargers' franchise record with 17.0 sacks, becoming the first Charger to lead the league in sacks.

Manusky started his coaching career in 2000, working as a volunteer linebackers and special teams coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers during training camp. He then joined the Redskins staff in 2001 as the team's linebackers coach, helping guide LaVar Arrington to his first career Pro Bowl selection.

Throughout his career, Manusky has coached an impressive list of Pro Bowl players, including D'Qwell Jackson, Vontae Davis, Mike Adams and Robert Mathis with the Colts; Eric Weddle, Shawne Merriman, Junior Seau and Donnie Edwards with the Chargers; Justin Smith and Patrick Willis with the 49ers and LaVar Arrington with the Redskins.

Manusky was a linebacker and special teams standout during his 12-year NFL playing career in Washington, Minnesota and Kansas City, recording a stretch in which he participated in 113 consecutive games. Manusky earned All-Madden Team honors in 1991 and retired from the NFL in 2000.

A native of Wyoming, Pa., Manusky attended Dallas (Pa.) H.S. before moving on to Colgate University, where he was a four-year letterman and an All-Colonial League selection. As a senior in 1987, Manusky was named the Colonial League's Defensive Player of the Year. He graduated with degrees in education and geology.

Manusky and his wife, Laurie, have two sons, Colton and Jake, and two daughters, Logan and Chandler.

Bret Munsey enters his third season overseeing special projects and serving as a special teams assistant in 2016 after initially joining the team during the 2014 offseason.

Along with Special Teams Coordinator Ben Kotwica and Assistant Special Teams Coach Bradford Banta, Munsey contributed to the Redskins' special teams success in 2015 despite the unit having to use 60 different players (tied for seventh-most in the NFL) during its NFC East championship season. The unit posted a Top 5 ranking in kickoff coverage (20.1 yards allowed per return) and contributed three special teams touchdowns, including a team-record-tying two kick-off returns for touchdowns and a blocked punt recovery for a touchdown.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Munsey served as a national scout for the Philadelphia Eagles during the 2013 season. He spent the 2012 season as the head coach of the Orlando Predators of the Arena Football League. Prior to his stint in Orlando, he served two seasons as the director of player personnel for the Florida Tuskers of the UFL (2009-10), working with current Redskins head coach Jay Gruden. In 2011, the team moved to Virginia Beach, and as Director of Personnel, Munsey helped guide the Virginia Destroyers to the 2011 UFL Championship.

From 2006-08, Munsey served as head coach of the AFL's Philadelphia Soul. Munsey finished with a 35-20 overall record, including a 16-3 record and Arena Bowl title in 2008. In his first season with the Soul, Munsey led the team to their first postseason appearance in franchise history, finishing with a 9-7 record.

From 2003-05, Munsey served as the the secondary coach and director of player personnel for the Predators in his first stint in Orlando, working alongside Gruden, who was the team's head coach at the time. In 2002, Munsey was the head coach of the Tennessee Valley Vipers in the af2 league, where he was named the league's coach of the year. He spent one season with the Carolina Cobras of the AFL in 2001, after beginning his coaching career in 2000 as the defensive coordinator of the Augusta Stallions of af2.

A native of Winter Park, Fla., Munsey was a three-sport star at Winter Park H.S. He played collegiately at Concord University (W.Va.) and played professionally for the Predators from 1991-95.

2014-Pres.	Inside Linebackers Coach	Washington Redskins

Kirk Olivadotti enters his 14th NFL season – all with the Redskins – in 2016 after returning for his second stint with the team on January 16, 2014.

Olivadotti returned to the Redskins – with whom he spent 11 NFL seasons in various capacities from 2000-10 – in 2014 after three years coaching inside linebackers at the University of Georgia from 2011-13. Olivadotti is one of 11 members of the Redskins' assistant coach honor roll, which recognizes coaches with at least 10 seasons of service as an assistant in Washington.

In 2015, Olivadotti successfully coached a unit that helped guide the Redskins to a 9-7 record and an NFC East championship despite featuring a rotating cast of players as the result of injuries. The Redskins began the year with Keenan Robinson and Perry Riley, Jr. patrolling the inside linebacker positions, with the duo recording an interception off of former Super Bowl MVPs Tom Brady and Eli Manning, respectively. Olivadotti groomed and developed former 2013 college free agent Will Compton into a reliable starter during the team's season-ending four-game winning streak and effectively integrated midseason acquisition Mason Foster into the spot opposite Compton.

In his first season back in Washington in 2014, Olivadotti's tutelage helped Robinson blossom in his first season as a starter. Despite missing three games, Robinson led the Redskins with 108 total tackles (according to STATS, LLC), including a 14-tackle performance in a win vs. Tennessee in which Robinson earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors.

At Georgia, Olivadotti coached a linebacker corps that produced NFL draft picks Jarvis Jones and Alec Ogletree. The Bulldogs averaged 10 wins a season in Olivadotti's three years, including ending the 2012 season with a 12-2 record and a No. 5 national ranking.

During Olivadotti's initial 11-season stint with the Redskins, Washington finished in the top 10 in the NFL in overall defense on eight occasions. The Redskins allowed an average of 313.1 yards per game in Olivadotti's 11 years on staff, fourth-fewest in the NFC and seventh-fewest in the NFL in that time frame.

In 2009, he tutored a pair of linebackers to their first Pro Bowl in London Fletcher, who earned his initial trip in his 12th season, and Brian Drakpo, who was one of four NFL rookies selected. Fletcher led the Redskins in tackles with 172 and added two sacks, one interception and 10 passes defended. He eclipsed the 100-tackle mark for the 11th consecutive season.

Drakpo became the first Redskins defensive rookie to make the Pro Bowl since the 1970 merger. He is only the second Redskins rookie to be chosen, joining kick returner Tony Green (1978). Drakpo finished with 60 tackles, including three for loss, 11 sacks for 76 yards lost, one forced fumble and two passes defended. He led all rookies in sacks and tied for most among NFC linebackers with Dallas' DeMarcus Ware. Drakpo's 11 sacks finished tied for seventh in the NFL and fourth in the NFC, and set the franchise rookie record, surpassing the previous mark of six by Dean Hamel (1985) and Andre Collins (1990).

In 2008, Olivadotti's linebackers played a pivotal role in Washington ranking fourth overall in yards allowed per game (288.8), sixth in points allowed per game (18.5) and eighth in rushing yards allowed per game (95.4 yards).

The previous year, in Olivadotti's first season as linebackers coach, Washington finished eighth in the NFL in overall defense (305.3 yards per game) and fourth in the league in rush defense (91.3 yards per game). The tandem of Fletcher (156 tackles) and Rocky McIntosh (105 tackles) finished as the team's top tacklers.

Throughout his NFL coaching career, Olivadotti has worked with some of the best defensive minds in the NFL, including Ray Rhodes, Marvin Lewis, Gregg Williams, Greg Blache and Jim Haslett. Olivadotti began his NFL coaching career with the Redskins in 2000 as a defensive quality control coach. He served in that role for four seasons and also helped coach the defensive backs.

He continued as quality control coach in 2004, but also took on a role assisting the Redskins' special teams units. In 2006, Olivadotti's role expanded to working with the Redskins' defensive line.

Olivadotti began his coaching career on the college level, working with wide receivers and tight ends at Maine Maritime for one season (1997). He moved to Indiana State as an assistant coach for two years (1998-99) before making the transition to Washington and the NFL.

Olivadotti was a four-year letter winner as a wide receiver at Purdue from 1993-96. He earned his bachelor's degree in education and his master's degree in education administration, both from Purdue. He is the son of Tom Olivadotti, a long-time defensive coach in the NFL with the Browns, Dolphins, Vikings, Giants and Texans. Kirk and his wife, Keely, have a daughter, Kasyn, and a son, Kruz.

10TH NFL SEASON
3RD WITH REDSKINS

1997-2001	Quarterback	UTEP
2002-03	Quarterback	San Diego Riptide (af2)
2003	Student Assistant	UTEP
2004-05	Quarterbacks Coach	West Texas A&M
2006	Quarterbacks Coach	Baylor
2007-10	Quality Control/Off. Asst.	Dallas Cowboys
2011-12	Asst. Offensive Line Coach	Dallas Cowboys
2013	Tight Ends Coach	Dallas Cowboys
2014-Pres.	Tight Ends Coach	Washington Redskins

Wes Phillips enters his third season as the Redskins' tight ends coach after initially being named to the position on January 17, 2014.

In 2015, Phillips presided over arguably the most prolific season by a tight end in Redskins history, as third-year pro Jordan Reed shattered team records for receptions (87) and receiving yards (952) by a tight end. Including a 24-yard touchdown reception in the NFC Wild Card Round vs. Green Bay, Reed tied a team record for combined regular season and postseason receiving touchdowns (12) in a single year.

Reed's breakout campaign was supplemented by a rotating cast of tight ends, as Phillips effectively integrated preseason trade acquisition Derek Carrier, midseason signings Anthony McCoy and Alex Smith, waiver addition Marcel Jensen, first-year player Je'Ron Hamm and eligible-tackle Tom Compton after the unit lost two presumptive contributors (Niles Paul and Logan Paulsen) to injury in the preseason.

In his first season in Washington in 2014, Phillips guided Paul to a breakout campaign, as the special teams standout shattered career highs in receptions (39) and receiving yards (507) after entering the season with 14 career catches and 228 career receiving yards to his credit in his first three years in the league. Phillips also oversaw the development of Reed, who finished third on the team with a then-career-high 50 receptions in his sophomore campaign.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Phillips spent seven seasons in various capacities with the Dallas Cowboys. He joined Dallas in 2007 as the club's quality control/offensive assistant coach before relinquishing his role as a quality control coach in 2011 to become the club's assistant offensive line coach in addition to continuing to assist special teams. In 2013, Phillips was named the tight ends coach, helping Jason Witten post the second-most touchdowns in a season in his career (eight).

In 2012, Phillips assisted with an offensive line that helped the Cowboys finish with 5,994 net yards, the third-most in a season in franchise history, and set a single-season club record with 4,729 passing yards despite having Phil Costa, the team's starting center, for only three games. In 2011, the unit integrated new starters at four of the five positions, helping Tony Romo post his third career 4,000-yard season while rookie running back DeMarco Murray established a single-game team rushing record with a 253-yard performance against St. Louis.

In Phillips' four seasons as Dallas' quality control/offensive assistant coach from 2007-10, the Cowboys' offense posted total yardage numbers ranking in the Top 10 in team history three times, including setting single-season club records in 2010 that included 6,390 yards of total offense – marking the first time a Cowboys team topped 6,000 yards in a season in team history – and 4,287 passing yards. The offense as a whole finished second in the league in total offense, averaging 399.4 yards per game.

Before landing in Dallas, Phillips coached quarterbacks at Baylor in 2006. His work with quarterback Shawn Bell paid dividends as Bell established school single-season records despite missing the final three games with a knee injury.

Prior to his one-year stint at Baylor, Phillips spent two seasons as the quarterbacks coach at West Texas A&M University. The Buffaloes celebrated their most successful season in almost 55 years in 2005, finishing 10-2 to post their first winning season since 1998 and the program's first 10-win season since 1950.

WTAMU won the Lone Star Conference with an 8-1 record, its first league title since 1986 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA D-II Playoffs for the first time in school history. The school led the 2005 Division II ranks in passing offense, racking up 363.8 yards per game. He tutored quarterback Dalton Bell, a finalist for the Harlon Hill Trophy, which goes to the top Division II player.

Prior to joining the WTAMU staff, Phillips spent one season as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, UTEP, and played two seasons at quarterback for the San Diego Riptide of the af2.

A three-year letter winner at UTEP (1999-2001), Phillips was a member of the 2000 Miners team that shared the WAC title, posted the school's highest win total in more than a decade and played in the Humanitarian Bowl. Phillips left the collegiate ranks among the school's single-season leaders in both pass efficiency (ninth – 120.0 in 2001) and completion percentage (eighth – 55.6 in 2001).

Phillips received his bachelor's degree in philosophy from UTEP in 2001. Phillips and his wife, Anna, were married in 2009 and have one daughter, Ivy, and a son, Mac.

2005-08	Safety	Wisconsin
2010	Defensive Backs Coach	Grand Blanc H.S. (Mich.)
2011-12	Defensive Assistant	Michigan
2013	Offensive Assistant	Washington Redskins
2014-15	Defensive Quality Control	Washington Redskins
2016-Pres.	Asst. Defensive Backs	Washington Redskins

Aubrey Pleasant is entering his fourth season with the Redskins in 2016. He served as an offensive assistant in his first season in Washington in 2013 before transitioning to the defensive side of the ball prior to the 2014 season and working extensively with the team's defensive backs.

In 2015, Pleasant played a pivotal role in assisting Defensive Backs Coach Perry Fewell with a secondary that was besieged by injuries throughout the season. Pleasant aided in the transition of Quinton Dunbar, who joined the Redskins as a college free agent wide receiver before switching to cornerback in the middle of training camp. Dunbar played in 11 games, making one start and intercepting Giants quarterback Eli Manning in a crucial Week 12 victory during the Redskins' NFC East championship season. Pleasant also assisted in the midseason transition of 12-year NFL veteran DeAngelo Hall from cornerback to safety and the rapid development of sixth-round pick Kyshoen Jarrett, a safety who also contributed significantly at nickel after volunteering for the role in camp.

Pleasant transitioned to the defensive side of the ball in 2014 after spending his first season with the Redskins as an offensive assistant. In 2014, he assisted Defensive Backs Coach Raheem Morris and played a significant role in the development of fourth-round pick Bashaud Breeland. With Pleasant's guidance, Breeland started 15 games – third-most by a rookie cornerback in Redskins history behind only Champ Bailey (16 in 1999) and Pro Football Hall of Famer Darrell Green (16 in 1983) – and tied for the NFL rookie lead in passes defended (14).

Pleasant was an offensive staff/head coach intern for the Cleveland Browns before joining the Redskins. Prior to his time in Cleveland, he spent two years with the University of Michigan as a defensive graduate assistant, helping the team appear in back-to-back bowl games. With Pleasant working specifically with the defensive backs in 2011, Michigan allowed 190.5 yards passing per game and 17.4 points per game, ranking No. 16 and sixth in the nation, respectively. Michigan's total defense improved to No. 17 in the nation (322.2 ypg.) after ranking No. 110 (450.8 ypg.) in the year prior to Pleasant's arrival. Michigan's defense allowed only 12 touchdown passes, led the Big Ten with 29 takeaways and tied for first in Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) with 20 fumble recoveries.

In 2012, Pleasant was promoted to Assistant Defensive Backs Coach, helping Michigan's total defense (320.0 ypg.) and passing yards allowed (169.5 ypg.) improve to No. 13 and No. 5 in the country, respectively. Following Michigan's 2012 season, Pleasant was one of 30 coaches nationwide invited to the NCAA Future Football Coaches Academy in San Antonio.

Pleasant coached defensive backs at Grand Blanc (Mich.) H.S. in 2010 and was a behavioral specialist/special needs teacher in the Flint (Mich.) Community School District. His duties included working directly with cognitively-impaired and academically-neglected adult students to help educate them within the Flint school district.

Pleasant was a three-year letterman at Wisconsin from 2005-08, appearing in 41 career games with 14 starts at safety. He finished his collegiate career with 80 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, two sacks, one forced fumble and appeared in four consecutive bowl games: Capital One (2005 and 2006), Outback (2007) and Champs Sports (2008). Pleasant received a master's degree in education while coaching at Michigan and earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Wisconsin in 2009.

Pleasant is a native of Flint, Mich., where he graduated from the city's Montrose H.S., receiving Class B all-state honorable mention honor at safety his senior year. He attended Flint Northern H.S. and earned all-city running back honors as a sophomore.

Jake Sankal is entering his first NFL season with the Redskins after joining the team as an assistant strength and conditioning coach and team nutritionist during the 2016 offseason.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Sankal worked as a strength and conditioning coach in the Cleveland Indians organization. His tenure with the organization from 2010-15 included stints with the Mahoning Valley Scrappers (A), Kinston Indians (A), Carolina Mudcats (A) and three seasons with the Akron RubberDucks (AA).

Sankal is a Registered Dietitian with the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and holds certifications with USA Weightlifting and the National Strength and Conditioning Association as a Registered Strength and Conditioning Coach (RSCC) and Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS).

Sankal initially earned his bachelor's degree in history from the College of Wooster, where he played baseball and helped guide the program to the NCAA Division III Tournament in all four seasons of his collegiate career. In addition, he holds a bachelor's degree in dietetics from the University of Northern Colorado and a Master's degree in exercise science from Cleveland State University.

He is the son of Jill and Spark Sankal, the latter of whom is a 2009 Ohio High School Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame inductee.

Shane Waldron is entering his sixth NFL season and his first with the Redskins after being named the team's offensive quality control coach on February 17, 2016.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Waldron had most recently spent four seasons at UMass, serving as the Minutemen's Recruiting Coordinator/Tight Ends Coach from 2012-13 and Offensive Line Coach from 2014-15. Waldron helped guide tight end Rob Branchflower to a seventh-round selection by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 2014 NFL Draft after Branchflower set the school record for most career receiving yards by a tight end.

In 2011, Waldron served as the offensive coordinator at the Buckingham Browne & Nichols H.S. (Mass.) and also as a Northeast Sports Consultant. A year earlier, he served as Wide Receivers Coach for the Hartford Colonials of the United Football League.

Before his stint in the UFL, Waldron worked with the New England Patriots in various capacities across two different stints with the franchise. Beginning in 2002, Waldron served as an operations intern for two seasons before being promoted to the title of an operations assistant in 2004, when he handled special teams quality control duties in addition to overseeing the completion of weekly game plans. After three years coaching at Notre Dame, Waldron returned to New England in 2008 to serve as an offensive quality control coach and later served as the tight ends coach in 2009.

Waldron spent the 2005-07 seasons as an offensive graduate assistant at Notre Dame. With the Irish, he helped guide two of the most explosive offenses in school history, as both the 2005 and 2006 units averaged at least 31 points per game.

A native of Portland, Ore., Waldron is a 2002 graduate of Tufts University, where he was a three-year letterman as a tight end and long snapper.

FRONT OFFICE

ERIC SCHAFFER
VP OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION/GENERAL COUNSEL

14TH WITH REDSKINS

Eric Schaffer is entering his 14th season with the Redskins and his 10th as Vice President of Football Administration in 2016. He is the club's chief contract negotiator and is responsible for the strategic planning, management, and forecasting of the Redskins' salary cap and cash budgets. In addition, Schaffer conducts extensive research and analysis of NFL player contracts and evaluates the roster composition of each club throughout the NFL. He also serves as the Redskins' primary liaison to the NFL Management Council.

In addition to his role as VP of Football Administration, Schaffer serves as the Redskins' General Counsel, advising the Club on all legal matters and contributing significantly to the team's business operations. His areas of oversight include sponsorships, licensing, vendor and employment agreements (for football and non-football employees), human resources issues, team litigation, as well as workers' compensation, among various others.

Schaffer has worked closely with President Bruce Allen and General Manager Scot McCloughan to help shape the Redskins' current roster. This offseason, the trio mobilized quickly to recruit and sign All-Pro cornerback Josh Norman. Schaffer also negotiated multi-year contract extensions for Jordan Reed, who set franchise records for receptions and receiving yards by a tight end in 2015, and Tress Way, the team's young, and talented punter. The moves followed a 2015 season in which Schaffer and the Redskins adeptly added veteran leaders with winning pedigrees to a young roster that ultimately secured the NFC East title.

Over the last several years, Schaffer has negotiated multi-year contract extensions with potential free agents such as Reed, perennial Pro Bowler Trent Williams, Ryan Kerrigan, Chris Baker, DeAngelo Hall and Niles Paul prior to the players hitting the open market. He has adroitly navigated the salary cap each year, including helping the club overcome a $36 million cap penalty en route to its first NFC East title since 1999.

In the 2011 offseason abbreviated by the NFL labor dispute, Schaffer helped the team secure several key players in a flurry of activity after a new Collective Bargaining Agreement was agreed upon by the NFL and NFLPA. In 14 years (2003-16) with the Redskins, Schaffer has negotiated the contracts for every one of Washington's draft picks, including 20 first- and second-round picks.

Schaffer originally joined the Redskins in 2003 as the team's salary cap manager. He was promoted first to Director of Football Administration in 2005 and again to Vice President of Football Administration in 2007. Schaffer added the General Counsel role in 2012.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Schaffer spent 11 years with International Management Group (IMG) in various roles. He started as an intern for IMG's founder, the late Mark McCormack, and moved on to their motorsports division where he sold corporate sponsorships and managed young drivers. He eventually became the staff counsel for IMG Football, where he oversaw all legal issues related to 90 NFL clients and negotiated player contracts as an NFLPA registered agent.

Schaffer holds both a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Michigan and a law degree from Case Western Reserve University where he completed his studies while working full time for IMG. A native of Cleveland, Ohio, he is a member of the Ohio Bar Association as well as admitted in Virginia as Club Counsel. SCOTT CAMPBELL

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

16TH WITH REDSKINS

Scott Campbell is entering his 30th NFL season and his 16th with the Washington Redskins in 2016. Campbell has had two different stints overseeing either the club's college or pro scouting departments during his tenure with Washington, and assumed an expanded role directing both departments in the 2008 offseason. In 2015, Campbell transitioned from his Director of Player Personnel role to focus on leading the team's draft efforts as Director of College Scouting.

Since Campbell's return to college scouting in 2006, every first round selection by the Redskins with exception of 2015 rookie Brandon Scherff has qualified for the Pro Bowl during their NFL careers (Robert Griffin III, Ryan Kerrigan, Trent Williams, Brian Orakpo and LaRon Landry). Campbell and the personnel staff oversaw a 10-player class in the 2015 NFL Draft that made an immediate impact en route to the team's NFC East title run that season. The team secured All-Rookie selection Brandon Scherff in the first round, rookie sack leader Preston Smith in the second round, franchise record-holder for rookie receptions Jamison Crowder in the fourth round, and jack-of-all-trades defensive back Kysheon Jarrett in the sixth round, among others. Said ESPN draft analyst Mel Kiper after the 2015 season, "They got as much impact from rookies as any team in the NFL."

Campbell played an integral role in identifying and selecting a number of impact contributors in the 2014 NFL Draft despite the team not holding a first-round pick. The Redskins' first four selections that year combined to start 82 contests in their first two NFL seasons from 2014-15, a group that included second-round linebacker/defensive end Trent Murphy (23 starts), third-round tackle Morgan Moses (17), third-round guard/center Spencer Long (13) and fourth-round cornerback Bashaud Breeland (29). All four players started at least 13 regular season games during the Redskins' NFC East championship campaign in 2015 in addition to starting in the NFC Wild Card Round.

Campbell originally joined the Redskins in 2001 as Director of College Scouting, overseeing the area scouts and assisting with the Redskins' draft operations before heading up the scouting of pro personnel for the next four seasons. He returned in 2006 to take charge of the college scouting department, where he spent two seasons before being promoted to Director of Player Personnel. In 2015, he transitioned to Director of College Scouting, where he now leads the team's area scouts in identifying talent at the collegiate level.

Previously, Campbell spent the 2000 season in Chicago as Director of Pro Personnel, after three seasons in Kansas City, serving as a southeast area scout (1997-99).

Campbell began his NFL career with the Atlanta Falcons in 1987, serving as an assistant to his father, Head Coach

Marion Campbell - who also served as the defensive coordinator for the NFC Champion Philadelphia Eagles in 1980. Campbell spent three years as the administrative assistant to the coaching staff, helping coordinate training camp, scouting, quality control and additional football logistics. In 1990, he moved over to Atlanta's personnel department full-time for a seven-season run as an area scout.

Campbell earned his bachelor's degree in education from the University of Georgia in 1984, where he played on the offensive line for three SEC Championship squads, including the 1980 National Championship team. He went on to earn a master's degree in education from Auburn University in 1986, while working with the Tigers' coaching staff as a graduate assistant from 1985-86. Campbell and his wife, Cindy, have two daughters, Courtney and Caroline.

DOUG WILLIAMS PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE

7TH WITH REDSKINS

Doug Williams is entering his third season as the Redskins' Personnel Executive after being hired to the position on February 10, 2014. The hiring marked Williams' return to the Redskins, with whom he was one of the most celebrated athletes in franchise history.

Williams, a member of the 80 Greatest Redskins and a Redskins Ring of Famer, played with the Redskins from 1986-89 and led Washington to a Super Bowl XXII title, a 42-10 rout of the Denver Broncos. Williams, the first African-American quarterback to play in a Super Bowl, completed 18-of-29 passes for 340 yards with four touchdown passes to earn Super Bowl XXII MVP honors.

Williams is a veteran of 19 NFL seasons, including nine as a player and 10 in scouting/personnel roles. He spent five seasons as Personnel Executive with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2004-08 before being named the team's Director of Pro Personnel for the 2009 season.

Williams joined the Buccaneers' front office in 2004 following a successful tenure as head coach at his alma mater, Grambling State, and one of the most storied playing careers in league and team history. His responsibilities in Tampa included coordinating the scouting and recruiting of all NFL players, while also monitoring NFL transactions and overseeing player tryouts. In addition, he was in charge of Tampa Bay's evaluating efforts of all other professional football leagues, including the Canadian Football League.

Williams, a first-round pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), led the Buccaneers to the first three playoff appearances in team history. He propelled the team to three winning seasons (10-6 in 1979, 9-7 in 1981 and 5-4 in 1982), the only campaigns in franchise history with a winning record until more than 15 years later, in the 1997 season. Williams, who started 67 career games for the Buccaneers, was a two-time team MVP in 1980 and 1981. He ended his Tampa Bay career in 1982 as the all-time franchise leader in touchdown passes, passing yards, attempts and completions.

In 1986, the Washington Redskins traded for Williams' rights following two seasons with the USFL's Oklahoma Outlaws. In Williams' Super Bowl XXII MVP performance following the 1987 season, he set or tied several Super Bowl passing records, including most TD passes (four), most yards passing (340), longest pass completion (80 yards) and longest TD pass (80 yards).

In six seasons during his first tenure (1998-2003) at Grambling State University, Williams brought one of the most storied programs in college football history back to prominence, compiling a 52-18 record as head coach after succeeding the legendary Eddie Robinson, who was at the helm for 57 years from 1941-97 and re-wrote the record books as the winningest coach in the history of college football with 408 career wins.

Williams led the Tigers to three consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference titles from 2000-02 as they were named National Black College Champions during the same three-year span. He was also named SWAC Coach of the Year in each of those three seasons. Williams was a two-time finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson (Division I-AA) National Coach of the Year. He rejoined the program for three seasons from 2011-13, including earning the SWAC title in his first season back in 2011.

Williams started his college head coaching career at Morehouse College in 1997. He also has previous NFL experience as a scout for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995 and as offensive coordinator for the Scottish Claymores of the World League in 1995 and tutoring running backs for Navy in 1994. Williams also excelled on the high school level as head coach and athletic director at Point Coupee H.S. in New Roads, La., in 1991. In 1993, he was head coach at Northeast H.S. in his hometown of Zachary, La., where he guided the team to a 13-1 record and the state semifinals, including a win over Peyton Manning's Isidore Newman squad in the 1993 state quarterfinals.

As Grambling's quarterback from 1974-77, Williams had a spectacular college career as he passed for more than 8,000 yards and 93 touchdowns, leading the Tigers to three National Black College National Championships and two SWAC titles. He posted a 35-5 record as a starter and finished fourth in voting for the 1977 Heisman Trophy.

In 2005, Williams and Shack Harris established The Shack Harris & Doug Williams Foundation with the function of providing grants for after-school initiatives, leadership development, mentoring programs and minority higher education assistance for economically disadvantaged youth. In March of 2009, the foundation put on its first annual Washington Football Legends for Charity in Washington, D.C. A nostalgic evening of tribute, food and fun that honored football legends in our nation's capital, the event's proceeds assisted several charities.

After Super Bowl XLII, the NFL honored the 20th anniversary of Williams' Super Bowl XXII victory as Williams was chosen to present the Lombardi Trophy to the New York Giants following their victory over the New England Patriots.

Williams and his wife, Raunda, have eight children: Ashley, Adrian, Carmelela, Doug, Jr., Jasmine, Laura, Lee and Temessia.

ALEX SANTOS
DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

11TH WITH REDSKINS

Alex Santos enters his 11th season with Washington in 2016 and his third as the Redskins' Director of Pro Personnel after being named to his current role on May 31, 2014. He is responsible for coordinating the advance scouting of

Redskins opponents, participating in all draft meetings, and the evaluation of all professional leagues for potential free agents and trade prospects.

Santos was part of a staff that identified and signed a number of key midseason contributors during the team's run to an NFC East title in 2015. The Redskins received significant contributions from a number of in-season signings, including cornerback Will Blackmon (tied for team lead in interceptions after signing prior to Week 2), linebacker Mason Foster (started the final five games of the season after signing in Week 4) and running back Pierre Thomas (caught seven passes for 67 yards in division-clinching win after signing with the team only two weeks earlier).

Santos previously spent five seasons from 2009-13 as a pro scout, where in addition to the advance scouting of Redskins opponents, he was responsible for assisting with the club's evaluation of personnel in the NFL and Canadian Football League. He originally joined the Redskins in 2006 as a pro personnel assistant.

Santos spent 2005 as a graduate assistant and quality control/offensive line intern coach at Vanderbilt University. Prior to that, he was the assistant head football coach at Eastside High School in Paterson, N.J. At Eastside, he also coached the offensive line, directed the strength and conditioning program and was one of the school's special education instructors.

A four-year starter at guard for North Carolina State University, Santos graduated in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in Spanish literature. He also earned a Master's degree from New Jersey City State University. A native of Paterson, N.J., he currently resides in Ashburn, Va., with his wife, Melanie, and daughter, Arya.

RICHARD MANN II
PRO SCOUT

7TH WITH REDSKINS

Richard Mann II is entering his seventh season with the Washington Redskins as a pro scout. In addition to the weekly advance scouting of Redskins opponents, he is responsible for assisting in the evaluation and writing of player reports on potential talent in NFL free agency, the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football League.

Mann spent his first three seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he served as a personnel assistant in 2007 and 2008 and a college personnel assistant in 2009. With the Buccaneers, he was able to work with his father, NFL coach Richard Mann, a veteran of 30-plus NFL seasons who currently serves as wide receivers coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

A return specialist at Salisbury University, Mann earned his bachelor's degree in interpersonal communication with a minor in marketing before receiving his master's degree in sports leadership from Duquesne University in June 2008. Mann was a three-year member of the football team at Salisbury, earning All-Conference honors in 2002, while averaging 31.8 yards per kickoff return.

His first NFL experiences came in the summer of 1994 as equipment assistant with the Cleveland Browns & in 2003 as a pro personnel intern with the Baltimore Ravens. He and his wife, Chenel, have one son, Richard Mann III, and one daughter, Liliana, and reside in Leesburg, Va.

DARRYL FRANKLIN
BLESTO SCOUT

9TH NFL SEASON
5TH WITH REDSKINS

Darryl Franklin is entering his fifth season with the Redskins in 2016. During his tenure in Washington, Franklin has handled both BLESTO and pro scouting duties.

During the 2010-11 seasons, Franklin was based in Jacksonville, Fla., as a scouting assistant for BLESTO. He spent the 2009 season as an intern for BLESTO before becoming full-time. Franklin spent the 2008 season with the Detroit Lions as a player personnel intern, aiding in both college and pro scouting. He assists in evaluating prospects from other NFL teams and is responsible for scouting Canadian Inter-university Sport prospects.

Prior to entering the NFL, Franklin spent three years as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan, where he gained experience initially helping with the defense before later assisting with the offense. While at Central Michigan, Franklin earned a Master's degree in administration with a sport concentration. He completed his master's project on predicting NFL career longevity using combine results.

Franklin earned undergraduate degrees at the University of Missouri, majoring in broadcast journalism and political science. He also served as a student assistant for the Tigers' football team, primarily working with the school's recruiting coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Originally from Toronto, Franklin attended Mount Hebron H.S. in Ellicott City, Md., where he helped out as the football team's student assistant.

Hines is responsible for recording practices and providing video to coaches, as well as editing and producing the team's highlight reel.

Hines joined the Redskins during the 2015 offseason. Prior to joining the team, Hines worked as an intern in the Philadelphia Eagles' video department during the 2014 season.

Hines earned his bachelor's degree in physical education with a concentration in coaching from Alabama State University. During his college career, he served as an assistant video coordinator for the football program for three years.

Hines was born and raised in Oxon Hill, Md.

CULINARY NUTRITION

JON MATHIESON
EXECUTIVE CHEF

4TH NFL SEASON
4TH WITH REDSKINS

Jon Mathieson is entering his fourth season as the Redskins' Executive Chef in 2016.

Mathieson has more than 25 years of experience in the culinary industry. His responsibilities with the Redskins include menu creation, budget overview, training and overseeing the kitchen staff while working with the team nutritionist to provide healthy meal options.

After graduating from the Culinary Institute of America in 1988, Mathieson began a dynamic career, starting as an apprentice under Chef Seppi Renggli at the Four Seasons in New York City, N.Y. His career also includes positions at La Laurier in New York City, the Homestead Inn in Greenwich, Conn., and New York's acclaimed Le Bernardin.

During his tenure as Chef de Cuisine at Lespinasse Restaurant in New York City from 1993-98, Mathieson learned the inner workings of a world-famous restaurant, and over the course of five years rose from the position of Chef de Partie to Chef de Cuisine. During Mathieson's tenure, Lespinasse received four stars from The New York Times, The Five-Diamond Award from AAA, and was rated the No. 3 restaurant in the country by Wine Spectator Magazine.

In 1999, Mathieson accepted the position as Executive Chef at Stonehedge Inn in Tyngsboro, Mass. He developed a "new French" menu for Silks, the Inn's acclaimed restaurant, and received rave reviews and national recognition, including a DiRona Award, three stars from the Boston Globe and four diamonds from the AAA.

In 2005, Mathieson was the Chef de Cuisine at 2941 Restaurant in Falls Church, Va. Mathieson was instrumental in raising the level of culinary talent and cuisine at the restaurant, helping establish 2941 as one of the most recognized restaurants in the D.C. Metro area. From 2008-10, Mathieson served as the Executive Chef and Co-Owner of Inox restaurant in McLean, Va. After Inox, Mathieson served as Executive Chef of Michel in McLean, Va., and later became Chef de Cuisine at BLT Steak in Washington, D.C., from 2012-13.

Mathieson is originally from New York and now resides in Vienna, Va.

CONNOR MCGUIRE
SOUS CHEF

4TH NFL SEASON
4TH WITH REDSKINS

Connor McGuire is entering his fourth season as the Redskins' Sous Chef in 2016.

McGuire serves as the assistant to Executive Chef Jon Mathieson. Beyond food preparation, his day-to-day responsibilities with the Redskins include assisting with ingredient orders and training kitchen staff.

McGuire attended Virginia Tech from 2006-10, earning a bachelor's degree in consumer foods. During that time, he assisted Columbia Country Club in Chevy Chase, Md., during the summer months.

After graduation, McGuire worked as Chef de Partie at Michel by Michel Richard in McLean, Va. From 2012-13, McGuire worked as Office Manager at BLT Steak, located in Washington D.C. His responsibilities included assisting with budgeting, customer service inquiries and serving as a liaison to the restaurant's corporate headquarters.

McGuire was born and raised in Washington D.C., and is a graduate of St. John's College High School. He now resides in Falls Church, Va.

TRANSACTIONS

Originally selected by the Washington Redskins in the fourth round (102nd overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft... Signed franchise tender on March 3, 2016.

PRO

Enters 2016 having appeared in 30 regular season games (25 starts) and two postseason games (one start).... Breakout star of 2015 NFC East title-winning season who earned 2015 PFWA Co-Most Improved Player honors after setting single-season team records for attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven).... Was part of quarterback duo in 2012 that made the Redskins the first team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to have two different rookie quarterbacks (Cousins and Robert Griffin III) lead fourth-quarter comeback wins in the same season and the first team in history with two rookie quarterbacks with 300-yard passing games in a single season.

YEAR-BY-YEAR

Started all 16 games and one postseason game after being named the starter in late August. Completed 379-of-543 passes (69.8 percent) for 4,166 yards with 29 touchdowns and 11 interceptions for a passer rating of 101.6 in the 2015 regular season and set single-season team records for attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven).... Shared PFWA Co-Most Improved Player honors with Panthers CB Josh Norman. Twice earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors (Weeks 7 and 10) and was named NFC Offensive Player of the Month in December... His 29 passing touchdowns tied Joe Theismann (29 in 1983) for the second-most in a season in team history. Became the first player in team history to throw a touchdown in all 16 games in a season since the adoption of the 16-game schedule in 1978 and was one of only two NFL quarterbacks to throw a touchdown pass in all 16 regular season games in 2015 (Russell Wilson).... Became the first Redskins quarterback to lead the NFL in completion percentage since Sonny Jurgensen in 1970. Also completed 74.7 percent of his pass attempts in home games, the highest home completion percentage in a season in NFL history, surpassing Jim Harbaugh's 74.3 percent with the Indianapolis Colts in 1997... 117.0 passer rating in home games was the best by a Redskins quarterback since at least 1950, surpassing the 111.8 mark set by Jurgensen in 1970.... Became the 12th Redskins quarterback (and the first since 2009) to start all 16 games in a season since the NFL adopted the 16-game schedule in 1978... Started vs. MIA (9/13) and completed 21-of-31 passes for 196 yards with one touchdown... Started vs. STL (9/20), completing 23-of-27 passes for 203 yards and a touchdown in a Week 2 win... Started at NYG (9/24), completing 30-of-49 attempts for 316 yards with one touchdown... Recorded 31 completions on 46 attempts for 290 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions vs. PHI (10/4) in addition to scoring his first career rushing touchdown. Engineered a 15-play, 90-yard drive culminating with a four-yard touchdown pass to Pierre Garçon to complete his first fourth-quarter come-from-behind victory as a starter... Completed 21-of-32 passes for 219 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions at ATL (10/11), forcing overtime with a four-play, 46-yard drive in 24 seconds to set up a Dustin Hopkins game-tying field goal... Completed 25-of-43 passes for 196 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions at NYJ (10/18)... Completed 33-of-40 passes for 317 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions, and also rushed three times for 15 yards with a rushing touchdown in the largest comeback win (24 points) in team history vs. TB (10/25). Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for the performance, as his career-high 33 completions tied Jason Campbell's franchise record (Nov. 18, 2007 against Dallas). Became the first Redskins quarterback to record at least three passing touchdowns and at least one rushing touchdown in a single game since Trent Green on Nov. 22, 1998. Also became the first Redskins quarterback since 1960 to record three 30-completion games in a single season. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first player to throw game-winning passes in the final 30 seconds of the fourth quarter twice in the same calendar month since Drew Bledsoe in December 2005... Completed 22-of-40 passes for 217 yards with one touchdown at NE (11/8)... Completed 20-of-25 passes for 324 yards with a career-high four touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 158.3 in a 47-14 rout vs. NO (11/15). Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Weeks honors, as his perfect passer rating was the Redskins' first among quarterbacks with at least 20 attempts in records available dating back to 1950. Became the first Redskins quarterback to pass for at least 300 yards and post a rating of at least 150.0 in a game since Pro Football Hall of Famer Sammy Baugh on Oct. 31, 1948... Completed 22-of-30 passes (73.3 percent) for 207 yards with one touchdown and one interception at CAR (11/22)... Completed 20-of-29 passes for 302 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions for a passer rating of 114.4 in a win vs. NYG (11/29). Also added a rushing touchdown... Completed 22-of-31 passes for 219 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions for a passer rating of 101.4 vs. DAL (12/7)... Completed 24-of-31 passes for 300 yards with one passing touchdown, one rushing touchdown and one interception with a passer rating of 104.2 in a win at CHI (12/13)... Completed 22-of-28 passes for 319 yards and tied his career high with four passing touchdowns and added a 13-yard rushing touchdown in a win vs. BUF (12/20). His sixth 300-yard passing game of the season broke team record (Sonny Jurgensen in 1967, Jay Schroeder in 1986 and Mark Rypien in 1989 all had five). With his 14th completion of the day broke the Redskins' franchise record for pass completions in a single season (327, Jason Campbell in 2009). Became only the fourth Redskins quarterback since 1950 to record at least four passing touchdowns and a rushing touchdown in a single game, joining Trent Green (Nov. 22, 1998 vs. Arizona), Rypien (Nov. 10, 1991 vs. Atlanta) and Norm Snead (Oct. 28, 1962 at the New York Giants). Finished regular season home slate having thrown 232 consecutive pass attempts at home without an interception dating back to Week 1, the longest such home streak in team history according to the Elias Sports Bureau... Completed 31-of-46 passes for 365 yards with four touchdowns and zero interceptions with a passer rating of 120.3 in a division-clinching win at PHI (12/26). Added to his single-season team records in 300-yard passing games (seven). Was his third four-touchdown game of the season, tying Jurgensen (three in 1964 and 1967) for the most in a single season by a Redskins quarterback since 1960. Tied Robert Griffin III for the longest streak of 100.0-plus passer rating games (five in 2012) by a Redskins quarterback since 1960... Completed 12-of-15 passes for 176 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 155.1 in regular season finale at DAL (1/3) before exiting in the second quarter. Became the first player in team history to throw three touchdowns in the first quarter of a game. Broke Jay Schroeder's team record for passing yards in a single season (4,109 in 1986) on a 28-yard pass to wide receiver Jamison Crowder. Extended his streak of games with a touchdown pass to 16, passing Joe Theismann (15 in 1982-83) for sole possession of the second-longest streak in team history and becoming the first player in team history to throw a touchdown in all 16 games in a season since the adoption of the 16-game schedule in 1978. Was his sixth consecutive game with a passer rating of 100.0 or better, the longest streak by a Redskins quarterback in records available back to 1960. Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Month for December... Completed 29-of-46 passes for 329 yards with one passing touchdown and one rushing touchdown in his first postseason start in NFC Wild Card Round vs. GB (1/10). Became the first Redskins quarterback to throw for a touchdown and run for a touchdown in a single postseason game. Also tied Todd Collins' franchise record for completions in a postseason game (29, NFC Wild Card Round at Seattle on Jan. 5, 2008).

2014 (REDSKINS)

Became the first Redskins quarterback in the Super Bowl era to throw for 300 yards in each of his first two career starts, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Threw for 248 yards in the first half, the most in a first half by a Redskins quarterback since Mark Rypien threw for 259 yards in the first two quarters vs. Atlanta on Nov. 10, 1991... Started and completed 21-of-36 passes for 197 yards with one touchdown and one interception vs. DAL (12/22). Also posted two rushing attempts for 10 yards... Started and completed 19-of-49 passes for 169 yards at NYG (12/29).

2012 (REDSKINS)

Played in three regular season games with one start and saw his first postseason action... Was active but did not play as the second quarterback in a season-opening win at NO (9/9), at STL (9/16), vs. CIN (9/23) and at TB (9/30)... Saw his first action vs. ATL (10/7), entering in relief of the injured Robert Griffin III in the third quarter and completing 5-of-9 passes for 111 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions. His first career pass attempt was a four-yard completion to wide receiver Joshua Morgan. In the fourth quarter, he threw the first touchdown pass of his career, finding Santana Moss for a 77-yard touchdown. With the pass, the Redskins became the first team since the 1941 Chicago Cardinals to have two rookie quarterbacks each throw a touchdown pass of 75+ yards in the same season... Active but did not play vs. MIN (10/14), at NYG (10/21), at PIT (10/28), vs. CAR (11/4), vs. PHI (11/18), at DAL (11/22) and vs. NYG (12/3)... Led the first fourth-quarter comeback of his career, replacing Griffin III in the final two minutes of a win vs. BAL (12/9). Led an eight-point fourth-quarter comeback, making the Redskins the first team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to have two different rookie quarterbacks lead fourth-quarter comeback wins in the same season. Hit Pierre Garçon for an 11-yard touchdown and then converted the game-tying two-point conversion on a quarterback draw, marking the first time in team history that the Redskins had scored a two-point conversion to send a game to overtime. The comeback was named the NFL GMC Never Say Never Moment of the Week... Made his first career start in a win at CLE (12/16), completing 26-of-37 passes for 329 yards with two touchdowns, all career highs. He and Griffin III became the first duo to each have started a game for the Redskins as rookies in the same season since Heath Shuler and Gus Frerotte in 1994. With Cousins' victory in Week 15 and Griffin III's win in Week 1, the Redskins became the first team in a non-strike season to have two different rookie quarterbacks win their first career starts in the same season since rookies John Elway and Gary Kubiak won their starting debuts with the Denver Broncos in 1983. The game was Cousins' first 300-yard passing performance, as the Redskins became the first team in NFL history to have two different rookie quarterbacks post 300-yard passing games in the same season. Won Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week and GMC Never Say Never Moment of the Week for his efforts... Active but did not play at PHI (12/23) and vs. DAL (12/30)... Completed three-of-10 passes for 31 yards in relief of an injured Griffin III in the NFC Wild Card Round vs. SEA (1/6).

GAME 1

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

DOLPHINS 17, REDSKINS 10

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins lost to the Miami Dolphins, 17-10, in front of an announced crowd of 76,512 people at FedExField in Week 1.

The game kicked off the Redskins' 84th season in franchise history and the franchise's 79th representing Washington, D.C. It was the first of 19 games on the 2015 NFL schedule that represented Super Bowl rematches, and Joe Theismann and Bob Griese served as honorary team captains for the Redskins and Dolphins, respectively.

The Redskins outgained the Dolphins, 349-256, including a 161-74 edge in rushing yards. The Redskins' 161 rushing yards and 37 rushing attempts were both the second-highest totals of the Jay Gruden era (42 carries for 191 yards vs. Jacksonville on Sept. 14, 2014).

Running back Alfred Morris gained a game-high 121 rushing yards on 25 carries, recording his 12th career 100-yard rushing game and tying him with Earnest Byner, Terry Allen and George Rogers for fifth-most 100-yard games in franchise history. Morris also became the sixth player in franchise history to reach 4,000 career rushing yards as a member of the Redskins, joining John Riggins, Clinton Portis, Larry Brown, Stephen Davis and Terry Allen.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins started and completed 21-of-31 passes for 196 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions. The touchdown, a four-yard pass to tight end Jordan Reed, was the 19th passing touchdown of Cousins' career and the fourth receiving touchdown of Reed's career.

Linebacker Preston Smith, the team's second-round draft pick in the 2015 NFL Draft, recorded his first career sack, forced fumble and fumble recovery on a single play in the third quarter.

Despite the loss, the Redskins remain 8-4 all-time in Week 1 games at FedExField. The decision pushed the Redskins to 40-40-4 all-time in season openers, including a 24-22 record in openers since the 1970 merger.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 24, RAMS 10

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins earned their first victory of the 2015 season in Week 2, defeating the St. Louis Rams, 24-10, in front of an announced crowd of 72,460 at FedExField.

A week after rushing for 161 yards against the Miami Dolphins, the Redskins gained 182 rushing yards against the Rams, marking only the third time since 1950 that the Redskins have opened a season with consecutive 150-yard rushing games (1952 and 2012). It represented the first time Redskins had rushed for at least 150 yards in consecutive games since Weeks 10-11 of the 2013 season.

Running back Matt Jones recorded career highs in rushing attempts (19), rushing yards (123) and rushing touchdowns (two). The 100-yard rushing game was the first of Jones' career and the first by a Redskins rookie since Alfred Morris on Dec. 30, 2012 (vs. Dallas). With the back-to-back 100-yard rushing games by Jones and Alfred Morris, the Redskins had two different players recording 100-yard rushing efforts in consecutive games for the first time since Weeks 6-7 of the 2012 season (Robert Griffin III and Morris).

The Redskins held the Rams to zero points in the first half. Prior to Week 2, the last time the Redskins held an opponent scoreless in the first half also came against the Rams on Oct. 2, 2011 (led 14-0, won 17-10). The Redskins' 17-point halftime lead was the team's largest halftime margin since holding a 25-point halftime lead at Dallas on Thanksgiving Day in 2012.

The Redskins improved to 25-13-1 all-time against the Rams, including postseason play. The Redskins are now 23-11-1 all-time against the Rams in regular season play. The win was the Redskins' first against an NFC West opponent since earning a 23-17 victory against the Seattle Seahawks on Nov. 27, 2011.

MetLife Stadium [East Rutherford, N.J.]

GIANTS 32, REDSKINS 21

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – The Washington Redskins fell to the New York Giants, 32-21, in front of an announced crowd of 76,081 people at MetLife Stadium in Week 3.

Wide receiver Rashad Ross scored his first career kickoff return touchdown on a 101-yard return in the fourth quarter. His kickoff return touchdown was the Redskins' first since Oct. 31, 2010 [Brandon Banks, 96 yards at Detroit]. The 101-yard kickoff return tied Brian Mitchell for the second-longest in team history [vs. SD on Dec. 6, 1998].

Running back Chris Thompson led the Redskins with eight receptions, marking the first time since Week 11 of the 2014 season that a running back led the team in receptions in a game [Roy Helu, Jr. vs. Tampa Bay]. He scored on a four-yard reception from Kirk Cousins, Thompson's second career receiving touchdown and his first of the season. Thompson became the first member of the Redskins to record a receiving touchdown in consecutive road games against the Giants since Santana Moss across the 2011-12 seasons.

Tight end Jordan Reed led the Redskins with 96 receiving yards on six receptions, giving him the team lead in receiving yards in back-to-back weeks for the first time since Weeks 7-8 of his rookie season in 2013.

The Redskins' three scoring drives lasted 10, 13 and 12 plays, respectively. Entering the game, the Redskins were averaging 10.67 plays per scoring drive, the second-longest average in the NFL.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 23, EAGLES 20

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins evened their 2015 record at 2-2 with a 23-20 come-from-behind victory against the Philadelphia Eagles in front of an announced crowd of 74,767 people at FedExField in Week 4.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins recorded a career-high 31 completions on 46 attempts for 290 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions. His 31 completions were the most by a Redskins quarterback in a single game against Philadelphia in the 161-game history of the Redskins-Eagles rivalry.

Cousins engineered a 15-play, 90-yard drive in 5:39 to complete his first fourth-quarter come-from-behind victory as a starter. It marked the second time in his career he contributed to a come-from-behind victory in the fourth quarter, joining his contributions as a reserve vs. Baltimore on Dec. 9, 2012. The fourth quarter comeback was the Redskins' first since coming back to defeat the Tennessee Titans, 19-17, in Week 7 last season.

Cousins connected with wide receiver Pierre Garçon for a four-yard touchdown to win the game. The touchdown reception was the 30th of Garçon's career, becoming the 40th active player to reach 30 career receiving touchdowns.

The Redskins' first three scoring drives lasted 13, 10 and 10 plays, respectively. Washington's nine-play scoring drive in the third quarter snapped a streak of eight consecutive scoring drives of 10 plays or more. Per the Elias Sports Bureau, the most recent NFL team to have eight consecutive scoring drives last 10 plays or more was the 2007 Indianapolis Colts (a streak of nine such drives).

The Redskins recorded a 41:08-18:52 advantage in time of possession. The Redskins' 41:08 time of possession is the longest by the team in a game in records available dating back to 1991, surpassing the 41:04 recorded in an overtime contest vs. the New York Giants on Nov. 23, 1997.

GAME 5

Georgia Dome (Atlanta)

FALCONS 25, REDSKINS 19 (OT)

ATLANTA – The Washington Redskins fell to the Atlanta Falcons in overtime, 25-19, in front of an announced crowd of 70,178 people at the Georgia Dome in Week 6. The defeat pushed Washington to 25-15-1 all-time in overtime games.

Kicker Dustin Hopkins converted a career-long 52-yard field goal with no time remaining in regulation to force overtime. He became the first Redskins kicker to force overtime with a game-tying field goal in the final minute of regulation since John Hall vs. the New York Giants on Sept. 21, 2003. Hopkins' 52-yard field goal was the longest by a member of the Redskins since Dec. 24, 2011 (Graham Gano, 53 yards vs. Minnesota).

The field goal came as the culmination of a drive lasting 24 seconds, the team's quickest scoring drive by time since a nine-second drive in Week 3 at Philadelphia last season.

The Redskins won the turnover battle, 3-2. The Redskins forced three takeaways for the first time since Week 13 last season at Indianapolis. In Weeks 4-5, the Redskins recorded multiple takeaways in consecutive games for the first time since Weeks 12-13 last season.

Cornerback Bashaud Breeland tied his career high with four passes defended, set previously in Week 8 last season at Dallas. In the fourth quarter, Breeland recorded his third career interception, picking off Matt Ryan and recording a career-long 28-yard interception return.

Linebacker Ryan Kerrigan recorded two sacks. The multi-sack game was the seventh of Kerrigan's career and his first since Week 14 last season. Kerrigan moved into fifth-place on the Redskins' all-time sack list with a sack in the first quarter. The sack pushed Kerrigan past Brian Orakpo (40.0) in franchise history.

Defensive lineman Chris Baker recorded two forced fumbles, becoming the first member of the Redskins to record two forced fumbles in a game since Kerrigan on Nov. 13, 2011 at Miami.

MetLife Stadium (East Rutherford, N.J.)

JETS 34, REDSKINS 20

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – The Washington Redskins fell to the New York Jets, 34-20, in front of a crowd of 78,160 people at MetLife Stadium in Week 6. The game was the first regular season meeting between the Redskins and Jets at MetLife Stadium.

The Redskins registered three takeaways, forcing three turnovers in consecutive games for the first time since Weeks 12-13 last season. The Redskins recorded multiple takeaways for a third consecutive game for the first time since Weeks 15-17 of the 2013 season and produced three first-half takeaways for the first time since Week 13 of 2014 at Indianapolis. With the performance, the Redskins posted a positive turnover margin in three consecutive games for the first time since doing so in four straight contests across Weeks 14-17 of the 2012 season.

Cornerback Bashaud Breeland recorded an interception and a career-high two fumble recoveries, joining Darrelle Revis as the only NFL players through Week 6 to record two fumble recoveries and an interception in a single game in 2015.

Breeland recorded interceptions in consecutive games for the first time in his career and became the first member of the Redskins to do so since London Fletcher intercepted a pass in three straight games across Weeks 14-16 of the 2012 season. He became the first member of the Redskins to recover two opponent fumbles in a single game since LaVar Arrington on Dec. 29, 2002 vs. Dallas and became the first member of the Redskins since at least 2000 to recover two opponent fumbles and intercept a pass in the same game.

Safety Jeron Johnson blocked a punt in the fourth quarter, the Redskins' first blocked punt since Dec. 24, 2006 at St. Louis (Vernon Fox). The blocked punt was recovered in the end zone by Rashad Ross, the Redskins' first blocked punt touchdown since Nov. 7, 2004 vs. Detroit (Walt Harris).

Kicker Dustin Hopkins recorded a career-long 54-yard field goal in the second quarter. It was the longest field goal by a member of the Redskins since Graham Gano's team-record 59-yard field goal vs. San Francisco on Nov. 6, 2011. Hopkins became the first Redskins kicker to record a field goal of 50 yards or more in consecutive games since John Hall in Weeks 5-6 of the 2003 season.

GAME 7

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 31, BUCCANEERS 30

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins recorded their largest comeback in franchise history in Week 7, overcoming a 24-0 deficit to defeat the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 31-30, in front of an announced crowd of 72,912 people at FedExField. Prior to the 24-point comeback, the Redskins had previously overcome 21-point deficits to win three times in team history, including most recently against Carolina in 1999.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins completed 33-of-40 passes for 317 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions. He also rushed three times for 15 yards including a rushing touchdown. His career-high 33 completions tied Jason Campbell's franchise record set previously on Nov. 18, 2007 against the Dallas Cowboys.

Cousins posted the sixth game of 300 passing yards, three passing touchdowns and no interceptions by a Redskins quarterback in a win since the 1970 merger, joining Brad Johnson (Week 4 in 1999), Mark Rypien (Week 11 in 1990 and Week 11 in 1991) and Joe Theismann (Week 1 in 1982 and Week 5 in 1983). He became the first Redskins quarterback to record at least three passing touchdowns and at least one rushing touchdown in a single game since Trent Green on Nov. 22, 1998.

Including a comeback victory in Week 4 vs. Philadelphia, Cousins became the first player to throw game-winning passes in the final 30 seconds of the fourth quarter twice in the same calendar month since Drew Bledsoe in December 2005.

Tight end Jordan Reed recorded career highs in receptions [11] and receiving touchdowns [two], including the game-winning six-yard touchdown catch in the final minute. He became the first member of the Redskins to record multiple receiving touchdowns in a game since Leonard Hankerson in Week 1 of the 2013 season and was the first Redskins tight end to do so since Fred Davis on Dec. 13, 2009 at Oakland.

Gillette Stadium (Foxborough, Mass.)

PATRIOTS 27, REDSKINS 10

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. – The Washington Redskins fell to the New England Patriots, 27-10, in front of an announced crowd of 66,829 people at Gillette Stadium in Week 9.

The Redskins recorded two takeaways, marking the first time since Weeks 14-17 of the 2012 season and Week 1 of the 2013 season that the franchise had posted four multiple-takeaway games in a span of five regular season contests.

Linebacker Keenan Robinson recorded his first interception of the season – the second of his career – in the first quarter, picking off Patriots quarterback Tom Brady. The interception broke a streak of 232 consecutive home regular season pass attempts without an interception for Patriots quarterback Tom Brady, dating back to Dec. 14, 2014 vs. Miami.

Robinson returned the interception 44 yards, the team's longest interception return since a 45-yard return by cornerback David Amerson at Oakland on Sept. 29, 2013. The 44-yard interception return by Robinson was the longest by a Redskins linebacker since Antonio Pierce at San Francisco on Dec. 18, 2004 (78 yards).

Quarterback Kirk Cousins threw his career-high-tying 10th touchdown pass of the season in the fourth quarter, connecting with tight end Jordan Reed for a three-yard touchdown. Cousins became the first Redskins quarterback since Joe Theismann (1983) to throw a touchdown in each of the Redskins first eight games of a season.

With a 36-yard reception in the third quarter, wide receiver Pierre Garçon (3,151) moved past Roy Jefferson (3,119) for 12th-most receiving yards in Redskins history.

GAME 9

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 47, SAINTS 14

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins defeated the New Orleans Saints, 47-14, in front of an announced crowd of 75,086 people at FedExField in Week 10.

The Redskins' 47 points and 33-point margin of victory were the team's most in each category since recording 52 points in a 35-point win against the San Francisco 49ers on Oct. 23, 2005 (52-17). The Redskins gained 514 offensive yards on 59 plays, the team's highest yardage total since a 559-yard effort against the Atlanta Falcons on Nov. 10, 1991, and averaged 8.7 yards per play. The last time the Redskins averaged at least eight yards per play in a single game was Sept. 29, 1996 against the New York Jets (8.3).

The Redskins matched their win total from a season ago (four) with seven games remaining. The team also extended their home winning streak to four games for the first time since 2012 (Weeks 11-17).

Quarterback Kirk Cousins completed 20-of-25 passes for 324 yards with a career-high four touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 158.3. Cousins' perfect passer rating (158.3) was the Redskins' first perfect passer rating among quarterbacks with at least 20 attempts in records available dating back to 1950.

Cousins posted the first perfect passer rating (158.3) of any NFL quarterback this season with a minimum of 20 attempts. He became the first Redskins quarterback to pass for at least 300 yards and post a rating of at least 150 in a game since Pro Football Hall of Famer Sammy Baugh on Oct. 31, 1948. Cousins was the first NFL quarterback to record a 158.3 rating with a completion percentage of 80.0 or better, 300-plus passing yards and at least four touchdown passes and no interceptions since Tom Brady on Oct. 21, 2007.

Running back Matt Jones recorded a team-high and career-high 131 receiving yards on three receptions. His 131 receiving yards were the most by a Redskins running back since Dec. 16, 1962 (Dick James, 140 yards). Jones' 78-yard touchdown reception marked the longest by a Redskins running back since Larry Brown on Nov 5, 1972 against the New York Jets (89 yards).

GAME 10

Bank of America Stadium (Charlotte, N.C.)

PANTHERS 44, REDSKINS 16

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – The Washington Redskins fell to the Carolina Panthers, 44-16, in front of an announced crowd of 74,418 people at Bank of America Stadium in Week 11.

In the first quarter, Kirk Cousins connected with wide receiver DeSean Jackson for a 56-yard touchdown. With the score, Jackson tied Joey Galloway (22) for the fifth-most total touchdowns of 50-plus yards since the 1970 merger. The reception was also Jackson's 31st career reception of 50 yards or more, the most by any player in the NFL since he entered the league in 2008.

With the touchdown pass, Cousins extended his career-best streak of consecutive games with a touchdown pass this season to 10 games. Cousins is the first Redskins quarterback to open a season with a passing touchdown in each of the first 10 games of a season since Pro Football Hall of Famer Sonny Jurgensen in 1967.

Wide receiver Andre Roberts returned a second-quarter kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown, his first career kickoff return touchdown. Including a 101-yard kickoff return touchdown by Rashad Ross in Week 3, the Redskins tied a team record with two kickoff return touchdowns in a single season for the fourth time in team history (2005, 1947, 1942). Roberts recorded a career-high 177 kickoff return yards, surpassing his previous career best of 117 yards, set in Week 11 last season vs. Tampa Bay.

With a sack of Carolina QB Cam Newton in the first quarter, linebacker Ryan Kerrigan moved past Ken Harvey (41.5) for sole possession of fourth place in team history for most sacks since the stat became official in 1982.

GAME 11

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 20, GIANTS 14

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins defeated the New York Giants, 20-14, in front of an announced crowd of 77,367 people at FedExField in Week 11. The win moved the Redskins into first place in the NFC East.

The Redskins extended their home winning streak to five games for the first time since 2004-05 seasons (Week 17 in 2004, Weeks 1-9 in 2005). The five-game regular season home winning streak was the team's first in a single season since winning their first six home games in Weeks 1-11 in the team's most recent Super Bowl title season in 1991. The Redskins improved to 5-1 at home, solidifying a 5-1 record through the first six home games of a season for the first time since 1992.

The Redskins recorded three takeaways, their sixth multi-takeaway game of the season. All three takeaways came on interceptions of Giants quarterback Eli Manning. Entering Week 12, Manning had been intercepted only six times through 10 games. The three-interception game was the Redskins' first since Oct. 27, 2013 at Denver.

The Redskins held a 17-0 halftime lead, marking the third time this season the Redskins had held an opponent scoreless in the first half (Week 2 vs. St. Louis and Week 4 vs. Philadelphia). The last time the Redskins held opponents scoreless in the first halves of three games in a single season was during the team's 1991 Super Bowl-winning campaign.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins completed 20-of-29 passes for 302 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions for a passer rating of 114.4. Including 300-yard performances at home vs. Tampa Bay in Week 7 and vs. New Orleans in Week 10, Cousins became the first Redskins quarterback since at least 1960 to record 300-yard passing performances in three consecutive home games.

With a second quarter sack of Manning, linebacker Ryan Kerrigan moved into a tie for third place in sacks in franchise history since the NFL made sacks an official statistic in 1982 (43.5, Monte Coleman). He later moved into sole possession of third place with a third-quarter sack of Manning.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

COWBOYS 19, REDSKINS 16

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins fell to the Dallas Cowboys, 19-16, in front of an announced crowd of 80,444 people at FedExField in Week 13. The game was the 17th meeting between the Redskins and Cowboys on Monday Night Football, tying Broncos/Raiders for the most-played matchup in Monday Night Football history.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins completed 22-of-31 passes for 219 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions for a passer rating of 101.4. With the performance, Cousins registered a passer rating of 100.0 or better in four consecutive home games, the longest such streak by a Redskins quarterback (min. 15 attempts in each game) since at least 1960.

Cousins tied the game in the final minute, connecting with wide receiver DeSean Jackson on a 28-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's receiving touchdown was his third of the season and the 40th of his career. Jackson became the 30th active player to reach 40 career touchdown receptions.

The touchdown gave Jackson receiving scores in three consecutive games for the first time since Weeks 14-16 of the 2009 season. Jackson became the second member of the Redskins this season to record a receiving touchdown in three consecutive games, joining tight end Jordan Reed (Weeks 7-10, excluding a bye in Week 8). Prior to the three-game streaks by Jackson and Reed this season, the last time the Redskins had at least two different players record three consecutive games with a receiving touchdown in a single season was 1991 (Art Monk, Terry Orr and Ricky Sanders).

The Redskins recorded three takeaways, all fumbles. It marked the second time this season the Redskins have recorded three takeaways in consecutive games (Weeks 5-6). The Redskins recovered three opponent fumbles in a single game for the fourth time since the turn of the century and for the first time since Oct. 17, 2010 vs. Indianapolis.

Soldier Field (Chicago)

REDSKINS 24, BEARS 21

CHICAGO – The Washington Redskins earned a 24-21 victory against the Chicago Bears in front of an announced crowd of 61,026 people at Soldier Field in Week 14. With the victory, the Redskins snapped a nine-game road losing streak and earned their first road victory since Week 8 last season at Dallas.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins completed 24-of-31 passes for 300 yards with one touchdown and one interception, finishing the game with a passer rating of 104.2. Cousins also added a three-yard rushing touchdown. The 300-yard passing performance was Cousins' fifth of the season, adding to his career high and tying a franchise record set three times previously (Sonny Jurgensen in 1967, Jay Schroeder in 1986 and Mark Rypien in 1989).

Cousins extended his career-long streak of games with a touchdown pass to 13. He is the first Redskins quarterback to open a season with a touchdown in 13 consecutive games since Pro Football Hall of Famer Sonny Jurgensen in 1967. He moved into sole possession of the third-longest streak of games with a passing touchdown in team history, trailing only Jurgensen (23 from 1966-68) and Joe Theismann (15 from 1984-85).

With his 24 completions on the day, Cousins (554) moved past No. 12 Norm Snead (531), No. 11 Eddie LeBaron (529), No. 10 Mark Brunell (542) and No. 9 Brad Johnson (544) for ninth-most career completions in franchise history. Cousins also exceeded the 300-completion mark for the season, the fourth 300-completion season in team history, joining Jason Campbell (313 in 2008 and 327 in 2009) and Brad Johnson (316 in 1999).

Tight end Jordan Reed led the Redskins with nine receptions for 120 yards with a touchdown. The 100-yard receiving game was the third of Reed's career and his first of the season. It was the first 100-yard receiving game by a non-running back for the Redskins since Week 16 last season (DeSean Jackson vs. Philadelphia).

In two career games against Chicago, Reed has now caught 18 passes for 254 yards with two touchdowns, exceeding the 100-yard mark in both contests.

The Redskins scored a touchdown on both their opening drive of the game and their opening drive of the second half, marking the first time the team had scored an opening-drive touchdown in both halves since Nov. 29, 2009 at Philadelphia.

GAME 14

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 35, BILLS 25

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins defeated the Buffalo Bills, 35-25, in front of an announced crowd of 80,124 people at FedExField in Week 15. With the win, the Redskins earned victories in consecutive games for the first time since Weeks 7-8 last season and matched their combined win total from the 2013-14 seasons (seven).

Quarterback Kirk Cousins completed 22-of-28 passes for 319 yards and tied his career high with four passing touchdowns. He also added a 13-yard rushing touchdown. Cousins became only the fourth Redskins quarterback since 1950 to record at least four passing touchdowns and a rushing touchdown in a single game, joining Trent Green (Nov. 22, 1998 vs. Arizona), Mark Rypien (Nov. 10, 1991 vs. Atlanta) and Norm Snead (Oct. 28, 1962 at the New York Giants).

Cousins finished the game with a passer rating of 153.7. It was his fourth consecutive game with a passer rating of 100.0 or better, the longest streak of his career, as he became the third Redskins quarterback since 1960 to post a streak of four or more games with a 100.0-plus passer rating (Robert Griffin III, five in 2012; Rypien, four in 1988).

The 300-yard passing game was Cousins' sixth of the season, breaking the Redskins' previous team record of five (Sonny Jurgensen in 1967, Jay Schroeder in 1986, Rypien in 1989). It was his 10th career 300-yard passing game, tied with Rypien for third-most in team history. With his 14th completion of the day – an eight-yard gain to running back Matt Jones – Cousins also broke the Redskins' franchise record for pass completions in a single season (327, Jason Campbell in 2009). Cousins finishes Week 15 with 336 completions this season.

Tight end Jordan Reed posted a team-high seven receptions, gaining 84 yards with two receiving touchdowns. He pushed his season receiving touchdown total to nine, tying Jerry Smith (nine in 1969 and 1970) and Pat Richter (nine in 1968) for second-most by a tight end in a single season in team history.

The multi-touchdown game was Reed's third of the season, as he became the first Redskins tight end to record at least three multi-touchdown games in a season since 1967 (four by Jerry Smith)

With the win, the Redskins snapped a six-game losing streak against the Bills, earning their first victory against Buffalo since Super Bowl XXVI.

GAME 15

Lincoln Financial Field (Philadelphia)

REDSKINS 38, EAGLES 24

PHILADELPHIA – The Washington Redskins clinched their 15th division title in team history with a 38-24 victory against the Philadelphia Eagles in front of an announced crowd of 69,596 people at Lincoln Financial Field in Week 16. The win completed the team's second "worst-to-first" one-season turnaround in team history (2012) after finishing last in the NFC East in 2014 with a 4-12 record.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins completed 31-of-46 passes for 365 yards with four touchdowns and zero interceptions for a passer rating of 120.3. The four-touchdown game was Cousins' third of the season, tying Pro Football Hall of Famer Sonny Jurgensen (three in 1964 and 1967) for the most in single season by a Redskins quarterback since 1960.

Tight end Jordan Reed caught a team-high nine passes for a season-high 129 yards with two receiving touchdowns. With the performance, Reed broke the Redskins' single-season receiving yardage record of 849, set previously three times (Chris Cooley in 2008 and 2010, Jerry Smith in 1967). It was Reed's second straight game with multiple touchdown receptions, becoming the third member of the Redskins to post two or more receiving touchdowns in back-to-back contests in a single season (Smith in 1967, Bobby Mitchell in 1962).

Cornerback DeAngelo Hall recorded a 17-yard fumble return for touchdown in the third quarter to establish a two-score lead the team would never relinquish. With the touchdown, Hall tied Jessie Tuggle for second-most fumble returns for touchdowns in NFL history (five) and became the first player in NFL history to record at least five interception return touchdowns and five fumble return touchdowns in a career. The touchdown was the first by the Redskins' defense in Philadelphia since Sean Taylor's 39-yard fumble return to seal a playoff berth at Lincoln Financial Field on Jan. 1, 2006.

The victory was the Redskins' 600th in team history, including postseason play. Washington became the fifth NFL franchise to reach the 600-win mark (Bears, Packers, Giants and Steelers).

GAME 16

AT&T Stadium (Arlington, Texas)

REDSKINS 34, COWBOYS 23

ARLINGTON, Texas – The Washington Redskins defeated the Dallas Cowboys, 34-23, in front of an announced crowd of 90,127 people at AT&T Stadium in Week 17. With a regular season record of 9-7, the victory gave the Redskins their 39th winning season in team history and marked the franchise's 24th nine-win season in team history.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins completed 12-of-15 passes for 176 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 155.1 prior to exiting the game in the second quarter. With the effort, Cousins (4,166) broke Jay Schroeder's team record for passing yards in a single season (4,109 in 1986). He broke the record on a 28-yard pass to wide receiver Jamison Crowder in the second quarter.

Cousins extended his streak of games with a touchdown pass to 16, passing Joe Theismann (15 in 1982-83) for sole possession of the second-longest streak in team history. He became the first player in team history to throw a touchdown in all 16 games in a season since the adoption of the 16-game schedule in 1978. Cousins' third touchdown pass of the game was his 29th of the season, tying him with Joe Theismann for second-most in a season in team history (29 in 1983). He became the first player in team history to throw three touchdowns in the first quarter of a game.

Tight end Jordan Reed caught four passes for 45 yards. He finished the 2015 season with 87 receptions for 952 yards (both team records for a tight end) with 11 receiving touchdowns. With his first catch, he broke a tie with Chris Cooley (83 in 2008) to set the team's single-season receptions record by a tight end. Reed led all Redskins players in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns this season, becoming the first Redskins tight end to lead the team in all three categories since Jean Fugett in 1977.

With the performance, the Redskins scored 34 or more points in three consecutive games for the first time since doing so in a four-game span in Weeks 5-8 of the 1983 season. The Redskins also recorded four or more sacks for a third consecutive game for the first time since Weeks 5-7 of the 1992 season.

NFC WILD CARD ROUND

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

PACKERS 35, REDSKINS 18

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins fell to the Green Bay Packers, 35-18, in the NFC Wild Card Round. The game was played in front of an announced crowd of 81,327 people at FedExField.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins made his second career postseason appearance but his first career postseason start. He completed 29-of-46 passes for 329 yards with one passing touchdown and one rushing touchdown. He became the first Redskins quarterback to throw for a touchdown and run for a touchdown in a single postseason game.

Cousins tied Todd Collins' franchise record for completions in a postseason game (29, NFC Wild Card Round at Seattle on Jan. 5, 2008). The 300-yard passing performance by Cousins was also the fifth by a quarterback in a postseason game in franchise history and the first since Mark Rypien in the NFC Divisional Round at San Francisco on Jan. 12, 1991.

Tight end Jordan Reed caught nine passes for 120 yards, including a 24-yard touchdown reception. Reed set a single-game franchise postseason record for receptions by a tight end, surpassing the mark of five set previously by three different players including most recently by Chris Cooley (NFC Wild Card Round vs. Seattle on Jan. 5, 2008).

Reed (120) also set a single-game franchise postseason record for receiving yards by a tight end, breaking the mark of 85, set twice including most recently by Cooley in the NFC Divisional Round at Seattle on Jan. 14, 2006. He became the first Redskins tight end to record a 100-yard receiving game in postseason play, and his 100-yard receiving game was the first by a member of the Redskins at any position in a postseason contest since wide receiver Santana Moss posted 103 receiving yards in the NFC Divisional Round at Seattle on Jan. 14, 2006.

Linebacker Preston Smith scored the game's first points, sacking Packers quarterback Aaron Rodgers for a safety in the first quarter. The safety was the Redskins' first in the postseason since recording a team safety in the NFC Divisional Round vs. the Chicago Bears on Dec. 30, 1984.

Bobby Mitchell [Class of 1983]

Art Monk [Class of 2008]

IMPORTANT DATES

The Start - July 9, 1932

George P. Marshall headed a group (Vincent Bendix, Jay O'Brien, Dorland Doyle) that bought an National Football League franchise in Boston. They contracted to play in Braves Field, home of the National League Baseball team, and were called "The Braves."

The Name

The Boston Gridders moved to Fenway Park, home of the American League Red Sox, and "The Braves" became "The Redskins."

The Franchise - Feb. 13, 1937

The Washington Redskins were officially born as the National Football League approved the transfer of the Boston Redskins franchise to Washington, D.C., and a new history began.

The Band - Aug. 9, 1937

The famed Redskins Band was founded and it was the first of its kind.

First Victory - Sept. 16, 1937

The First Game! The Franchise's Thursday night opener drew 19,941 fans to flood-lighted Griffith Stadium. Riley Smith scored on a 60-yard interception return, while the team added two field goals and an extra point to make the final score - Redskins 13, Giants 3.

First Title - Dec. 5, 1937

Ten thousand fans stomped up Broadway behind the brass band following the franchise's first title. In the game, Sammy Baugh completed 11-of-15 passes, while Cliff Battles had touchdown runs of 75 and 76 yards as the team routed the Giants, 49-14, for the Eastern Championship.

World Champs! - Dec. 12, 1937

Freezing weather, frozen field and the icy-nerved Bears couldn't stop Sammy Baugh (center below). He completed 17-of-33 passes for 335 yards and three touchdowns. Wayne Millner (right), the all-time Notre Dame great, finished with nine catches for 160 yards, including 77- and 55-yard touchdowns.

Westward Ho! - Aug. 2, 1939

The Redskins set forth on their first coast-to-coast football training trip. Training site: Eastern State Normal School in Cheney, Wash.

Zero Hour - Oct. 1, 1939

The Redskins and Giants battled in the mud and rain as the outcome wound up being a scoreless tie, the only scoreless tie in Redskins history.

Record Pass - Oct. 15, 1939

From the kick formation and standing deep in the end zone, Frank Filchock flipped a pass to Andy Farkas who went all the way for the touchdown. It was the longest pass play in National Football League history, 99 yards.

East Champs - Dec. 1, 1940

Miniature-sized Davey O'Brien of the Eagles completed 33 passes in 60 attempts, but the Redskins won 13-6 to clinch the Eastern Championship.

73-to-Ohhhh! - Dec. 8, 1940

Despite the Redskins gaining the same number of first downs as the Bears in the World Championship Game at Griffith Stadium, the team lost 73-0.

California - Aug. 18, 1941

The Redskins brought pro football on a large scale to California for the first time. They established training quarters in San Diego at Brown Military Academy.

Title Escapes - Nov. 23, 1941

There were 50 seconds to go in the Eastern Championship Game and the Redskins held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants managed to score a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13.

Only Loss - Sept. 27, 1942

The Giants are unable to convert a first down, gained only ONE yard rushing and completed just ONE pass — but it was good for a touchdown. They then captured another touchdown on an interception and the Redskins suffered their only 1942 defeat, 14-7.

World Champs! - Dec. 13, 1942

The Bears took an early lead on an errant pass from center, but Sammy Baugh's 85-yard quick kick set them back on their heels. Wilbur Moore then made a vital interception and followed with a sensational catch for a 38-yard touchdown. Andy Farkas capped the victory by carrying the ball 10 of 12 times on an 80-yard touchdown drive. Score: 14-6.

Runner Up - Dec. 26, 1943

Sam Baugh suffered a concussion early, tackling Sid Luckman on a punt return and the Bears went on to win the NFL title, 41-21.

To a T - July 30, 1945

Redskins abandoned their double-wing formation and adopted the T-formation.

East Champs - Dec. 9, 1945

The Redskins had two straight shutouts, the first coming against the Steelers, 24-0, on Dec. 2 and the team defeated the Giants, 17-0, en route to an Eastern title.

One Point Shy - Dec. 16, 1945

In subzero weather, the Redskins lost the world title to Rams, 15-14, on freakish plays. Baugh's pass from the end zone hit the goal-post for a safety (no longer allowed); and Bob Waterfield's try-for-point hit the crossbar and bounced over.

Charity Game - Sept. 6, 1946

The inaugural Redskins-Rams game for benefit for the Los Angeles Times Charities, Inc. drew 68,188 to Memorial Coliseum and netted the Times Boys Club $96,711.23.

High Note - June 13, 1947

The Redskins Band performed at the Philadelphia Inquirer's Famed Festival of Music alongside Whiteman, Waring and the Philharmonic.

IMPORTANT DATES

Baugh-to-Bach - Oct. 10, 1954

Dr. Howard Mitchell led his National Symphony Orchestra at mid-field in a halftime show.

TD Torrent - Oct. 1, 1955

Twenty-one points in 137 seconds! The Eagles led 16-0 in the 3rd quarter when Brito recovered a fumble on the Eagles' 32 and LeBaron then passed to Janowicz for the touchdown. Torgeson recovered a fumble on Eagles 13 and Janowicz went on to score. The Redskins won, 31-30.

The Alumni - Oct. 15, 1958

The Redskins Alumni Association was established. Twenty-three former players residing here adopted a formal constitution and bylaws. They invited all non-resident ex-Redskins to join.

New Home - Dec. 12, 1958

Redskins signed a 30-year lease to play in a proposed D.C. Stadium that Congress gave the go-ahead to build.

Home Debut - Oct. 1, 1961

The first game in the new D.C. Stadium drew 37,767. The Redskins failed to hold a 21-7 lead and the Giants won, 24-21.

Redskins Trade for Mitchell - Dec. 14, 1961

The Redskins finalize an agreement to send their 1962 first overall draft pick, Heisman trophy winning back Ernie Davis, to the Cleveland Browns in exchange for future Pro Football Hall of Famer Bobby Mitchell.

Four of a Kind - Dec. 17, 1961

Dick James scored four touchdowns to set the Redskins single game scoring record in a 34-24 win over Dallas.

Sonny and Sam - 1964

The Redskins stunned the public by trading QB Norm Snead to the Eagles for veteran QB Sonny Jurgensen. The team then repeated the performance by shipping favorite Dick James to New York for Sam Huff.

A Sunny Day - Oct. 11, 1964

Sonny Jurgensen out-duelled Norm Snead by throwing four touchdowns against the Eagles in the first meeting of the traded quarterbacks.

Record Rally - Nov. 28, 1965

Sonny Jurgensen sparked the then-largest comeback win in team history. Down 21-0, the Redskins recorded a 34-31 victory over the Cowboys as Sonny passed for over 400 yards and three touchdowns.

Graham Era - Jan. 25, 1966

The Redskins hired former Cleveland star, Otto Graham, as their Head Coach and General Manager.

TD Jamboree - Nov. 27, 1966

The Redskins and Giants scored the most points in NFL history as they tied or set many team and league records in Washington's rout of New York, 72-41.

Record Breakers - 1967

Sonny Jurgensen set new Redskins and NFL passing records for most attempts, completions, and yards in a season. Receivers Charley Taylor, Jerry Smith and Bobby Mitchell finished first, second and fourth in the League; it was the highest ever by receivers on the same team.

Lombardi Hired - Feb. 7, 1969

George Preston - Aug. 9, 1969

George Preston Marshall, founder of the Washington Redskins, died at his home at the age of 72.

A Winning Season - Dec. 14, 1969

The Redskins defeated New Orleans by a score of 17-14 to ensure their first winning season since 1955. The victory also continued Coach Lombardi's record of never having coached a losing NFL team.

Lombardi Dies - Sept. 3, 1970

The sports world grieves the death of Vincent T. Lombardi, Head Coach and Executive Vice President of the Redskins.

1,000-Yard Club - Dec. 13, 1970

Larry Brown, on the second offensive play of the game against the Eagles and needing four yards to break the 1,000-yard barrier, gained 12 yards to become the first Redskin in history to become a member of the 1,000-yard club.

NFL Rushing Champ - Dec. 20, 1970

Larry Brown ended the season as the top rusher in the NFL with a total of 1,125 yards on 237 attempts for a 4.7 avg. He was the first Redskin since Cliff Battles in 1937 to win the rushing title.

Allen Hired - Jan. 6, 1971

George Allen, winningest coach in the NFC, was named the Redskins' Head Coach and General Manager.

A New Home - June 2, 1971

Groundbreaking ceremonies were held for the Redskins new home, Redskins Park, near Dulles Airport.

Future is Now - 1971

Allen guided the Redskins to the most wins, nine, in 29 years with a 9-4-1 record. It was the first time in 29 years that the Redskins earned a championship playoff game.

Coach of the Year - 1971

George Allen was voted NFL and NFC "Coach of the Year."

IMPORTANT DATES

NFC Champions - 1972

The Redskins won their first title in 30 years with a convincing 26-3 win over the defending World Champion Dallas Cowboys in RFK Stadium, following a 16-3 playoff victory over Green Bay. The Redskins lost 14-7 to Miami in Super Bowl VII in the L.A. Coliseum.

Player of Year - 1972

Larry Brown, honored by all selections as NFL "Player of Year," won NFC rushing title by setting a new Redskins rushing record with his 1,216 yards.

NFC Coach of the Year - 1972

For a second year in a row, George Allen awarded "Coach of Year" honors.

4th Straight Playoffs - 1974

For the fourth consecutive year, George Allen's "Over the Hill Gang" reached the playoffs.

Jurgensen Retires - May 1, 1975

Quarterback Sonny Jurgensen retired after playing for 18 seasons in the NFL, 11 in a Redskins uniform.

All-Time Receiver - Dec. 21, 1975

Redskins wide receiver Charley Taylor became the all-time receptions leader in NFL history with his 634th career catch coming against the Eagles in the season's finale.

Milton King Dies - Jan. 23, 1976

Milton King, vice president and treasurer of the Redskins, died at the age of 85.

Return to Playoffs - 1976

By winning the final four games, including wins at Dallas and at St. Louis, the Redskins made the playoffs for the fifth time in six years under Allen.

Pardee Hired - Jan. 24, 1978

Jack Pardee, former Redskin player and coach, was named the 19th head coach in Redskins history.

Presidential Visit - Oct. 2, 1978

President Jimmy Carter became the second President ever to attend a regular season NFL game when he and Mrs. Carter, along with son Chip and wife Caron, saw the Monday night Cowboys-Redskins clash.

Off to the Races - 1978

By winning the first six games, including wins over rivals Dallas and St. Louis and playoff bound New England, the Redskins enjoyed their best start in over 35 years.

Good News, Bad News - 1979

The 10-6 record was the ninth consecutive year that the Redskins finished .500 or better. Both the division title and wild card playoff game were lost in the final seconds of the game in Dallas, 35-34.

100 Straight - 1980

The Redskins extended the NFL's longest consecutive streak of sellouts to 100, dating back to 1966.

Gibbs Hired - Jan. 13, 1981

Joe Gibbs, offensive coordinator of the San Diego Chargers, became the 20th head coach in Redskins history.

Finishing Kick - 1981

Victorious in 8 of their final 11 games, Coach Gibbs and his Redskins set or tied 13 club records.

Huff Inducted - Aug. 7, 1982

Former Redskin and Giant Sam Huff was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

A New Beginning - Sept. 12, 1982

With the 0-5 start of a year ago, the 0-4 preseason fresh on everyone's mind, Mark Moseley lifted the burden with a 26-yard overtime field goal to give the Redskins a victory over Philadelphia. Moseley had only minutes earlier sent the game into overtime with a 48-yard field goal.

Hogs Take Their Bows - Jan. 15, 1982

The celebrated Hogs created enough holes in the Viking defense for John Riggins to plow for a Redskins playoff record 185 yards, leading Washington to a 21-7 win and a spot in the NFC Championship. Before leaving the game, Riggins gallantly bowed to the 54,000-plus Redskins faithful who roared in approval.

Strike! - Sept. 21, 1982

The NFL players walked out in a strike that would last until Nov. 17. In all, eight games were missed, seven cancelled.

Holy Moseley! - Dec. 19, 1982

With time running out, the game on the line, with an NFL record at stake, Mark Moseley beat the Giants by booting his 21st straight field goal in a snowy RFK Stadium. The kick broke Garo Yepremian's record of 20 consecutive field goals made and gave the Redskins a 15-14 win. Also, in the game, John Riggins became only the fifth back in NFL history to exceed 2,000 carries (Payton, Simpson, Brown, and Harris are the others).

A Whitewash - Jan. 2, 1983

For the first time since 1980, the Redskins post a shutout by beating the Cardinals 28-0. Their 8-1 record was the best in the NFC, giving them home-field advantage throughout the playoffs. The 128 points given up by the Redskins defense is the fewest in the NFL.

Sweet Revenge - Jan. 22, 1983

The Redskins avenged their only loss of the season, setting back the Cowboys, 31-17, to reach their second Super Bowl, and first in 10 years.

Super Bowl Win! - Jan. 30, 1983

The Redskins won Super Bowl XVII downing the Dolphins 27-17. Their win streak reached eight, and 15 of 16 and 20 of 24 over two seasons. Jack Kent Cooke accepted the Super Bowl Trophy from Pete Rozelle in the locker room as MVP Riggins boasts, "Ron may be President, but for tonight, I'm King." The Redskins' 12-1 record was the fifth best NFL mark in the last 50 years, and their best ever.

Hails from the Chief - Jan. 31, 1983

President Reagan and Mrs. Reagan were at Dulles Airport to greet the World Champion Redskins as they arrived back from California.

Parade of Stars - Feb. 3, 1983

The entire city of Washington celebrated as the Redskins paraded before some 500,000 fans in a downtown ceremony amidst pouring rain. Coach Gibbs holds up the Super Bowl Trophy and proclaimed, "This is for you."

High Honors - 1983

Joe Gibbs was named Coach of the Year. Mark Moseley was the first special teams player in history named NFL MVP by Associated Press, Joe Theismann was Miller Man of the Year, and five Redskins (the most since 1972) were named to the Pro Bowl: Moseley, Theismann, Tony Peters, Charlie Brown and Mike Nelms. Later, Bobby Beathard was named Executive of the Year. And Riggins, who had four straight 100-yard rushing playoff games, the first ever to do so, won a car as Super Bowl MVP.

IMPORTANT DATES

Jurgy to Mitch - July 30, 1983

Former Redskin greats quarterback Sonny Jurgensen and receiver Bobby Mitchell were inducted into Pro Football's Hall of Fame.

Monday Night Fever - Oct. 1, 1983

The Redskins lost 48-47, in the highest scoring game in night football history. The Redskins and the Packers combined for over 1,000 yards of total offense.

The Diesel Keeps Trucking On - Nov. 20, 1983

John Riggins set an NFL record as his consecutive games with rushing touchdowns reached 12 while notching his 19th touchdown of the year to tie that NFL mark. John's streak ended at 13 consecutive games while he went on to establish an NFL record 24 touchdowns.

Doomsday Showdown - Dec. 11, 1983

Dressed in army fatigues, the Redskins marched into Dallas to do battle. The result was a convincing 31-10 victory in Dallas to gain sole possession of first place in the NFC East. It was a game that saw Tony Dorsett held to 34 yards on 14 carries (one yard on five carries in the second half) and scores from four different Redskins.

Alone on a Hill - Dec. 17, 1983

For the second year in a row, the Redskins finished with the best record in the NFL. Their 31-22 victory over the Giants capped a remarkable 14-2 regular season. It was the first time in the history of the League that an NFC team compiled so many victories.

One-Two Punch - 1983

Mark Moseley's NFL kick scoring record of 161 points, and Riggins' total of 144 points, topped the entire NFL. It was the first time since 1951 that the number one and two scorers played on the same team. Their total of 305 points surpassed the totals of eight other clubs.

Ring Out the Rams - Jan. 1, 1984

The Redskins rang in the New Year by drubbing the L.A. Rams 51-7 in the most lopsided playoff game in 26 years. The team set or tied 13 club playoff marks with the 44-point margin of victory, the greatest in the 47-year history of the Redskins.

Three of a Kind - 1985

The 10 victories marked a third consecutive season the Redskins won 10 or more games, equaling a club-best streak set from 1972-74. The 35 wins in those three seasons were a club record for wins over a three-year period. Threes were also meaningful for offensive linemen Joe Jacoby and Russ Grimm, who each earned a third consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. Receiver Art Monk (91 catches) went for a second straight time.

Happy Birthday - Feb. 13, 1986

The Washington Redskins entered their 50th season in the Nation's Capital, celebrating the franchise's move from Boston to Washington.

Rally Ho - 1986

Headed by Coach Ray Flaherty of the 1937 World Champions, former players and coaches gathered to kickoff the 1986 season.

Little Mr. Big - Oct. 27, 1986

WR Gary Clark accounted for 241 receiving yards (on 11 catches) to break teammate Art Monk's club record on Monday Night TV.

Showdown - Nov. 23, 1986

Eager to avenge their first loss of 1986, the Redskins came out smokin' against Dallas. The 34-0 first half lead marked the most points the Cowboys had ever allowed in a single half of play. The Redskins 41-14 win was their most points ever against the Cowboys.

Gibbs Gets #70 - Jan. 3, 1987

Head Coach Joe Gibbs became the winningest coach in Redskin history, gaining his 70th win as the team defeated the Bears 27-13 in a divisional playoff.

A Giant Step - Jan. 11, 1987

With 15 new faces on the roster, the Washington Redskins played in their third NFC Championship game in five years.

Pro Bowlers, Again - Feb. 1, 1987

Hogs Russ Grimm and Joe Jacoby returned to the Islands of Hawaii for the fourth consecutive season. Joined by Art Monk, Darrell Green, Gary Clark, Dexter Manley, and Jay Schroeder, the Redskins equaled a club record seven participants in the annual classic.

NFLPA Strike - 1987

NFL players walked out following the second week of the regular season.

Perfect - Oct. 19, 1987

Redskins "replacement" players closed out their season with a perfect 3-0 mark. The team held on to defeat Dallas, 13-7, in Texas Stadium.

Relief Pitcher - Dec. 26, 1987

Quarterback Doug Williams connected on 11-of-22 for 217 yards and two touchdowns in Minnesota. The 27-24 overtime victory is highlighted by a Ricky Sanders 51-yard catch-and-run to force sudden death. Haji-Sheikh kicks the game winner.

The Bear Facts - Jan. 10, 1988

For the second consecutive season, the 'Skins traveled to Chicago for a divisional playoff game. After trailing 14-0 in the second quarter, the team rallied to win 21-17. Darrell Green provided the game-winning points on an electrifying 52-yard punt return, as the Redskins advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the fourth time in six seasons.

NFC Champs! - Jan. 17, 1988

The Redskins are 17-10 victors over the Minnesota Vikings as Doug Williams connected with Gary Clark to break a 10-10 fourth quarter deadlock. Washington became the first team to advance to the Super Bowl three times in the 1980s.

World Champs! - Jan. 31, 1988

Twenty Super Bowl records were broken en route to a 42-10 decision over the Denver Broncos. Quarterback Doug Williams (below) is named the game's MVP as he connected on 18-of-29 for a record 340 yards. His four touchdown passes tie another record as the team scores five times in five possessions in the second quarter alone.

100 Wins - Dec. 10, 1989

Joe Gibbs registered his 100th career win as head coach of the Redskins as the team defeated San Diego, 26-21. Only six other coaches reached 100 wins faster than Gibbs.

IMPORTANT DATES

Monk Moves Up - Dec. 10, 1989

Art Monk moved into third place on the all-time NFL receiving list, ahead of friend and receivers coach Charley Taylor, in Washington's 26-21 win vs. San Diego.

A Lion of a Comeback - Nov. 4, 1990

The Redskins equaled the greatest comeback in club history with a 41-38 overtime win at Detroit. Down by 21 points in the third quarter and 17 points entering the fourth, Jeff Rutledge rallied the Skins by passing for 363 second-half yards (30-42). The game winning points came on a Chip Lohmiller 34-yard field goal in overtime.

700 Catches - Nov. 18, 1990

Art Monk became only the third player in NFL history to catch 700 passes when he hauled in four receptions against the Saints in RFK.

Ring in the New Year - Jan. 5, 1991

The Redskins pushed their playoff record to 12-3 under Joe Gibbs with a solid team effort 20-6 win over the Eagles at Veterans Stadium.

Perfect Start - 1991

One of the Best - 1991

The Redskins became only the sixth team in NFL history to record 17-or-more wins in a single season by posting a 17-2 overall mark (best in team history).

Hog Protection - 1991

In 16 games, the "Hogs" allowed a league-low and club-record nine sacks. It was the third lowest total in NFL history.

A Class Act - Dec. 22, 1991

Art Monk becomes only the second player in NFL history to catch 800 passes when he caught five passes in the season finale at Philadelphia.

NFC Champs - Jan. 12, 1992

For the fourth time under Joe Gibbs, and the fifth time in franchise history, the Redskins returned to the Super Bowl with a 41-10 win over Detroit in the NFC title game.

World Champs! - Jan. 26, 1992

The Redskins claimed their third Super Bowl win under Gibbs. The Skins knocked out Buffalo 37-24 and Mark Rypien was named Super Bowl MVP after completing 18 passes and throwing two touchdowns. Gary Clark and Art Monk both caught seven passes, with Clark gaining 114 yards and one TD, and Monk adding 113 yards. Brad Edwards had two interceptions and the defense sacked Bills QB Jim Kelly five times.

Pro Bowl Record - Feb. 2, 1992

The Redskins set a club record with eight players earning a selection to the Pro Bowl. Jim Lachey and Darrell Green were named starters, while Gary Clark, Chip Lohmiller, Charles Mann, Earnest Byner and Mark Schlereth also were named to the NFC squad.

New Redskin Park Opens - Aug. 24, 1992

The Redskins moved into their new training complex set on a picturesque 160 acres in Loudoun County, Va. The building is more than 70,000 square feet to complement four practice fields.

Monk is #1 - Oct. 12, 1992

Art Monk became the NFL's all-time leading pass receiver against Denver on Monday Night in Week 5. His 820th career catch was a 10-yarder with 3:12 remaining in the 4th quarter.

Joe Gibbs Resigns - March 5, 1993

After 12 seasons guiding the Redskins to four Super Bowls, three titles, a 16-5 playoff mark and a 140-65 career record, Joe Gibbs stepped down as head coach. Richie Petitbon is hired as the 21st coach in club history.

Turner Hired - Feb. 2, 1994

OVERTIME GAMES

In 1974, the NFL established overtime to decide regular season games. Since then, the Redskins have compiled a 25-15-1 record in overtime games.

Nov. 2, 1975 - RFK Stadium

Washington 30, Dallas 24

Ken Houston returned a Roger Staubach interception 14 yards, and Billy Kilmer scored the winning touchdown after 6:34 of overtime action.

Nov. 16, 1975 - Busch Stadium

St. Louis 20, Washington 17

The Cards scored with 20 seconds remaining on a catch by Mel Gray to force overtime. St. Louis won the coin toss and marched to set up a 37-yard Jim Bakken field goal to win after seven minutes of play.

Nov. 23, 1975 - RFK Stadium

Oakland 26, Washington 23

George Blanda's 27-yard field goal decided the contest after 7:13.

Sept. 27, 1976 - Veterans Stadium

Washington 20, Philadelphia 17

Mark Moseley's 29-yard field goal won the Monday night game with 12:49 elapsed in overtime.

Nov. 12, 1978 - RFK Stadium

Washington 16, New York Giants 13

Washington won on Moseley's 45-yard field goal after 3:32 elapsed.

Nov. 15, 1981 - Giants Stadium

Washington 30, New York Giants 27

Moseley kicked a 49-yard field goal on the game's final play to force overtime and a 48-yard field goal to win with 3:44 elapsed.

Sept. 12, 1982 - Veterans Stadium

Washington 37, Philadelphia 34

The Redskins sent the game into overtime on a 48-yard field goal by Moseley with :01 to play. Moseley won the game with a 26-yarder.

Nov. 2, 1986 - RFK Stadium

Washington 44, Minnesota 38

Jay Schroeder engineered a four-play, 63-yard drive ending with a Gary Clark 38-yard touchdown pass.

Dec. 26, 1987 - Metrodome

Washington 27, Minnesota 24

Ricky Sanders' 51-yard touchdown reception from Doug Williams with less than two minutes remaining tied the score at 24. Ali Haji-Sheikh kicked the 26-yard game-winning field goal after Sanders' 36-yard kickoff return in overtime.

Dec. 17, 1988 - Riverfront Stadium

Cincinnati 20, Washington 17

Jim Breech connected from 20 yards out seven minutes into sudden death.

Nov. 4, 1990 - Pontiac Silverdome

Washington 41, Detroit 38

Chip Lohmiller's 34-yard field goal 9:10 into overtime capped the Redskins comeback that equalled the team's greatest in history. Down by 21 points in the third quarter and 17 points entering the fourth, Jeff Rutledge's 12-yard run tied the game with :18 seconds remaining.

Nov. 3, 1991 - RFK Stadium

Washington 16, Houston 13

Darrell Green intercepted a Warren Moon pass which set-up Lohmiller's 41-yard field goal 5:01 into overtime moving the Redskins to a 9-0 record. The Oilers tied the game with less than two minutes in regulation and had a chance to win after Brian Mitchell fumbled the kickoff, but Ian Howfield's 33-yard attempt sailed wide left.

Oct. 16, 1994 - RFK Stadium

Arizona 19, Washington 16

Arizona scored the tying touchdown with :19 left in regulation. Arizona's game-winner was set up by Terry Hoage, who intercepted a Heath Shuler pass and returned it 12 yards to the 23. Peterson kicked the game-winning 29-yard field goal.

Oct. 8, 1995 - Veterans Stadium

Philadelphia 37, Washington 34

Down 10 points in the 4th quarter, Gus Frerotte guided the Redskins back with a touchdown pass to Henry Ellard and Eddie Murray's 46-yard field goal tied it up with :52 left. In OT, Washington stalled on its opening drive and the Eagles' Gary Anderson won the game with a 35-yard field goal.

Oct. 22, 1995 - RFK Stadium

Washington 36, Detroit 30

Trailing 30-27, Eddie Murray's 39-yard field goal tied it with :04 to play. Darrell Green's seven-yard interception return of a Scott Mitchell pass for a touchdown 3:41 into overtime ended the game.

Nov. 10, 1996 - RFK Stadium

Arizona 37, Washington 34

In one of the most bizarre games in Redskins history, the Skins led by 14 points in the fourth quarter only to squander the lead. The Cardinals won the coin toss and drove to the Redskins 15, only to have Kevin Butler miss. The Skins' Scott Blanton booted the apparent 38-yard game-winner, but a holding penalty forced a retry from 48 that went wide left. Arizona then missed a 29-yarder that was negated because the Redskins were offside. Butler's third attempt was good from 32 yards.

Nov. 24, 1996 - RFK Stadium

San Francisco 49, Washington 16

San Francisco's William Floyd's 1-yard touchdown run tied the game in regulation. After winning the coin toss in overtime, the 49ers' Jeff Wilkins hit a 38-yard field goal to win.

Sept. 14, 1997 - Jack Kent Cooke Stadium

Washington 19, Arizona 13

In the inaugural game at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, the Redskins won with 13:24 left in overtime when Gus Frerotte, sidestepping a heavy rush, threw a 40-yard strike to a leaping Michael Westbrook in the end zone. The winning points were set up two plays earlier when rookie defensive end Ke-nard Lang forced and recovered a fumble on the Redskins 35-yard line.

Nov. 23, 1997 - Jack Kent Cooke Stadium

Washington 7, NY Giants 7

In overtime, the Redskins turned the ball over three times, but the defense forced two punts and the Giants missed a 54-yard field goal. With under two minutes remaining, the Redskins drove to the Giants 36-yard line, but a 54-yard field goal attempt fell short with 11 seconds left in overtime.

OVERTIME GAMES

Sept. 12, 1999 - FedExField

Dallas 41, Washington 35

Dallas stopped the Skins' first overtime drive and then scored on a 76-yard bomb from Troy Aikman to Rocket Ismail.

Nov. 28, 1999 - FedExField

Washington 20, Philadelphia 17

Brett Conway's game-winning 27-yard FG was set up by a 48-yard kickoff return by James Thrash, which opened the overtime period. The Eagles never had the ball.

Dec. 26, 1999 - 3Com Park

Washington 26, San Francisco 20

The Redskins overcame a 10-point fourth quarter deficit to win their ninth game of the year and clinch the NFC East. Brad Johnson's QB sneak from the 1-yard line with 3:28 left in regulation sent the game into the extra period. On the opening drive, Johnson connected with Larry Centers for a 33-yard TD.

Oct. 1, 2000 - FedExField

Washington 20, Tampa Bay 17

Tampa Bay forced the overtime when Martin Gramatica connected on a 42-yard field goal as the regulation clock fell to 0:00. 10:51 into the extra period, Deion Sanders ignited the crowd with a 57-yard punt return, setting up the game winning 20-yard field goal by Michael Husted.

Oct. 21, 2001 - FedExField

Washington 17, Carolina 14

Placekicker Brett Conway kicked a 23-yard field goal in overtime to seal the Redskins' first victory of the season and the first under Marty Schottenheimer, 17-14. The Redskins forced overtime by overcoming a 14-point deficit in the fourth quarter thanks to a 67-yard interception return for touchdown by LaVar Arrington and an 85-yard touchdown pass from Tony Banks to Rod Gardner.

Sept. 21, 2003 - FedExField

New York Giants 24, Washington 21

With less than five minutes left in regulation, Washington overcame a 21-10 deficit to send the game into overtime. The Giants won the toss and drove downfield from their own 6-yard line. Kicker Matt Bryant connected on a 29-yard field goal to cap off New York's first scoring drive since the second quarter and seal the 24-21 victory.

Oct. 2, 2005 - FedExField

Washington 20, Seattle 17

With a chance to win the game at the end of regulation with 0:01 left on the clock, Seattle kicker Josh Brown missed a 47-yard field goal, sending the game into overtime. After winning the coin toss, the Redskins went on a 5:31 drive that culminated with a Nick Novak 39-yard field goal to seal Washington's victory over the Seahawks.

Nov. 27, 2005 - FedExField

San Diego 23, Washington 17

San Diego running back LaDainian Tomlinson scored a 32-yard touchdown run with 3:37 remaining to tie the game at 17 apiece. With 0:35 remaining, the Redskins had an opportunity to take the lead with a 53-yard field goal but the ball sailed wide right. In overtime, San Diego ran two plays that culminated in a 41-yard touchdown run, again by Tomlinson to seal the victory.

Oct. 1, 2006 - FedExField

Washington 36, Jacksonville 30

Jacksonville sent the game into overtime with :06 on the clock when kicker Josh Scobee connected on a 41-yard field goal. Washington won the coin toss and proceeded to take the ball 80 yards on three plays for the game-winning score. Quarterback Mark Brunell connected with wide receiver Santana Moss for a 68-yard touchdown pass to seal the win.

Dec. 24, 2006 - Edward Jones Dome

St. Louis 37, Washington 31

Washington kicker Shaun Suisham nailed a field goal with 1:15 remaining in regulation to tie the score at 31 and send it into overtime. St. Louis came back in overtime and, six minutes into the extra time, running back Steven Jackson took a handoff 21 yards for the game winning touchdown.

Sept. 9, 2007 - FedExField

Washington 16, Miami 13

In overtime, the Redskins won the coin toss and elected to receive. Running backs Clinton Portis and Ladell Betts combined for 46 rushing yards and quarterback Jason Campbell completed a key third-down pass to tight end Chris Cooley, keeping the drive alive. As soon as the Redskins got into field goal range, kicker Shaun Suisham nailed the 39-yard field goal to seal the victory.

Nov. 4, 2007 - Meadowlands

Washington 23, New York Jets 20

Jets kicker Mike Nugent connected on a 30-yard field goal with 0:15 left in regulation to tie the game at 20-20 and send the game into overtime. Washington running back Clinton Portis bulldozed his way down the field in overtime, setting up the game-winning 46-yard field goal by kicker Shaun Suisham.

Dec. 6, 2009 - FedExField

New Orleans 33, Washington 30

Saints quarterback Drew Brees drove 80 yards at the end of regulation to tie the game at 30-30. In overtime, the Saints marched down the field setting up an 18-yard field goal by kicker Garrett Hartley to seal the victory.

Sept. 19, 2010 - FedExField

Houston 30, Washington 27

After holding the Texans on the first possession of overtime, the Redskins drove to the Houston 34-yard line, but kicker Graham Gano pushed a 52-yard attempt wide right. On the ensuing drive, Neil Rackers connected on a 35-yard field goal to give Houston the win.

OVERTIME GAMES

Oct. 10, 2010 – FedExField Washington 16, Green Bay 13

LaRon Landry intercepted an Aaron Rodgers pass on Green Bay's second overtime possession and the Redskins drove 24 yards to set up a game-winning 33-yard field goal by kicker Graham Gano in the team's Week 5 win against the eventual Super Bowl champions.

Nov. 21, 2010 – LP Field Washington 19, Tennessee 16

After missing a potential game-winning field goal at the end of regulation, Graham Gano redeemed himself in overtime, capping off a 10-play, 57-yard drive with a 48-yarder on the Redskins' first overtime possession to secure a 19-16 road win.

Dec. 26, 2010 – EverBank Field Washington 20, Jacksonville 17

A 20-yard touchdown run by Jacksonville quarterback David Garrard in the final three minutes of regulation helped the Jaguars force overtime. Jacksonville won the toss and elected to receive, but on their third offensive play of overtime, cornerback Kevin Barnes intercepted Garrard, setting up Graham Gano for a 31-yard game-winning field goal.

Nov. 20, 2011 – FedExField Dallas 27, Washington 24

Redskins quarterback Rex Grossman lofted a perfect fade to receiver Donté Stallworth in the corner of the end zone with 14 seconds remaining in regulation to force overtime. The Redskins missed a 52-yard field goal attempt on the first possession of overtime, and Dallas responded as kicker Dan Bailey hit a 39-yard field goal above the right upright for a Dallas victory.

Dec. 9, 2012 – FedExField Washington 31, Baltimore 28

Baltimore took an eight-point lead with less than five minutes to play, but Washington quarterbacks Robert Griffin III and Kirk Cousins led a 13-play, 88-yard drive to tie the game at 28-28. Cousins, in place of an injured Griffin III, threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Pierre Garçon and followed it with a two-point conversion on a quarterback draw. In overtime, Washington forced the eventual Super Bowl champion Ravens to go three-and-out, and after a 64-yard punt return by rookie Richard Crawford, kicker Kai Forbath hit a 34-yard game-winning field goal.

Nov. 3, 2013 – FedExField Washington 30, San Diego 24

Leading 24-21 on Homecoming Weekend, the Redskins' defense faced first-and-goal from its own 1-yard line with 21 seconds remaining. After stopping Danny Woodhead on first down, the Redskins forced two Philip Rivers incompletions and forced the Chargers to settle for a game-tying 19-yard field goal by Nick Novak. Washington took the ball on the first possession of overtime and promptly drove 78 yards in 10 plays, winning the game on fullback Darrel Young's team-record-tying third rushing touchdown of the day.

Oct. 27, 2014 – AT&T Stadium Washington 20, Dallas 17

Led by quarterback Colt McCoy (below) in his first start with the team, the Redskins earned their first overtime win against the rival Cowboys since Nov. 2, 1975. On Monday Night Football, McCoy completed 25-of-30 passes for 299 yards, including engineering a nine-play, 58-yard drive culminating in a 40-yard Kai Forbath field goal on overtime's first possession. Rookie cornerback Bashaud Breeland batted away a fourth down pass on the ensuing Cowboys possession, giving the Redskins a 20-17 win.

Oct. 11, 2015 – Georgia Dome Atlanta 25, Washington 19

The Redskins trailed by three with 24 seconds remaining in regulation. Quarterback Kirk Cousins led the Redskins 46 yards in four plays, and kicker Dustin Hopkins hit a then-career-long 52-yard field goal with no time remaining to force overtime with the teams tied at 19-19. The Redskins received the ball to start overtime, but on the seventh play of the drive, wide receiver Ryan Grant slipped in his route, allowing Falcons cornerback Robert Alford to intercept a Cousins pass and race 59 yards down the right sideline for the game-winning touchdown.

OVERTIME RECORDS

Washington's .622 all-time winning percentage in overtime games (including postseason play) ranks atop all NFL teams entering 2016.

FACILITIES

Located in Landover, Md., FedExField serves as home to the Washington Redskins and as the area's premier sports and entertainment destination. Beyond the annual excitement of National Football League competition, the venue has played host to marquee soccer and college football events as well as internationally-recognized recording artists.

Over the last several years, Owner Dan Snyder and the entire Redskins organization have spearheaded efforts to enhance the guest experience. Among the improvements implemented with success in 2015 were an increase in the number of stadium gates and new parking plans to reduce congestion and welcome fans in and out more efficiently. The Redskins also upgraded Wi-Fi throughout the stadium, creating better access to enhanced game day features on the Redskins Mobile App and complimentary access to the Red Zone Channel via NFL Mobile for season ticket members.

The stadium, with a capacity of 82,000, sits on a 200-acre site and boasts the NFL's premier tailgating experience. Prior to each game, diehard Redskins fans arrive in style in decorated vans, buses, trucks and more. In recent years, President Bruce Allen, Super Bowl XXII MVP Doug Williams and others have visited the congregations of Redskins fans to share in the tradition of the league's top pregame tailgates.

Privately financed, FedExField was completed in a record 17 months and hosted the Redskins home opener on Sept. 14, 1997 – a 19-13 overtime win against the Arizona Cardinals. FedExField increased the Redskins' attendance capacity by more than 40 percent when the team left RFK Stadium after 1996. Nevertheless, the Redskins have sold out every home game for the past 48 seasons. All 190 [preseason, regular and postseason] contests at FedExField through the 2015 season have been sellouts.

Construction on FedExField began in March 1996 and cost $250 million. The following year, $30 million was spent to create a 170,000 square-foot atrium encircling the entire stadium, making the Joe Gibbs Club Level the most spectacular in the league.

When Snyder bought the Redskins in July 1999, one of his first tasks was to make improvements to FedExField. Immediately, millions were invested in such projects as replacing metal rails with glass rails in order to provide unobstructed sight lines in the stadium bowl. Since his inaugural season, Snyder has spent more than $100 million to enhance FedExField and ensure a best-in-class experience for fans.

Snyder also created unique Executive Suites, the NFL's largest video wall and added more than 1,000 cash parking spaces. The Redskins installation of new 100-foot long end zone HD Videoboards and eight new digital ribbon boards provide fans with out-of-town scores and statistics, and the implementation of a text message traffic alert system gives fans updates on the best gameday routes.

Snyder was also instrumental in the multimillion dollar renovation and replacement of the video control room and the movement of the late Sean Taylor's locker for viewing on the stadium's Club Level.

Prior to the 2011 season, the Redskins, along with NRG Energy, one of the largest energy companies in the United States, brought the largest solar installation of renewable energy in the region to FedExField – 8,000 solar panels, 10 electric vehicle charging stations and a 30-foot tall solar sculpture. Prince George's County Chamber of Commerce honored the Redskins' innovation in solar installation by recognizing them as the 2011 Green Business of the Year.

FedExField, while being the official home of the Redskins, is also host to a variety of special events including premier college football games, world-class performers, like award winning country music artist Kenny Chesney; international matches, such as the soccer friendly between U.S. Men's National Team and Brazil; and much more.

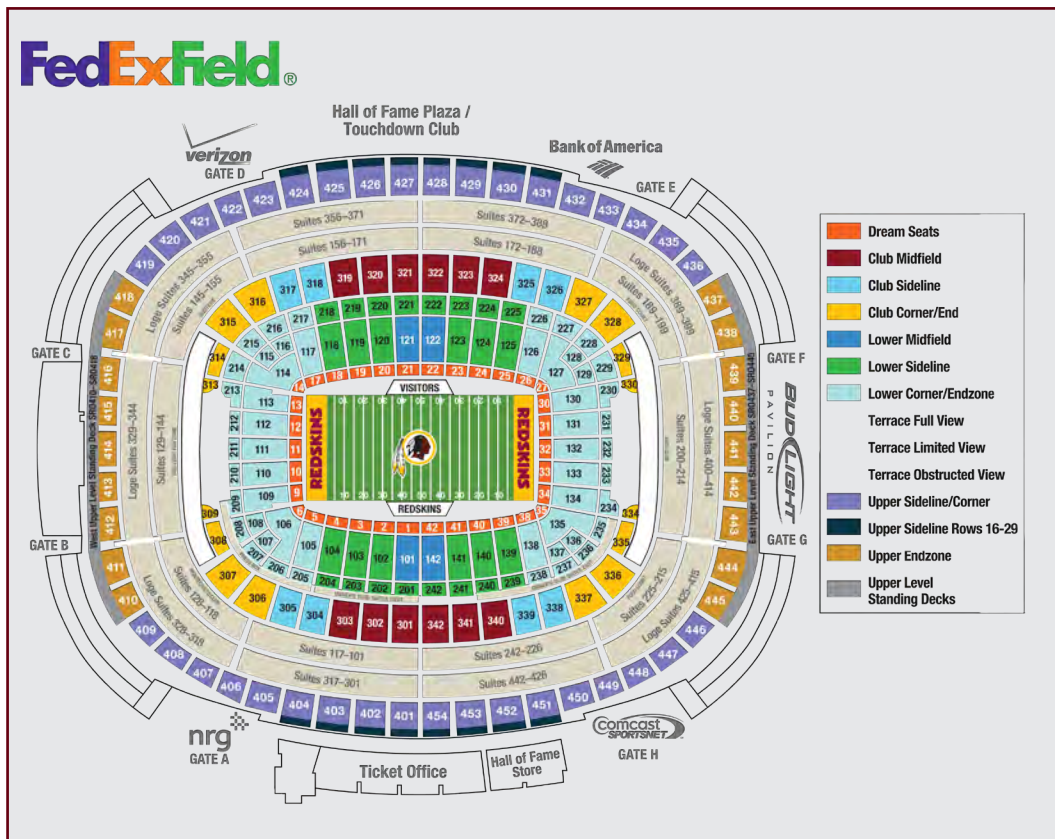

In 2015, the facility hosted 2014 FIFA World Cup runner-up Argentina's soccer match against local favorite El Salvador, bringing international soccer stars Lionel Messi, Sergio Aguero, Carlos Tevez and Javier Mascherano to the Washington, D.C. area. That summer, FedExField hosted two of the biggest names in European soccer when the facility welcomed Barcelona and Chelsea as part of the International Champions Cup.

The home of the Redskins will also welcome top college football teams over the next several seasons. Upcoming college football clashes at FedExField include West Virginia vs. BYU (2016), Virginia Tech vs. Maryland (2017) and Maryland vs. Texas (2018). The venue has played host to a number of high-profile collegiate tilts, including a sold-out prime-time thriller between Virginia Tech and Boise State in September 2010 and welcoming the rich pageantry of the Army-Navy Game to the nation's capital for the first time in 2011.

Redskins Special Events opens up a world of possibilities by making its most exclusive areas that host the "who's who" of Washington during Redskins games available for non-game events throughout the year. FedExField is the perfect backdrop for any special occasion. For more information, check out <http://events.redskins.com>.

A DAY OF FIRSTS

On September 14, 1997, the Redskins opened their new stadium with a thrilling 19-13 overtime victory over the Arizona Cardinals in front of a record crowd of Washington fans.

In their first game at their new home, the Redskins were forced into overtime when Cardinals kicker Kevin Butler connected on a 47-yard field goal to tie the score with just two seconds remaining.

The Cards won the toss to start the extra period, but rookie defensive lineman Kenard Lang stripped Arizona running back Leeland McElroy of the football, and Derek M. Smith recovered for the Skins on the 35-yard line.

Quarterback Gus Frerotte (right) was sacked on first down, but on the next play he found Michael Westbrook in the endzone for a game-winning 40-yard drive.

STADIUM GUIDE

As a guest of FedExField, your safety and enjoyment of the game day experience is our primary concern. Please note that everyone entering FedExField is subject to search by our security staff. This requires fans to enter through predetermined screening locations, which sometimes results in crowding. We apologize for this necessary inconvenience.

Please be aware that you may not bring the following items into FedExField: Bags, including backpacks, gym bags, duffel bags, diaper bags, packages, briefcases, purses, fanny packs, etc... Food and beverages of any kind... Seat cushions... Umbrellas (plastic ponchos are available for sale at select merchandise areas)... Bottles, jugs, thermoses, cans, coolers, or any other container... Animals (except for certified guide dogs assisting disabled guests)... Whistles, horns and other noise makers... Weapons, firearms... Illegal drugs... Folding chairs and strollers.

Per NFL policy, fans will be able to carry the following style and size bag, package, or container at stadium plaza areas, stadium gates, or when approaching queue lines of fans awaiting entry into the stadium:

* Bags that are clear plastic, vinyl or PVC and do not exceed 12" x 6" x 12." (Official NFL team logo clear plastic tote bags will be available through club merchandise outlets or at nflshop.com/allclear).

* One-gallon clear plastic freezer bag (Ziploc bag or similar).

* Small clutch bags are permissible, if they are approximately the size of a hand, with or without a handle or strap can be taken into the stadium with one of the clear plastic bags.

An exception will be made for medically necessary items after proper inspection at a gate designated for this purpose. For more information, please visit: <http://www.nfl.com/allclear>.

Leafletting or distribution of any literature is prohibited.

Understanding and adhering to these policies will help ensure that all fans enter FedExField in a safe and timely manner. If a ticket holder elects not to consent to these searches or is found attempting to enter with a prohibited item, the ticket holder may be denied entry into the stadium.

Alcohol Sales

Alcohol is sold only to guests 21 years or older. Proper photo identification is required. There is a two (2) drink maximum per purchase, per person. On the Lower and Upper Levels, all alcohol sales will cease at the completion of the 3rd Quarter of Redskins games. Sales may be discontinued earlier at the discretion of management and for other events.

ATMs

ATMs are located on the following levels:

* Lower Level: Sections 103, 111, 116, 124, 131 and 139

* Club Level: Sections 303, 324, 330 and 335

* Upper Level: Sections 409, 422, 434 and 449

Automobile Assistance

FedExField provides complimentary automobile assistance for lockouts, jump starts and flat tires. Please visit the nearest Guest Services Booth or ask a FedExField representative for assistance.

Guest Services Booths are located by the elevators at the NRG Gate (Gate A) and the Bank of America Gate (Gate E) on all levels.

Away Games

Ticket and travel packages for all Redskins away games can be purchased through the Redskins travel partner, PrimeSport at PrimeSport.com. Stay at the team hotel, receive souvenirs, and most importantly, get tickets to the game in the Redskins section.

Bud Light Party Pavilion

The Bud Light Party Pavilion is located on the exterior plaza (at Gates F and G). This area opens three hours prior to kickoff and has musical entertainment and food and beverage concessions. A game ticket is required to enter the Bud Light Party Pavilion and there is no exit/re-entry allowed.

Bud Light Social Lounge

Located at section 113, the Redskins and Anheuser Busch have created a one-of-a-kind interactive Social Lounge complete with a virtual field goal kick, two morphing stations, and tablet experiences. Grab a Bud Light and play one of the many Xbox Ones, upload your experiences, and remember to drink responsibly. You must 21+ to enter the Lounge

Cameras

Still cameras, digital cameras and handheld video cameras are permitted at sporting events, as long as they do not interfere with a fan's gameday experience. Guests may not reproduce any shots for any commercial use without the written permission of the Redskins. For concerts, still cameras, digital cameras, video cameras and audio recording devices are not permitted.

Centerplate

INOVA SPORTS PERFORMANCE CENTER

Since 1992, the Washington Redskins have made their home on a picturesque 162 acres of land in Ashburn, Va., at Inova Sports Performance Center at Redskins Park, the team's year-round headquarters. More than 20 years later, commitments to construction and renovation are helping the facility stay amongst the upper echelon of team training facilities in all of professional sports.

In the summer of 2012, the Redskins and the Commonwealth of Virginia announced plans for $35 million in renovations to the team's Northern Virginia home. The plan includes financing from both the Commonwealth of Virginia and Loudoun County.

"During the last two years, the Washington Redskins have made significant improvements to modernize FedExField and Redskins Park, ensuring a best-in-class game day experience for our fans and an excellent training environment for our players," said Redskins President Bruce Allen. "We are very pleased to continue our relationship with the Commonwealth of Virginia that my father established 41 years ago. We are proud to call Loudoun County the home of Redskins Park."

In addition, the team officially opened the Redskins Indoor Training Facility in early 2012. The facility stands 96 feet high and houses a 120-yard practice field, complete with hanging uprights and space to accommodate the team's video needs.

"This is going to give us a great opportunity to work when we have some inclement weather," Allen said. "We're trying to find ways to maximize the players' health and efficiency."

The team has called the location its home since August of 1992, enjoying a private haven away from distractions. The complex features four football fields, strength training and sports medicine facilities, offices and meeting rooms for players, coaches and front office staff, and accommodations for print and broadcast media. The building amasses some 65,000 square feet.

Located in Loudoun County, one of the fastest growing areas in the United States, Inova Sports Performance Center at Redskins Park is tucked away from highways and other office buildings. The two-story concrete and glass structure looks deceiving in size. Visitors enter a bright, spacious lobby that leads to three carefully groomed natural grass playing fields and an additional artificial turf surface.

The lower level of the building is dedicated to football operations, including player and staff locker rooms, an enhanced strength and conditioning center, the equipment room, athletic training rooms and video studio. The athletic training facilities include an x-ray room and dentist office, in addition to private examining rooms for the medical staff that cares for the team throughout the year. During the 2013 renovations, the Redskins expanded their team kitchen on the lower level, allowing players and staff greater access to top-of-the-line nutritional options. Renovations continued during the 2015 offseason to expand the facility's upper floor.

One side of the upper floor consists of coaches' and personnel offices and a large, 105-seat multipurpose auditorium, used for team meetings, press conferences and video sessions. The other side of the building houses offices for the club's accounting, marketing, public relations and administrative offices. The public area of the building consists of large hallways, high ceilings with natural lighting and numerous trophy cases displaying the team's rich history and tradition.

A studio was completed in the rear of the building in 2005. The glassed studio, which houses the Redskins Broadcast Network including Redskins Nation broadcasts, overlooks the facility's practice fields.

In 2005, an additional building adjacent to the main facility was constructed housing the Redskins Charitable Foundation, information technology and retail departments, as well as the Media Workroom. The Workroom includes work stations, wireless internet, high-definition flat screen televisions, men's and women's restrooms, and a kitchen featuring a full-size refrigerator/freezer, soda machine, microwave, water cooler, coffee maker and storage cabinets.

TRAINING CAMP

The Washington Redskins will hold their 2016 Washington Redskins Training Camp beginning on Thursday, July 28. The schedule features a total of 22 public on-field sessions available to fans, highlighted by Fan Appreciation Day on Saturday, Aug. 13.

The team holds its annual camp at the state-of-the-art Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center, which features two full-size natural grass fields, a natural grass drill field, spectator areas, locker rooms and a high-tech training room. The Bon Secours Virginia Health System ensures the facility serves as a valuable year-round resource for the community when camp is not in session. The facility serves as a full-service sports medicine rehabilitation and men's health center on the property throughout the year, in addition to offering men's health, fitness and education programs. The facility is also home to movin' mania, Bon Secours' healthy kids initiative.

Training camp is an annual ritual in the NFL, an opportunity for fans from all over the country to come see their favorite Redskins players in action on the practice field, and get a first glimpse of the newly signed free agents and draft picks.

Announced practices are open to fans, free of charge, including Fan Appreciation Day on Saturday, Aug. 13. Visitors are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or blankets, as they will be able to sit along the hill overlooking the playing fields. After each practice, fans will have the opportunity to gather autographs and take photos of their favorite players as they walk off the field to the locker rooms.

Credentialed media will have additional access to the players and practice areas, and can coordinate interviews through the Redskins Public Relations Department. All media attending Redskins Training Camp must obtain credentials to gain access to the grounds. For information about credential policies and procedures, media members should contact Alexia Greivous of Redskins Public Relations at greivousa@redskins.com.

Detailed training camp practice schedules and more information about the Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center and a full training camp FAQ can be found by visiting www.redskins.com/trainingcamp.

THE GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE

WASHINGTON REDSKINS MARCHING BAND

The Washington Redskins Marching Band has led sellout crowds in stirring renditions of the team's fight song, "Hail to the Redskins," for generations. The Redskins Marching Band celebrated its 75th anniversary in 2012, having entertained Redskins fans at home games from Griffith Stadium to RFK Stadium to FedExField.

The all-volunteer ensemble formed in 1937, when George Preston Marshall brought the team from Boston to Washington D.C. with the goal of entertaining fans from the moment they walked into the stadium until the time they exited.

For more than three quarters of a century, the Marching Band has taken great pleasure in entertaining fans with their pre-game and halftime shows.

Over the years, the group has marched between train stations and stadiums before notable games, down Broadway before a New York Giants game in the early 1960s, and around the concourse of Tampa Stadium during Super Bowl XVIII.

"Hail to the Redskins" made its debut as the official fight song of the Washington Redskins on Aug. 17, 1938. The song was written by renowned band leader Barnee Breeskin and the lyrics were penned by Hollywood movie star Corinne Griffith, Marshall's wife.

HAIL TO THE REDSKINS

Hail Victory!
Braves on the warpath, Fight for old D.C.!"*

*Run or pass and score,
we want a lot more.
Beat 'em, swamp 'em, touchdown,
let the points soar!*

*Fight on, fight on,
'til you have won,
Sons of Wash-ing-ton! (Rah! Rah! Rah!)"*

REDSKINS RING OF FAME

Hanging on the inside facade of FedExField are some of the most hallowed names in Redskins history. The names, encircling the playing field from above, pay tribute to 48 members of the organization whose contributions still resonate and reverberate through franchise history.

The Redskins Ring of Fame added its 47th and 48th members in 2015, inducting center Jeff Bostic and linebacker Monte Coleman during the team's NFC East championship campaign.

Bostic was inducted during the Redskins' historic comeback win against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers last October. Originally signed by the Redskins as a rookie free agent on Sept. 2, 1980, Bostic spent his entire 14-year NFL career in Washington from 1980-93. The man known as "Bosco" appeared in 184 regular season games with 149 starts for Washington. He also started all 18 postseason games he played for the Redskins.

"When you look up at some of the people, the names that surround that stadium – the Sammy Baughs, the Vince Lombardis, the Joe Gibbs, the people that have made an impact on this game – I'm humbled to be there," Bostic said.

Bostic was a founding member of "The Hogs," Washington's famed group of offensive linemen that helped guide the franchise to four Super Bowl appearances and three Super Bowl titles during his career. In Super Bowl XVII, Bostic helped pave the way for a Super Bowl-record 276 rushing yards, guiding the Redskins to their third World Championship and their first Super Bowl title.

In Bostic's 14 seasons in Washington, the Redskins averaged 22.9 points per game (second in NFC, third in NFL) and 342.1 yards per game (second in NFC, fourth in NFL), including 214.3 passing yards per game (second in NFC, fifth in NFL) and 127.8 rushing yards per game (fourth in NFC, sixth in NFL). In that time frame, the Redskins compiled a 150-87 record (.633) in combined regular season and postseason play, the secondbest winning percentage in the NFL across those seasons.

Coleman was selected by the Redskins in the 11th round (289th overall) of the 1979 NFL Draft. Coleman's NFL career spanned 16 seasons from 1979-94, all with Washington. His 215 regular season games played are second-most in Redskins history, trailing only Darrell Green.

Coleman, who was inducted during the team's December victory against the Buffalo Bills last season, was a model of consistency for the Redskins, appearing in at least 10 games in every year of his career with exception of the laborshortened 1982 season. He also appeared in 21 career postseason games, including Super Bowl appearances following the 1982, 1983, 1987 and 1991 seasons.

For his career, Coleman registered 1,002 total regular season tackles (650 solo), 43.5 sacks, 17 interceptions (three returned for touchdowns), 14 fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles, all according to STATS, LLC. Despite sacks not becoming an official NFL statistic until his fourth NFL season in 1982, Coleman's 43.5 career sacks rank third in team history. He also unofficially registered 10.5 "sacks" in his first three seasons.

Both Bostic and Coleman were named by a blue ribbon panel as members of the 70 Greatest Redskins in 2002, later expanded to the 80 Greatest Redskins in 2012.

Meet The Captains

The “First Ladies of Football” have an exciting 2016 season ahead.

The most beautiful, talented and entertaining performers in professional sports just got even better!

This year Maya, Rachel, Chantelle and Tedi will be the four ladies heading up the Redskins Cheerleaders as line captains. The team added 9 new Cheerleaders to the roster. The team is scheduled to go on its 54th overseas military appreciation tour coming this season and also produced its 19th annual cutting-edge swimsuit calendar. For field and stage, they added new sections to the already popular Variety Show, and have been rehearsing since April to bring the best performances to FedExField. You will be entertained by the world's most elite group who not only support the team, but also live, work and attend school in the Washington D.C. metro area. These educated women always find time to mentor youth in the area as well as volunteer to travel overseas to entertain our military men, women and families.

Spirit Explosion and Elite Halftimes, Take Advantage of WRC Youth Programs:

The Junior Redskins Cheerleaders program is a fun, exciting and important part of the Washington Redskins organization. With an enrollment of 200 young ladies, ages 5-17, the program teaches the fundamentals of dance, showmanship and performance. Each year these young ladies are extended the opportunity to perform with the Redskins Cheerleaders at halftime shows, parades and other community events. Each cheerleader also receives a commemorative T-shirt, a tape of their performances, an autographed 2016-2017 Redskins Cheerleaders team photo, as well as memories to last a lifetime! The Junior Redskins Cheerleaders are the exhibition team for our youth dance program. Other exciting programs include our Spirit Explosion halftime show in front of the largest crowd in the NFL. The Redskins Cheerleaders perform a halftime show with hundreds of Dancers and Cheerleaders from area high schools, universities, and dance studios. It is a fun-filled and rewarding experience for everyone.

For more information on the October 16th Spirit Explosion performance or Elite Dance Workshop to Audition for the Elite Halftime January 1st, send an email to Stephanie Jojokian at jojokians@redskins.com, or jrcheerleaders@redskins.com for the Jr. Redskins Cheerleaders.

WASHINGTON REDSKINS RADIO NETWORK

Live broadcasts of Washington Redskins games can be heard in the Washington, D.C. area on ESPN980 (980 AM, 92.7FM and 94.3FM). ESPN980 serves as the home of the Washington Redskins all season long.

Redskins fans are invited to join Pro Football Hall of Famer Sonny Jurgensen and Redskin greats Chris Cooley and Doc Walker for all the analysis as Larry Michael calls the action throughout the season.

The Washington Redskins Radio network provides wall-to-wall coverage with an information-packed pre-game show, halftime analysis with former Redskins great Brian Mitchell, a recap driven post game show and all the play-by-play in-game action.

The games can be heard online on ESPN 980, Home of the Redskins. Outside of the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area, the Redskins Radio Broadcast Network covers four states: Virginia, Maryland, North Carolina and West Virginia.

REDSKINS RADIO PERSONALITIES

Featuring a Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback, two of the organization's most beloved tight ends and the team's broadcast voice, the Washington Redskins Radio Network is home to more than 100 combined years of professional broadcasting experience. Now entering their 13th season sharing the booth, play-by-play announcer Larry Michael will once again join Hall of Famer Sonny Jurgensen on the call. For the fourth straight season, the duo will be joined Redskins great Chris Cooley. Rick "Doc" Walker will be in his ninth season as the team's sideline reporter.

Larry Michael is the "Voice of the Washington Redskins." He also hosts Redskins Nation on a daily basis on Comcast SportsNet as well as The Redskins Coach's Show with Jay Gruden on NBC-4. He is a 10-time Emmy Award Winner who currently serves as the team's Senior Vice President and Executive Producer of Media. His responsibilities also include production of all video content for Redskins.com TV, as well as production of all Redskins Broadcast Network television shows and broadcasts.

Michael's recent hosting duties have also included WRC's Inside the Redskins and WTTG's Redskins Game Time. His resume includes eight Olympic Games, 21 U.S. Open Golf Championships, 12 Masters Tournaments and 12 Super Bowls. Michael has also showcased his vocal talent away from football, working as a part of HBO's Boxing Beat (1997-2003), Comcast SportsNet's Ballroom Boxing (1996-2006), as well as serving as the voice of the George Washington Colonials and as a play-by-play announcer for Westwood One.

Michael is active in area charities, including the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, and serves as a member of the Board of Trustees for the Joe Gibbs Youth for Tomorrow Youth Home.

A legend on the field and a legend in the booth, Sonny Jurgensen has been a part of the Washington Redskins family since 1964. Now entering his 36th season as the team's color analyst, he has called more than 600 games since 1981. Combining his tenures as a broadcaster and a player, Jurgensen has been involved in more than 800 games — including preseason and postseason — as part of the Redskins organization.

Jurgensen played 11 of his 18 NFL seasons in the burndy and gold, ultimately earning induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1983. He currently shares the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in passing yards gained (five) and longest pass completion (99 yards against Chicago on Sept. 15, 1968). A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he is the highest-rated passer among qualified players in Redskins history (85.0), and holds team records for most 300-yard passing games (15), most touchdown passes in a season (31 in 1967) and most consecutive games with a touchdown pass (23).

Jurgensen won five passing titles in his career as the NFL's passing yardage leader. He continues to be regarded as one of the best pure passers in the history of the game, as legendary coach Vince Lombardi once called him "the best I have seen." His name resides in the Redskins Ring of Fame, and he was chosen as one of the 70 Greatest Redskins as part of the team's 70th anniversary in 2002, later expanded to the 80 Greatest Redskins during the team's 80th Anniversary celebration in 2012.

Now in his fourth season as part of the Redskins Radio Network is former Redskins great Chris Cooley. Selected by the Redskins in the third round of the 2004 NFL Draft, Cooley spent nine seasons in Washington from 2004-12. In that time, he became the most prolific tight end in team history, recording 429 receptions, surpassing the great Jerry Smith for the most receptions by a tight end in Redskins annals (421). For his career, the affable two-time Pro Bowler appeared in 117 NFL games with 103 starts, all with the Redskins, gaining 4,711 receiving yards on 429 receptions with 33 receiving touchdowns.

Following his retirement from football, Cooley joined ESPN 980 during the 2013 offseason. In addition to his duties for game broadcasts, Cooley and serves as co-host of "Cooley and Kevin," which airs in drive time each weekday from 7-11 a.m. The former art major at Utah State is also an avid pottery enthusiast and owns The Cooley Gallery in Leesburg, Va.

Serving as the broadcasts' sideline reporter is Rick "Doc" Walker, whose name is synonymous with the "Fun Bunch," the "Hogs," and other pieces of Redskins lore. In addition to sideline reporting for radio broadcasts, Walker co-hosts "Inside the Locker Room" on ESPN 980 and hosts Doc Walker's ProView on MASN. His broadcast work past and present also includes college football analysis for ESPN, the Big East Network, Prime and Raycom Sports.

Walker appeared in 88 games with 55 starts in his seven-year playing career as a Redskin. His stat line with the team includes 56 receptions for 520 yards and six touchdowns from 1980-85. He helped the Redskins defeat the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., the same stadium in which he played college ball as a UCLA Bruin. Walker caught one pass for 27 yards and ran once for six yards in the Redskins' 27-17 Super Bowl victory.

On top of his broadcast duties, Walker is now an in-demand motivational speaker and hosts and annual golf tournament to help fight Alzheimer's.

REDSKINS BROADCAST NETWORK

The Emmy-Award-Winning Redskins Broadcast Network is the TV and Radio production department of the team. The content delivered by RBN includes preseason game broadcasts on NBC4 and Comcast SportsNet. In addition, RBN produces seven original TV shows during the season, plus a daily show year-round, broadcast throughout the Washington, D.C. region:

- * Redskins Nation, which airs each day on CSN and is hosted by the Voice of the Redskins Larry Michael., providing "Redskins 365" and originating from the Inova Sports Performance Center at Redskins Park with a daily look at the team!

- * The Redskins Coach's Show with Jay Gruden on NBC4, where the Redskins' Head Coach breaks it down each week.

- * Redskins Chronicles on NBC4, an in-depth look at an element of the team's history – told by some of the franchise's all-time great alumni.

- * Inside the Redskins on NBC4, which includes all things Redskins including highlights, interviews and features on the team.

- * Redskins Game Time on FOX 5, which gets fans set for kickoff each Sunday as the team prepares for Game Time.

- * Redskins Life on NBC4, a look behind the scenes with one of the Redskins "off the field," as well as the Redskins Cheerleaders and other lifestyle features with Redskins players and coaches.

- * Redskins Final on NBC4, which wraps up the action each Sunday after Sunday Night Football.

- * Monday Morning Redskins Roundup on CSN, airing the day after each Redskins game with analysis and highlights.

In addition to its televised offerings, RBN produces exclusive online content that brings Redskins fans closer to their favorite players and coaches. Redskins.com videos provide fans with timely updates on news from Redskins Park as well as exclusive interviews. In April, free agent cornerback Josh Norman (pictured above) and first-round pick Josh Doctson each conducted their first interviews as members of the Redskins on the Redskins Broadcast Network and Redskins.com.

The Executive Producer of RBN is Larry Michael, the Voice of the Washington Redskins. His staff includes RBN veterans Charlie Brohill, Production Services Coordinator; Luke LeSourd, Senior Producer; Steven Jenkins, Videographer/Producer; Jennifer Allhouse, Producer; and Darryl Johnson, Digital Media Producer. From the sideline to the locker room, Redskins Broadcast Network goes where no other media outlet can go, for the real story on the Washington Redskins, 365 days a year!

REDSKINS DIGITAL

FedExField plays host to the passion of Redskins fans on Sundays in the fall, but the Redskins' digital platforms serve as a gathering point for the team's ravenous fan base year-round. Redskins.com and the team's other digital properties are the leading source for direct access to Redskins' fans favorite team, including breaking news, complete team coverage, features, photo galleries, statistics and more.

No NFL team provides its fans more behind-the-scenes access and exclusive looks. On Redskins.com and various social media channels, social media manager Bryan Van Balen and team photographer Garrett Campbell take the burgundy and gold faithful inside Redskins Park, on the team plane and in the locker room for pregame preparations and postgame celebrations while senior writer Stephen Czarda and staff writer Jake Kring-Schreifels keep fans abreast of team news. All of this exclusive content is available on-demand at fans' fingertips with the Washington Redskins Mobile App.

Redskins.com and the Redskins mobile app also offers exclusive interviews with players, coaches and team officials, an updated roster and depth chart, weekly game previews, a comprehensive history section and a section devoted to the Redskins Cheerleaders, including their 2016 calendar shoot in Costa Rica. Fans can also sign up for the Season Ticket Waiting List online and weekly e-newsletters, as well as register for team events, such as training camp.

In the Redskins Official Online Store, fans from near and far can shop for the latest team merchandise, from team jerseys and caps to Redskins card tables and chairs. Fans from all over the world can also chat about the team on ExtremeSkins.com, the team's fan forum.

The team's official Twitter account (@Redskins) provides up-to-the-minute updates, breaking personnel news, links to Redskins.com content and highlighted quotes from Redskins press conferences. The account, in conjunction with the team's Instagram (@Redskins) and Snapchat ("Redskins-Snap") accounts, offers fans a glimpse behind-the-scenes, including exclusive content at the NFL Draft, live Q&A's, notes from the practice field, going inside the locker room on game day, and featured sneak peeks of the Washington Redskins Cheerleaders' annual photo shoots. The Redskins' Facebook page [Facebook.com/Redskins] gives fans a chance to sound off about their favorite players, see their own photos shared, vote in polls, see exclusive photos & video, and win prizes.

In 2012, the Redskins became the first NFL team to work with Reddit to host a series of Reddit AMAs ("Ask Me Anything" chats) and have continued to have players engage with fans by taking over the team's various social platforms. Pro Bowler Ryan Kerrigan and quarterback Kirk Cousins are among the many Redskins players to have welcomed fan questions on Reddit and other platforms.

Senior Vice President Tony Wyllie enters his seventh season with the Redskins in 2016 in the midst of his third decade of NFL service as a decorated communications professional.

He serves as an advisor to the principal owner on all issues related to public perception of the franchise. He shapes and molds the team image through all public contacts and publicity generation, serves as liaison between team and local and national media, oversees coordination of all interviews and serves as team spokesman.

Wyllie and his staffs have earned the Pete Rozelle Award, presented annually by Pro Football Writers of America to the best NFL public relations staff, five times during his career. He is the only executive in the NFL to have won the award with three different teams.

He has previously worked as an Assistant Director of Public Relations for the Los Angeles/St. Louis Rams (1994-98), the Director of Public Relations for the Tennessee Titans (1998-2000) and Vice President of Communications for the Houston Texans (2000-10). During his career, he helped guide the Rams franchise through their 1995 transition from Los Angeles to St. Louis and assisted with the relocation and renaming of the Tennessee Titans. He was one of the first hires of the expansion Texans in 2000, helping to build the new franchise's image even during the two years prior to the team's first game in 2002.

The Brooklyn native began his NFL career as a game day intern with the Houston Oilers in 1991 before working as a summer intern with the San Diego Chargers PR department in 1992. He spent 1993 as an intern in the PR department with the Dallas Cowboys. Wyllie has helped promote 11 Pro Football Hall of Famers in his career.

Wyllie worked three years in the sports information department of Texas Southern University, where he received his degree in journalism. Wyllie received TSU's "Distinguished Alumnus" award in 2004, and in December 2013, delivered a commencement address at the university. He also earned an MBA from the Jones School of Business at Rice University. In 2015, Wyllie was honored with the SWAC Alumni Association Lifetime Achievement Award for his contributions to the Southwestern Athletic Conference's athletic heritage.

In Houston, Wyllie served on numerous Boards of Directors including the Ensemble Theatre in Houston, the March of Dimes, and the Management Leadership for Tomorrow-Houston, John P. McGovern Museum of Health & Medical Science, the Houston Texans YMCA and the Touchdown Club of Houston. He is currently on the board at County Christian School in Ashburn, Va.

He and his wife, Natasha, are parents of son James Anthony and daughter Toni Simone. The family resides in Northern Virginia.

703-726-7368 // taylorr@redskins.com

Ross Taylor is entering his sixth NFL season and his sixth with the Redskins' public relations staff in 2016. The Redskins promoted Taylor to Director of Communications prior to the 2015 season after he spent four years in various public relations capacities for the team across the 2011-14 seasons.

Taylor is responsible for football publicity efforts relating to the editing and design of media materials, including game releases, digital media guides, event releases, game notes, season in reviews, daily transcripts and more. He also serves as a liaison between the organization and members of the media, assists in shaping organizational messaging, and provides research expertise to football operations.

In addition, Taylor has been part of a select group chosen by the NFL to provide PR assistance on the league's behalf during NFC Championship week three times. Taylor assisted the league for the conference title game following the 2012, 2014 and 2015 seasons and declined an additional selection in 2013 during the Redskins' head coaching search.

Taylor first joined the Redskins as a public relations intern during the summer of 2010. He joined the team on a full-time basis directly following the conclusion of the NFL lockout in July 2011. Throughout his first three NFL seasons, he provided statistical research expertise to former Executive Vice President/Head Coach Mike Shanahan and football operations staff from 2011-13.

His background includes an internship with The Dallas Morning News in which he served as a staff writer for SportsDay in 2007. Before joining the Redskins, Taylor spent five months interning at the world headquarters of Fleishman-Hillard International Communications in St. Louis.

Taylor graduated magna cum laude from the esteemed School of Journalism at the University of Missouri in December 2010, earning a Bachelor's of Journalism with an emphasis in convergence journalism in three-and-a-half years. During his time at Mizzou, he completed assignments for a number of media organizations, including KBIA-FM [NPR], the Columbia Missourian, KOMU-TV [NBC] and The Maneater. In his final semester, Taylor and a colleague launched KBIA Sports Extra, which was later integrated into the curriculum by convergence journalism faculty as the genesis of a new Multimedia Sports Journalism course.

In addition, Taylor served as the play-by-play voice of the Missouri Tigers women's volleyball team for parts of 2009 and all of 2010, culminating in the team's run to the Sweet 16 of the 2010 NCAA Tournament.

Taylor is a native of Coppell, Texas. He currently resides in Northern Virginia.

ZENA LEWIS
MEDIA SERVICES COORDINATOR

2ND NFL SEASON
2ND WITH REDSKINS

Contact Lewis for:

- > Interview requests for all players except QB Kirk Cousins

703-726-7422 // lewisz@redskins.com

Zena Lewis is entering his second season with the Washington Redskins as Media Services Coordinator after originally joining the team prior to the 2015 season.

Lewis is responsible for managing the media schedule and serves as the primary contact for media requests for Redskins players. He provides counsel and training for Redskins players as it pertains to media appearances and social media use.

Lewis joined the Redskins in 2015 with six previous years of game day media relations experience with various NFL organizations. He contributed to the game day press operations of the Tennessee Titans (2009-10), Detroit Lions (2011), Miami Dolphins (2012 preseason) and Atlanta Falcons (2012-14). Lewis was responsible for coordinating and conducting interviews with visiting teams and helping contribute to other press box operations.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Lewis served as the Assistant Commissioner of Communications and New Media at the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, spearheading a redesign of the league's website. Before his time with the SIAC, Lewis served as Assistant Director of Media Relations for the Southwestern Athletic Conference, acting as the media liaison for the league office, its events and championships from 2012-14. In that role, he was the primary media contact for football, baseball, bowling, volleyball and women's basketball.

Lewis' background also includes experience as Assistant Director of Public and Media Relations for the women's basketball program at the University of Michigan, Assistant Director of Sports and Media Relations at Tennessee State University, Communications Assistant for the Women's Basketball Coaches Association and as Assistant Director of Sports Information and Media Relations at Clark Atlanta University.

Lewis earned his bachelor's degree from Florida A&M University, majoring in broadcast journalism and public relations. He also ran varsity track and field, earning MEAC championship rings as a member of Florida A&M's title teams in 1995 and 1997.

Lewis is a native of Brooklyn, N.Y., and attended Santaluces H.S. in Palm Beach County, Fla. He now resides in Northern Virginia.

ALEXIA GREIVOUS
CORPORATE COMMUNICATIONS

2ND NFL SEASON
2ND WITH REDSKINS

Contact Greivous for:

- > Credential requests
- > Corporate and community information

703-726-7077 // greivousa@redskins.com

Alexia Greivous is entering her second season as the Washington Redskins' Corporate Communications Manager after originally joining the team prior to the 2015 season.

Greivous is responsible for sustaining a strong corporate image through positive media coverage for the Redskins outside the traditional scope of football, as well as assisting with the implementation of the league's public relations policies. She helps promote Redskins' community relations and marketing events, finding ways to project the organizations' coaches and players in a positive light. Greivous develops, coordinates and implements strategic communication plans, including media advisories, press releases, fact sheets and press kits.

Greivous' NFL experience includes having worked as a member of game day staffs of the Atlanta Falcons and Indianapolis Colts during the 2013 and 2014 seasons, respectively.

Greivous first joined the Redskins as a summer public relations intern during the 2013 offseason. During that time, she helped facilitate interviews between media and Redskins personnel, helped edit the 2013 digital media guide and assisted with the compilation and distribution of daily news clips.

Prior to joining the Redskins full-time, Greivous spent 10 months with the NCAA in its web communications department at the organization's headquarters in Indianapolis. She helped communicate news and information through NCAA digital media platforms, creating video content and writing profile pieces for the website and Champion Magazine.

Greivous earned her undergraduate degree in communication studies from Clemson University in 2014. While at Clemson, she worked as a recruiting assistant for the football program from 2011-14, appearing on "Death Valley Live" and hosting a "100 Yards" interview segment for Clemson-Tigers.com.

During her time as a student, she contributed to three case studies published in academic communications journals, including "Coach Verbal Aggression: A Case Study Examining Effects on Athletes Motivation and Perceptions of Coach Credibility," as well as other studies examining the self-presentation of sports broadcasters and the media framing of quarterbacks' injury decisions.

Greivous is a native of Fort Mill, S.C. She currently resides in Northern Virginia.

2016 MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIAL POLICY

The Washington Redskins grant credentials and media access based on merit as guided by the priorities listed below. Because of the limited space available at Inova Sports Performance Center at Redskins Park and FedExField, these priority guidelines are intended to facilitate the most efficient use of space for working media covering the Washington Redskins and the NFL.

Full credential request policies are detailed below. For more information about obtaining media credentials, please contact Alexia Grevious at 703-726-7077 or by e-mail at agreviousa@redskins.com.

The Redskins prioritize outlets in the following order:

1. Broadcast partners, including television and radio personnel responsible for live broadcasts of Washington Redskins games.
2. Local beat reporters who cover the team on a daily basis for large-scale local outlets, including newspapers, wire services, radio stations and television affiliates that cover the Washington Redskins and the NFL on a regular basis.
3. Large-scale national outlets, including national newspapers, magazines, television stations, websites and more.
4. Washington, D.C. metro area community publications and stations.
5. Out-of-town community outlets on specific assignment to cover Redskins personnel of unique interest to the outlet's market (e.g.: a player's hometown newspaper).
6. Blogs, internet radio and other independent outlets, whose merit and credential consideration is subject to the discretion of Redskins Public Relations.

Policies for visiting scouts are handled separately in accordance with the 2016 Scouting Policy as distributed to all NFL teams prior to the season.

The following guidelines will be observed in granting access:

1. Season credentials will be reserved for organizations that provide consistent and substantial coverage of the Washington Redskins. Please be advised that a season media credential does not guarantee working space in media work areas.
2. With the exception of seasonally credentialed Redskins beat reporters who produce daily on-site reports, all credentials at both locations are approved and issued on a daily and/or game-by-game basis.
3. Passes and credentials are transferable within the same media outlet for use by those serving an editorial function with proper notice and approval by Redskins Public Relations. Passes used by any member of a credentialed outlet without specific editorial assignment or by non-working members of the organization are subject to revocation and will affect all future credentialing decisions by Redskins Public Relations for that outlet.
4. As the result of limited work space, credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers without a specific assignment received in writing by the assigning organization.
5. Credentials may be issued: a) to online entities that are affiliated with a national or regional media organization; or, b) to online entities that host a website that regularly and substantially reports on the National Football League or the Washington Redskins, and employs for that website at least one full-time permanent employee who writes a substantial majority of all material posted on the site. Priority for these sites will be based on potential audience at the discretion of Redskins Public Relations.
6. Redskins personnel may deny or revoke credentials without notice and an individual shall surrender his/her credential upon request for: noncompliance with the priorities or guidelines set out in this policy; noncompliance with health, safety, or security directives issued regarding Redskins events; and for conduct for which there are reasonable grounds to believe violate state or federal law, or constitute a breach of professional ethics. Any organization that wishes to contest a denial or revocation may: a) request Redskins Public Relations provide a written rationale for the denial or revocation; b) submit a written response to that rationale to the Senior Vice President of Communications.
7. Redskins Public Relations reserves the right to change this policy at any time.

PRESS INFORMATION

All Redskins press releases and weekly media packets are distributed via e-mail. Please contact the Redskins Public Relations department to be added to the team's email distribution list for all press releases and media advisories.

The Redskins Public Relations department also utilizes the @RedskinsMedia Twitter account. @RedskinsMedia is a private account that is only accessible upon request for media members who cover the team on a daily basis who need information regarding scheduling changes and other sensitive information. Reporters with access to this account are encouraged to have @RedskinsMedia tweets pushed to their mobile phones to receive the most timely information on changes to media availability. Please contact Ross Taylor of Redskins Public Relations via email to be granted access to the @RedskinsMedia Twitter account.

Media can access the latest league press information from the NFL's media website at www.nflmedia.com. The NFL's official website is www.nfl.com.

MEDIA WORKROOM

The media workroom at Inova Sports Performance Center at Redskins Park is located inside the annex building adjacent to the main entrance. The room is available to working media throughout the week. Phones, rosters, transcripts and other information will be available in this area.

VIDEO STREAMING

Media availabilities, open practice sessions and other team activities on club premises may not be broadcast live by an individual or media outlet without prior approval from the Washington Redskins. This includes the use of social media applications such as Periscope, Meerkat and UStream among others.

PRACTICE ACCESS

During the regular season, Wednesday-Friday practices will be open to local media who regularly cover the team for designated periods. Upon arrival at the practice facility, please go to the media workroom where a member of the public relations staff will escort you to practice. To request a Redskins Park Media Credential, email Alexia Grevious (greviousa@redskins.com) at least one (1) day prior to your scheduled visit. Any media member without a Redskins Park Media Credential provided by the Washington Redskins Public Relations department will not be permitted access to the facilities. NO INFORMATION FROM PRACTICE THAT MAY COMPROMISE THE TEAM'S COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE IS ALLOWED TO BE DISTRIBUTED VIA ANY MEDIA PLATFORM. This includes personnel groupings, formations, injury speculation, specific plays and more as judged by Redskins Public Relations. Failure to comply could lead to revocation of credentials.

JAY GRUDEN INTERVIEWS

Head Coach Jay Gruden will conduct a weekly news conference at 3 p.m. ET on Mondays in the Media Interview Room. He will also be available after practice on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of each game week. One-on-one requests should be sent to Tony Wyllie (wyllie@redskins.com).

COORDINATOR INTERVIEWS

During the regular season, Defensive Coordinator Joe Barry will be formally available at the podium after practice on Thursdays. Offensive Coordinator Sean McVay will be formally available at the podium after practice on Fridays. Ross Taylor (taylor@redskins.com) serves as the primary media contact for coordinators. All requests for coordinators beyond that time will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis in accordance with the coaches' scheduling availability.

ASSISTANT COACH INTERVIEWS

All requests for assistants must be arranged through the Redskins Public Relations with at least 24 hours notice. Position coaches are available for questions on specific players and the position group only. No position coaches should be contacted directly by telephone (at an office line, at home or by cell phone) or by email. Ross Taylor (taylor@redskins.com) serves as the primary media contact for assistant coaches.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

The Redskins' locker room is open to accredited media for specific interview periods during the week. The locker room is generally open to the media for 45 minutes following practices on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays of normal game weeks. All one-on-one requests should be arranged through the Redskins PR department at least 48 hours in advance. All interviews must be conducted inside the locker room unless additional permission is granted by a Redskins PR staff member. NO B-ROLL, STILL PHOTOGRAPHY OR LIVE STREAMING IS ALLOWED INSIDE THE LOCKER ROOM. Interviews to be conducted by phone must be arranged through Redskins PR prior to the day of the scheduled interview. All times are subject to change without prior notice.

GAME CREDENTIALS

Demand for credentials is high, and as such, the size and legitimacy of each media outlet requesting access will be considered on a case-by-case basis and subject to the discretion of Redskins Public Relations. Full details on credentialing decisions are available at the beginning of this policy.

For home games, all requests must be submitted through the team's online credentialing system located at www.redskins.com/credentials no later than 5 p.m. ET on Tuesday of that particular game week.

For away games, all requests must be e-mailed to Alexia Grevious (greviousa@redskins.com) and must include attending media members' name, job title, media affiliation and pick-up preference (Redskins Park or Media Will Call). All requests must be submitted 10 days in advance of the requested road game.

GAME DAY PARKING

There are a limited number of season-long parking passes at FedExField for media members to purchase. All media members are welcome to park, free of charge, at the Media Parking Lot at the Grey Lot at FedExField.

In addition, television trucks that provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will be parked in Lot B1. Media that wish to bring a truck to a Redskins game must contact both Josh Epstein (epstein@redskins.com) and Alexia Grevious (greviousa@redskins.com) no later than Monday of that particular game week.

MEDIA ENTRANCE AND WILL CALL

The media entrance and Media Will Call are located at the South Field Tunnel by Gate B. All media members that have been confirmed by the Redskins Public Relations department must enter through the media entrance.

The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission into the stadium. For security purposes, the Redskins do not send out game-by-game credentials prior to game day. All media picking up credentials on game day must do so at Media Will Call.

A valid form of government-issued photo identification is required to pick up credentials. Media Will Call will open 3.5 hours prior to kickoff.

FREQUENCY COORDINATOR

All credentialed media members who will be using a wireless radio frequency device such as a wireless microphone, communications radio, etc. (cell phones excluded) on FedExField property must register their frequency information. To do so, please contact the NFL Game Day Coordinator, Bill Sien, via email at redskinsgdc@yahoo.com or by phone at 730-915-8501 no later than Tuesday of game week.

INTERNET AND PHONE LINES

FedExField features complimentary wireless internet in the press box and photo room. You will be supplied with access information in those areas. Media interested in setting up a game day phone line at FedExField should fill out a request form which can be obtained by emailing Alexia Grevious at greviousa@redskins.com no later than Monday of that particular game week.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers who are credentialed for sideline access will be required to wear a photo vest. Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers on assignment for recognized news organizations. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted on the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKER ROOM ACCESS

Members of the media needing to conduct post-game interviews will be given access to the Redskins' and visiting team's interview rooms after the game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. A Redskins PR representative will escort media down to the interview areas with four minutes remaining in the game. No B-Roll, still photography, live streaming or autographs are allowed in the Redskins locker room. No interviews are allowed on or coming off the field following the game. Following the customary 10-minute cooling off period at the conclusion of the game, the Redskins' and visiting team's locker rooms will be open to the media. Redskins Head Coach Jay Gruden will be available in the postgame interview room. To get there, take the stairs to the field level and follow the signs to the locker and interview rooms. Following Coach Gruden, additional players may be brought into the interview room. Press conferences will also be shown on the televisions in the press box as they occur.
